LAST WEEKEND we spent a very relaxing weekend camping at Sunrise Lake in Nicholson. The campground was nice and quiet. The lake provided a place to fish, swim and ride paddle boats. On Sunday evening, a square dance was held. Bill and I are inexperienced square dancers, to say the least, but I think by the end of the set, we got into the spirit of things. Enjoying the weekend with us were

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sitar and family; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gardner and family; Mrs. Catherine Polacky.

If any of you campers out there are interested, Sunrise Lake is only about 45 minutes away from Dallas. Just perfect for a weekend stay.

EVERYONE KNOWS that the prettiest little girls live in the Back Mountain so it's no surprise that Heather Anne Brody, daughter of Douglas and Millie Brody, Over-brook Avenue, was chosen Pennsylvania's Little Miss at the America's Little Miss Pageant in the 6 to 8 year old division. The pageant was held in Essington.

Heather Anne was named most photogenic and won first place in the party dress and sportswear competition.

Heather Anne will represent Pennsylvania as a finalist in the 1985 nationals June 26 to June 30 in Louisville, Kentucky.

Heather Anne has a sister, Laura, 3. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Weis, Dallas and Mr. and Mrs. George Brody, Noxen. Her great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Martin Weiss, Plains Township.

TRINITY NURSERY SCHOOL held its closing program for the 1984-85 school year recently. Following distribution of diplomas and certificates by the staff, a maypole dance was performed for the parents. A covered dish luncheon followed the program.

Registrations are being accepted for th 1985-86 school year. One, two, three and four day sessions are available for three, four and five year olds for both morning and afternoon. For information call the office of Trinity United Presbyterian Church, Church Street, Dallas.

CONGRATULATIONS to recent winners of the annual spring art show sponsored by Dallas Feder-ated Women's Club. Receiving awards for their artwork were Dallas Junior High students Tracey Michael, Karsten Krivenko, Kerry Burke, Jennifer Spear, Marcella Bove, Aric Gingo, Wilbur Murdock, Gregg Steuben, Brett Gauntlett, David Zachary and Paul Wilk.

-O-KEEP IN MIND that Cider Painters of America will hold their members' show at College Misericordia Art Gallery June 28 through July 12. The group exhibits miniature paintings done in any media not exceeding a maximum of 3x5 inches.

The Cider Painters of America was founded in 1983 in Dallas, Pennsylvnaia. It is a lighthearted organization dedicated to the fine art of painting miniatures, enjoying a bit of liquid refreshment and the companionship and encouragement of fellow painters. The group's goals are to create miniature paintings of excellence, to encourage public awareness and enjoyment of miniature paintings and to include at least one member from every state in the nation. Membership to the group is by invitation only.

Volunteers serve as regional coordinators since there are no officers in the organization. Local Keeper of the Apples (membership) is Millie Robinson, Keeper of the Jug (treasurer) is Kathleen Semmel, Sue Hand is regional coordinator.

Members from 11 states plus Australia will exhibit their work at College Misericordia. Make it a point to visit this interesting art exhibit and learn mor about Cider Painters of America and their tiny creations.
