Courses

THE GREATER WILKES-BARRE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE will sponsor the upcoming Dale Carnegie Course to be presented to Wilkes-Barre. The course is designed to aid in communication skills, human relations and leadership abilities.

Dave Yarrish, a local Dale Carnegie representative, is in the process of arranging for a class to begin shortly in the Wilkes-Barre area. Interested persons can get detailed information by calling the Chamber at 823-2101.

COLLEGE MISERICORDIA will be offering a variety of non-credit courses for adults and children throughout June.

For information and a free brochure detailing summer courses for adults and children, contact the college's Office of Special Programs at 675-2181, ext. 331.

Programs

OBSTETRICAL CARE to area's expectant mothers is offered each Tuesday by the Mother-To-Be Program of Nesbitt Memorial Hospital. The program is held at 4 p.m. at the Wyoming Valley Family Practice Center, 540 Pierce Street, Kingston.

It provides quality health care to both mother and baby regardless of one's ability to pay. A comprehensive fee, covering physician, obstetrical services and related hospital costs is available for patients without insurance.

The Mother-To-Be Program's services include regular monthly examinations, blood work and ultrasound procedures. An eight week prenatal education program is available to parents providing information about natural childbirth and care of the newborn. It is completed with a six weeks check-up after discharge from the hospital.

For more information on the Mother-To-Be Program, contact Nesbitt Memorial Hospital's Obstetrics Department at 288-8959.

AN EIGHT-HOUR BACK CARE SCHOOL emphasizing back injury prevention will be presented by the NPW Medical Center Outpatient Department June 11-13 from 6:30 p.m. to 9:15 p.m. in the Valley Medical Building located adjacent to the NPW Medical Center.

Along with instruction in the prevention of back injuries, the program will include information on anatomy, physical therapy, the importance of exercise, the role of stress and relaxation and maintenance of ideal body weight in back care.

Reservations and additional information for the NPW Back Care School may be obtained by calling the NPW Outpatient Physical and Occupational Therapy Department at 826-7971. There is a $30 fee per individual to cover the cost of the program.

Theater

THE WYOMING VALLEY BAPTIST CHURCH will show a film, "Kevin Can Wait" on Sunday, June 9, at 7 p.m. Everyone is welcome. The church is located on Route 315, across from the VA Hospital.

THE DOMESTIC VIOLENCE SERVICE CENTER, Wilkes-Barre, will present a benefit performance of Neil Simon's "Barefoot in the Park" on Sunday, June 9, at 2 p.m. at the Little Theater, 537 N. Main St., Wilkes-Barre.

Tickets are $8 for general admission and $10 for reserved seating. For ticket information, call 288-1554.

DIRECTOR JANE TOMASSETTI has set audition dates for the Showcase Theatre production of "My Fair Lady". This well loved Lerner and Loewe musical classic will be presented at the Wilkes College Center for the Performing Arts on Sept. 27, 28 and 29 and Oct. 4, 5 and 6.

Tryouts will be held at the Wilkes

College Center for the Performing Arts on June 6 and 7 at 7:30 p.m. Men and women of various ages from late teens and upward are needed to round out the cast. Tryouts are open to anyone interested in participating in local community theatre.

Events

THE WYOMING VALLEY CHAPTER, American Red Cross will hold its seventh annual Swim-A-Cross the week of July 22-26, event chairperson Suzanne Youngblood announced recently.

Last year's event raised $12,000 for the Chapter through 21 area pools and their staffs. Over 300 swimmers took part in the event and competed for prizes contributed by area merchants.

This year's event will be kicked off with a Celebrity Swim Anything Goes relay on Monday morning, July 22 at the Kingston pool.

The 1985 Swim-A-Cross is being sponsored by McDonald's, KRZ 98 1/2 FM and Nexxus Hair Care products.

A list of participating pools will be announced in the future. Back Mountain pools participating last year were Irem Temple, Jewish Community Center Holiday House, Valley Swim and Tennis Club and Moon Lake.

THE WILKES-BARRE CHRISTIAN WOMEN'S CLUB will hold a breakfast-buffet on Wednesday, June 19, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. at Gus Genetti's Restaurant, Market St., Wilkes-Barre.

Polly Mortel from Ivyland, Pa. will be the special speaker while Aileen Gleason, a soprano soloist from Clarks Summit, will offer special music. A representative from Rural Health will be on hand to inform club members about "Swim Safety for Summer."

A free nursery is provided for preschool children.

For reservations, call Vera at 824-5937 or Merriam at 822-8835.

THE MEADOWS NURSING CENTER AUXILIARY will conduct a Flea Market on Sunday, June 15, on the grounds of the Nursing Center, Route 415, Dallas.

All proceeds from the flea market will be used to help build a chapel-meditation room at the nursing center.

Table spaces are $6. For more information, call Catherine Bolinski at 675-5153, Diane Corbey at 675-4893 or Barbara Barakat at 675-2854.

FRANCES SLOCUM STATE PARK, Mount Olivet Road, Wyoming, will offer environmental education services to school classes, scout groups, and other organized groups of children or adults, beginning the week of June 1.

Park Naturalist Jeff Smith is now accepting group reservations for guided walks on the Park's scenic trails. The educational walks, which run from 1 to 1 1/2 hours in length, may be scheduled for weekdays, or weekends between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. A choice of guided walk topics, including nature study and American Indian culture is available.

Groups are encouraged to schedule walks at least three weeks in advance by contacting Frances Slocum State Prk at 696-3525.

THE OFFICE OF CONTINUING EDUCATION at Luzerne County Community College is offering an eight-week refresher course for inactive registered nurses this summer at the college's main campus in Nanticoke.

The course is designed to enable inactive registered nurses to update their knowledge and skills in preparation for the return to nursing practice.

Classes in Job Re-entry Skills, Stress Management and Assertiveness Training begin the eight week intensive training program which includes 70 hours of lecture and laboratory training and 80 hours of clinical experience for which a certificate is awarded. In addition, a certification course in Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation will be conducted as part of the refresher training.

Because previous classes have had extremely successful job placement records with employers giving full support to the training and to hiring program completers, this class has become very popular with those who are interested in re-entering the work force again as nurses.

For more information on the nursing refresher course, or to register to attend, contact the Office of Continuing Education at Luzerne County Community College. Registration deadline is Thursday, June 5.
