

Community Calendar

Programs

THE TRUCKSVILLE NURSERY SCHOOL is offering a summer program for children ages 3 to 8 with an ecology theme. The camp will be held Mondays through Thursdays on a weekly basis from 9 to 12. The tuition cost for the program is $20.00 a week plus a registration fee of $2.50 per week. You may register your child for any or all six weeks.

Classes will be kept small so that each child can be given individual attention. Our program will include opportunities to explore the world around them, and how to care for their environment. The children will enjoy singing, creative activities, experiments and nature walks. We will teach appreciation for nature and conservation. The children will be involved in relationships, learning to share and take turns, saying please and thank-you and cooperation. It will be a rewarding experience.

For more information call the Trucksville United Methodist Church office from 9 to 12. Ask for Director Linda Mazur.

THE GREATER PITSTON YMCA will host a week of free swim lessons. These lessons are open to all area youth from first through 12th grades, and will be held from 3:45 to 6 p.m., June 17 to 21. Registration may be made by stopping in at the "Y", 10 North Main St., or by calling 655-2255.

Regular classes will begin June 24. Private and semi-private swim lessons will be held five days a week for two weeks per session. Early registration is encouraged for both the free learn to swim program and the regular swim lessons.

THE CARVERTON UNITED METHODIST CHURCH will hold its annual Vacation Church School at the Mt. Zion Church during the week of June 24 through 28 from 9 a.m. to 12 noon daily.

All children ages 3 years through high school are invited to attend. Donations of cookies and snacks are appreciated.

Registration forms are available from Rev. Roger Ainsley-Richards or Linda Gaughan and on opening day.

For further information call 696-3715 or 388-2205.

THE WILKES-BARRE PRONAOS of the Rosicrucian Order, AMORC will be hosting a symposium on Sunday, June 16 at Wilkes College to discuss the subject of reincarnation.

Because of the mystery and questioning that surrounds the subject, the Wilkes-Barre Pronaos, AMORC will be offering this symposium to the public free of charge in order to discuss and hear some of the ideas around this fascinating topic.

The symposium will be held Sunday, June 16 at Stark Learning Center Room 101 at Wilkes College River Street, Wilkes-Barre. The symposium will begin at 7:30 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

For more information about either the symposium or the Rosicrucian Order, AMORC write to: Secretary, Wilkes-Barre Pronaos, AMORC, P.O. Box 2535 Wilkes-Barre, Pa. 18703. The Rosicrucian Order is a non-sectarian fraternity.

THE MEADOWS NURSING CENTER, Dallas, is seeking teen volunteers (13 to 18 years) for their summer candystriper program.

An orientation is scheduled for Monday, June 17 at 10 a.m. Please call Volunteer Services at 675-8600, ext. 115 to register for this program.

Exhibits

A MAJOR ART SHOW around the theme of the family will be held June 24-28 at the United Penn Bank sponsored by Family Service Association of Wyoming Valley as part of the observance of its 90th Anniversary Year. Most of the art work in the mixed media show will relate to the family theme, although that is not a requirement for acceptance.

Members of the Art Show Committee are Sally Handley and Tobi Grossman, co-chairpersons and Mindi Thalendorf. Pauly Friedman is chairperson of the 90th Anniversary Celebration which is being observed all of 1985 with events ranging from Plays for Living to a five-mile run.

Back Mountain artists include: Jane Daley Balavague, Shavertown; Richard Fuller, Dallas; Adele and Joanie Schwarz, both Shavertown; Missy Turner Waslick, Shavertown; Glenn S. Bodish, Harveys Lake; Young Chang, Dallas; Judith Martin, Dallas; Kathy Millington, Dallas; Emily Siegal, Harveys Lake; Ann Millington, Dallas.

Courses

THE PITSTON YMCA will offer Red Cross Lifesaving Certification beginning Saturday, June 29, from 11 to 12:30, for anyone 16 years and over. A Junior Lifesaving Class will be held the same time for those good swimmers under 16. Registrations are limited and are taken on a first come, first served basis. For more information call the Pittston YMCA at 655-2255.

Church

THE MAPLE GROVE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH will hold an old-fashioned Ice Cream Social on Saturday, June 15, at 4 p.m., featuring bar-b-ques, homemade ice cream and homemade pies.

The church is located near the intersection of Route 118 and 29, on the Main Road in Sweet Valley.

THE SHAVERTOWN UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, 163 N. Pioneer Ave., Shavertown, announces the following schedule:

Wednesday, June 12-7:15 p.m., Bible Study.

