

Community Calendar

Luncheon set

This year's Back Mountain United Methodist Women's Spring Luncheon will again be held at the Irem Temple Country Club, Wednesday, June 12 at 12 noon. The program will be a nostalgic presentation of Edith Bregnard's humorous quips in verse. Reservations are to be made no later than June 8 with the key person in the local churches. Those participating with the planning and execution of the luncheon are, from left, first row, Sylvia Kuhnert, Dallas; Vera Tough, Lehman; Louise James, Dallas; Elda Coolbaugh, Lehman; Nancy Dukes, Trucksville; and Louise Thomas, Idetown. Second row, Betty J. Mathers, Trucksville; Dorothy Williams, Trucksville; Ginny Rogers, Idetown; Lowry Puckey, Dallas; Donna Kachmar, Shavertown; Alice Moye, Shavertown; Deborah Shambora, Lehman; Jean McCulloch, Lehman; Betty Rogers, Shavertown and Naomi Nuss, Lehman.

Planning roast

Harveys Lake Protective Association OX-Roast committee is shown here. From left, Michael Shisko chairman, Mayor Frank Picci, Ron DeBalko, Association President and Butch Hall.

Festival features Ox Roast

"Rediscover our region's greatest natural wonder" is the theme of the Harveys Lake Homecoming Festival which will be held on June 15-16.

A steering committee comprised of borough organizations and other interested persons sponsor the festival with a shot of activities from fishing tournaments, arts and craft show, to a festival dance complete with fireworks.

The Harveys Lake Protective Association has participated in the festival. The association's main objective is to hold a non-profit event designed to promote fellowship, civic pride and bring the residents and friends of the community together by sponsoring an ox-roast. The ox-roast has been a huge success with everyone enjoying the excellence of choice beef roasted to perfection over an open fire.

Michael Shisko, ox-roast chairman, invites everyone to the event which will be at Hanson's Picnic Grounds on Saturday, June 15. Serving of a complete beef dinner will be from noon to 5 p.m. with takeouts available.

Tickets should be purchased in advance. They are available at the following lake businesses: Drury's Restaurant; Taft's Market and Javers Store. For additional information, phone 639-1556.

Have some fun!

You too, can have some of this fun and laughter by joining us at Vacation Bible School at the Dallas Baptist Church in Idetown. Learn of Jesus and his love for each of us. June 17 through June 28, 9:30 till 12 noon, ages 4 years old through 6th grade. There will be arts and crafts, refreshments and good fellowship with other Christians. A fun time will be had by all.

Curry to speak at breakfast

Steve Galanda, chairman of Holy Trinity Parish's Annual Father and Family Breakfast announced that this year's speaker will be George Curry, head football coach at Berwick High. Coach Curry is a native of Larksville where he starred in football making All Scholastic and starred for Temple University.

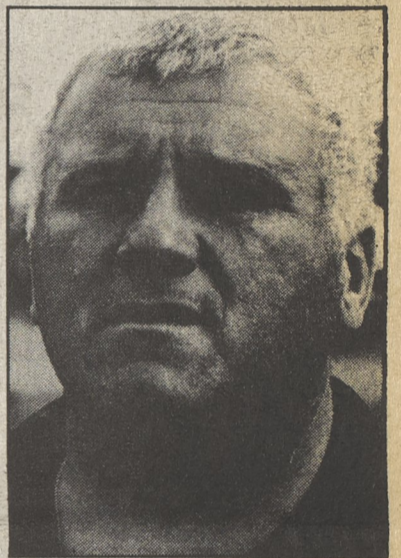

While at Berwick High after a successful season at Lake-Lehman High School, Curry has become one of the most successful football coaches around, not only in the state, but in the country as he was recently voted by U.S.A. Today as one of the outstanding coaches in the country. His 1983 team was voted No. 1 in the Country.

Besides his great record at Berwick High, Coach Curry has another ambition. It is to see that his graduates find a place in life such as college, and work or trade. This past season, he got over $500,000 worth of scholarships for his youngsters.

Chairman Galanda said that the breakfast will begin right after the 9 a.m. Mass. John Husovsky is president of the Holy Name Society. Rev. John Marinko is president and moderator and Rev. Michael Litcheck is assistant pastor.

All parishioners are invited to attend. Reservations can be made by contacting Mr. Galanda, President Husovsky or any of the members.