Thursday, June 13-10:30 a.m., Bible Study; 7:30 p.m., Chancel Choir rehearsal.

Saturday, June 15-9-12, Youth Hoagie Sale.

Sunday, June 16-10 a.m., Morning Worship-Communion; 6:30 p.m., Youth Fellowship.

Tuesday, June 18-8:30 a.m., SMART (Serving Methodists Attempting Reasonable Tasks); 2:30 p.m., Lectionary.

APOSTOLIC FAITH TABERNACLE, Village Road, Orange, will be holding five nights of Spirit filled, pentecostal revival services. Beginning Wednesday, June 12, to Saturday, June 15, at 7:30 p.m. Also Sunday, June 16, at 7 p.m.

Everyone is welcome to come and hear Evangelist George Parsons and family, minister in song and the world of God. Host pastor is Rev. Frank J. Chorbak.

If transportation is needed, arrangements can be made by calling this number 333-5172.

Clinics

NESBITT MEMORIAL HOSPITAL is sponsoring an Arthritis Clinic on Wednesday, June 19 from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m., in the hospital's Medical Arts Building.

Dr. John Carey, a specialist in arthritis and rheumatology, conducts the program which provides arthritis patients with a complete physical examination and treatment plan. The results are forwarded to the patient's physician for consultation input and followup care.

Patients requiring orthopedic or corrective surgery or extensive physical therapy are tested with a multidisciplinary approach known as CORE (Combined Orthopedic and Rheumatologic Evaluation).

Patients, referred by their physician, must make an appointment with the Arthritis Clinic by calling Nesbitt's Outpatient Registration office at 288-1411, extension 4130, Monday through Friday, from 1 to 4 p.m.

A FREE HEALTH FAIR will be conducted by Nesbitt Memorial Hospital personnel on Wednesday, June 19 at the Nesbitt Medical Arts Bldg., 534 Wyoming Ave., Kingston. This event is scheduled in conjunction with the hospital auxiliary's annual June Festival.

Diabetes and cholesterol screenings, blood typing and blood pressure screenings will be offered from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. In addition, Nesbitt Home Care Services will also conduct a display booth from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Cardiac risk profiles, pulmonary function screenings as well as speech and language screenings will be held from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m. Health Information cards, brochures and the vital of life will also be displayed from 1 p.m. to 4 p.m.

A children's health fair featuring height and weight measurements, blood pressure screenings and doctors' and nurses' caps will be held. An x-ray display by the radiology department will feature "Mr. Bones".

Theater

RALPH MILLER, producer and owner of the Pocono Playhouse, Mountainhome, Pa., recently announced that 50 percent of the gross receipts earned during the production of Jesus Christ Superstar, appearing from June 11 thru June 16, will be donated to the fight against world hunger. This continues the spirit of love and sharing recently demonstrated by the entertainment industry.

Regardless of the number of tickets purchases, the Playhouse requests that everyone ordering tickets make out two separate checks...one for half the total amount to "World Hunger", and one for the other half to the Playhouse. The Playhouse will forward all checks made out to World Hunger, directly to them.

Superstar is scheduled for eight shows at the Playhouse from June 11 thru June 16, Tues., Wed., Thurs., and Friday at 8:30 p.m. Saturday, 5 and 9 p.m. Sunday 6 p.m., Wednesday matinee. All tickets range from just $10 to $14. Church groups for Superstar receive 20 percent discount. Call the box office in Mountainhome for further information and convenient ticket reservation (717) 595-7456. Tickets are also available at the Jermyn Motor Inn, Scranton, (717) 346-1666, Glnsky's Drug Store, Honesdale, (717) 253-1390, AAA of Wilkes-Barre (717) 825-6608, Sheraton Pocono Inn, Stroudsburg, (717) 424-1930, Buck Hill Inn, Buck Hill Falls, (717) 595-7441, The Overlook Inn, Canadensis (717) 595-7519, The Sterling Inn in Sterling (717) 676-3311, The Chateau, Tannersville, (717) 629-6900, Pine Knob Inn Canadensis (717) 595-2532, Shawnee Motor Lodge, Echo Lake, (717) 421-1500.

Events

SCHOOL AND PRE-SCHOOL CHILDREN will be fingerprinted as a community service project by members of the Back Mountain Kiwanis Club in conjunction with The Meadows Nursing Center's Flea Market on Saturday, June 15, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The location is Center Hill Road and Memorial Highway, Dallas.

NOW THAT SCHOOL'S OUT and summer is finally here...Are you ready to let loose and boogie?

Come join us for a night full of music, laughter, and fun as we dance the night away at Gate of Heaven Church located on Machell Avenue in Dallas, on Friday, June 14.

"Celebrate the Music" is our theme, so c'mon down and blast this scene.

Gate of Heaven Youth Ministry will be your hosts from 7:30 to 11 p.m. we'll be at our posts.

Refreshments will be served throughout the night with fun and good times as our main plight.

There will be a door prize awarded at the start of the dance -with sounds from anew disc jockey that will know off your pants!!!

Hope to see you there!!!

THE FAIRMOUNT TWP. VOL. FIRE CO.'S annual Firemen's Bazaar will be held on June 14, 15, 16 at the fire company hall, 1/2 mile east of Ricketts Glenn State Park on Rt. 118.

The festivities begin on Friday night at 6 p.m., Saturday and Sunday at 3 p.m.

There will be live entertainment each night. The traditional firemen's parade will begin at 6 p.m. Saturday night. After the parade, there will be a horseshoe competition for the firemen and trophies will be awarded for that and to the various fire companies for their fire apparatus and most uniformed personnel.

As always, there will be games, prizes and the array of delicious foods, such as potato pancakes, hamburgers, haluski, homemade soup and French fries.

Bring your family, and come and enjoy the fun, music and food at Fairmount Twp.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS COUNCIL 8224 will sponsor Knight at the Races and Las Vegas Nite on Friday, June 21, from 7 p.m. till 7 at the Gate of Heaven Gym, Machell Ave., Dallas.

Cost is $2.50 per person (adults only) with food and beverages included. Tickets and horses may be purchased at Schmid's Amoco, Shavertown; or Downend's Town House Restaurant, Lake St., Dallas.

Workshops

STEPHEN GLENN, Ph.D., a nationally recognized authority on drug abuse and the effect on families, will be one of several guest participants to present a series of workshops and plenary sessions at Wyoming Seminary's upcoming Summer Institute. "Developing Wellness in Families-Parents, Educators and the Community Working Together" set for June 24-26.

Titled "Developing Capable Young People-A comprehensive, positive approach to achievement, motivation and health promotion", Glenn's workshop will develop a common perspective on delinquency, drug abuse, teenage pregnancy, discipline problems, and underachievement. A profile of the "high risk" individual. Glenn has served as Director of the National Drug Abuse Center for Training and Resource Development, Washington, D.C.

Wyoming Seminary's Summer Institute is a three day conference designed to bring adults together to address problems faced by young people and their families in such areas as alcohol-drug abuse, sexuality and family relationships. The programs will consist of plenary sessions and workshops presented by nationally recognized experts from throughout the country. It is open to all parents, educators, counselors, agency staff members and others interested in youth.

Persons interested in attending the summer institute for Dr. Glenn's presentation or other sessions, should contact Ron Gaetano, Conference Manager, Wyoming Seminary, Box 153, Kingston, PA 18704, 283-1771 or 287-1126, for complete details, prices and registration forms. The conference is sponsored by Wyoming Seminary College Preparatory School and co-sponsored by Commonwealth Prevention Alliance, SmithKline Beckman Corporation, Blue Cross of Northeastern Pennsylvania and Pennsylvania Blue Shield.

Sales

AN ANTIQUE SHOW AND SALE

Dallas Post/Ed Campbell

Project planned

As a special Public Service Project, local Kiwanians and the Meadows Nursing Center Auxiliary will offer free fingerprinting of children at the Auxiliary Flea Market. The flea market is scheduled for Saturday, June 15, from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on the grounds of the Meadows Nursing Center, Dallas. The Men of Kiwanis also extend their "Vial of Life" project to the community. Many varied items will be on sale at the flea market and refreshments will be served as well. Spaces are available at $6 per six feet of space. For information, call the activities office of the Meadows Nursing Center at 675-8600. Shown here, from left, are Dianne Corby, auxiliary member; Catherine Bolinski, auxiliary member; Barbara Barakat, auxiliary member; James Larson, president, Back Mountain Kiwanis; Jim Snyder, secretary, Back Mountain Kiwanis; Dick Alters, treasurer, Back Mountain Kiwanis; and Stet Swan, board member, Back Mountain Kiwanis.

has been planned by the Resident's Council of Leader East Nursing and Rehabilitation Center. The show will take place Saturday, June 29 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on center grounds at 200 Second Avenue, Kingston. A representation of area antique dealers will be present and this will be an annual event.