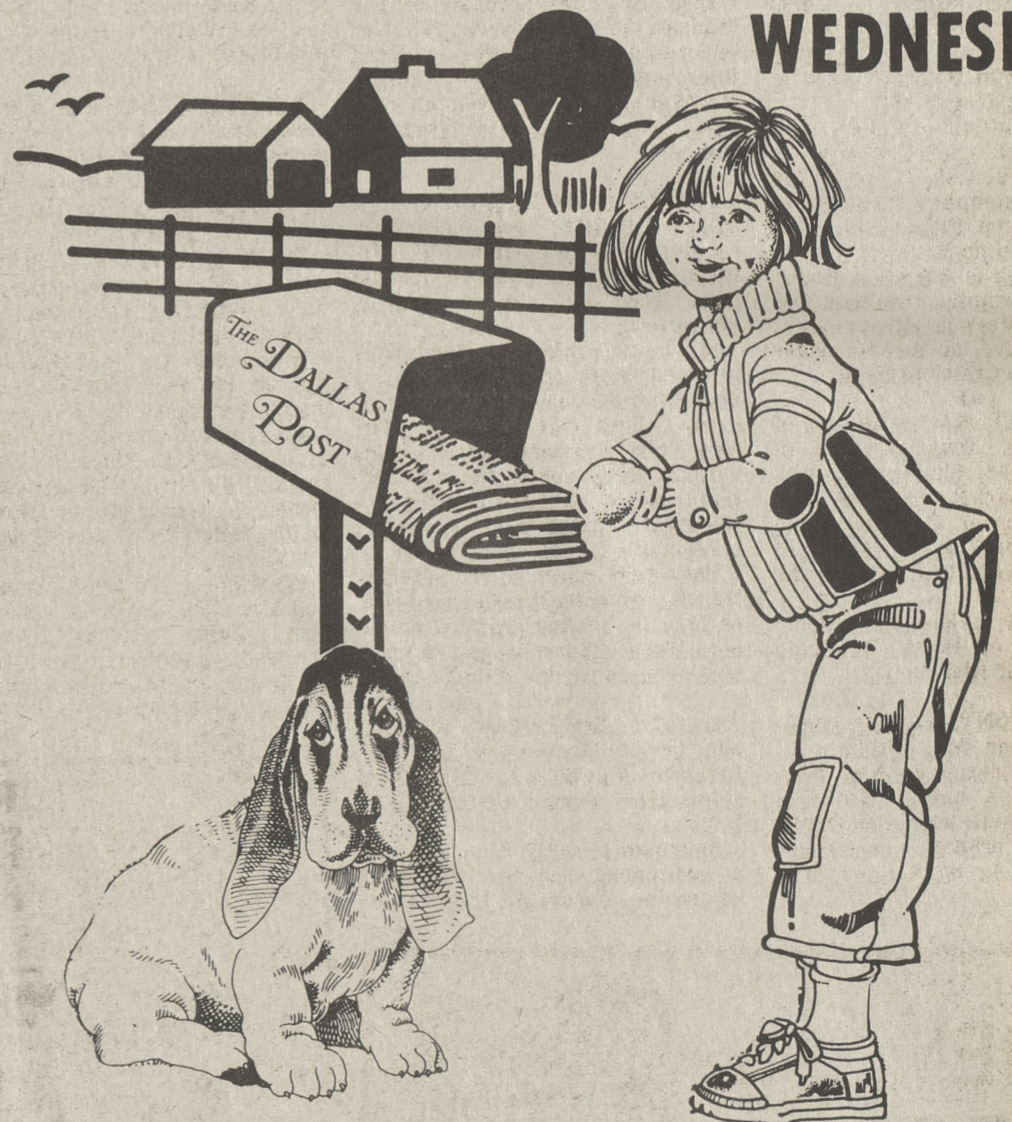

GEORGE CURRY

Show slated

"The Year of the Family" will be the theme of the Art Show on June 24-28 sponsored by Family Service Association of Wyoming Valley in honor of its 90th anniversary. The mixed media show will be at United Penn Bank, Market Street, Wilkes-Barre, and will be open during banking hours. Most of the art work will relate to the family theme, although that is not a requirement for acceptance. One of the artists who is preparing a drawing with a family theme is Kathy Millington of Dallas, shown here with her daughter, Seagan, age 7.

IT'S A GREAT PLACE TO VISIT!
YOUR OWN HOMETOWN NEWSPAPER
DELIVERED TO YOUR HOME EVERY WEDNESDAY

Just Fill Out The Coupon And Mail It With Your Check To:

THE DALLAS POST
P.O. Box 366 Dallas, Pa. 18612
Or Call Jean 675-5211 For Assistance

$12 1 Year
$23 2 Years
$32 3 Years
$14 . 1 Year Out Of State

NAME
ADDRESS
CITY
STATE ZIP

Summer Camps for Kids

BEGINNING JUNE 10

SUMMER FUN/LEARNING
FOR AGES 4 TO 14

A SAMPLING OF WORKSHOPS

For further information:
PENN STATE WILKES-BARRE
Continuing Education
P.O. Box PSU
Lehman, PA 18627

PHONE: (717) 675-2171

- Tennis
- Soccer
- Golf
- Computers
- Opportunities in Engineering Technology
- Quilting for Kids
- Keying in on Keyboarding
- Creative Drama
- and many more