Margin and Ellie Stout of Tunkhannock, will be available to buy, sell or trade dairy collectibles. The Stouts have an extensive collection of milk bottles and dairy collectibles. Other dealers participating in this event include: Robert Heffelfinger, Dimoch; Anne Malinchak, Dumore; Bob Frey of Fyfe and Drum Antiques, Dallas; Larry Bruch, Mountaintop; Maryann Daily, Dallas; Amelia Rother, Wilkes-Barre; Joseph Oblen, Kingston; Marlene Kapes, Hazleton; Robert Jones, Dallas; Louise Mroczek, Wyoming; Stan and Dottie Gandzyk of Hidden Treasures, Nuangola; Eli Fleisher, Kingston and Linda Johnson of Harveys Lake.

A bake sale and food concessions will be sponsored by the Council members. All proceeds from the show will be used for Council projects within and outside the facility. Advisor for the show is Bob Foote who will display antique frames.

Dinners

A FELLOWSHIP DINNER will be held on Saturday, June 22, at 6 p.m. at the Wyoming Valley Baptist Church, Rt. 315, Wilkes-Barre, for visiting Missionary, Dick Mangham of Florida. Contact Albina or the pastor for any information.

Mangham will be guest missionary for the revival being held on June 23 to 26th, inclusive, Sunday to Wednesday at 7 p.m. at the Wyoming Valley Baptist Church. Everyone is welcome and invited to the dinner and revival.

Contests

MICHAEL O'DONOVAN, Chairman announces Mary Ellen Keating is MC for "Northeast Pa. Advocates" Most Photogenic Child Contest, Sunday, June 23 at Rocky Glen Park at 3 p.m. The contest is for children one month to 10 years of age.

Celebrity Judge is Gina Major, Miss Pennsylvania; Joe Zone, Manny Gordon, Liz Dorekiewicz, Barbara Merithew, Betty Serbin from Kizz Moseling.

Prizes are trophies and season passes for Rocky Glen Park, Rocky Glen Park Prince and Princess will be chosen from all children registered in the Photogenic contest.

Registration forms are available at Gallery of Sound; First Eastern Bank, Market St., Wilkes-Barre; Falcone Beverage Company; Children Bootery, United Penn Plaza; Pittston & Wilkes-Barre Y.M.C.A. Rocky Glen Main Gate; N.E. Advocates.

Registration fee is $10. send to N.E. Advocates, 73 W. Ross St., Wilkes-Barre with photo, child's name, address, age, color hair, eyes, parents.

Deadline to register is June 17.

Clubs

DADDOW-ISAACS AMERICAN LEGION POST NO. 672, will hold election of officers, Friday, June 14, at the Post Home, Memorial Highway, Dallas. Voting will be from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. All persons must have their 1985 membership card to be eligible to vote.

Seminars

"CONVERSATIONAL TECHNIQUES FOR SOLVING EMPLOYEE PERFORMANCE PROBLEMS," is a topic of a management workshop being sponsored by College Misericordia. The seminar is scheduled for Thursday, June 13, 8:30 to 4:30 at the Woodlands Inn and Resort in Wilkes-Barre.

The program is designed to help managers and supervisors encourage their employees to improve performance and increase productivity. Participants will learn problem solving techniques, how to sustain good employee performance and how to use effective conversational skills.

J. Patrick Gattton, seminar leader, is nationally recognized for his consulting work in setting performance standards and for training managers and consultants. He has helped thousands of managers improve their effectiveness by teaching proven management techniques that impact on output and morale.

For reservations and information call the College Misericordia Center for Professional Development at 675-3862. Discounts are available to organizations enrolling three or more individuals.

Lectures

"LIVE FOR LIFE" urges Dr. William Y. Rial, former President of the American Medical Association. The recipient of numerous awards and the present Executive Director of Reprintation and Information at the National Blue Cross and Blue Shield Association in Chicago, Dr. Rial will be in the Wyoming Valley area to promote the OK-Heart Project's campaign against heart disease.

On Thursday, June 13, Dr. Rial will present a lecture at 7 p.m. with the theme, "Live for Life". The lecture is open to the public, and admission is free. The Woodlands Inn will be the setting of this much-anticipated event. Merrell-Dow Pharmaceuticals is sponsoring Dr. Rial's visit to our area.

Along with other articles concerning health, Dr. Rial has published the Blue Cross-Blue Shield "Guide to Staying Well". It is this topic which concerns Rial in his collaboration with the OK-Heart Project. Both Dr. Rial and the Project hope to make Wyoming Valley citizens aware of the factors in heart health.

Meetings

AS A DIRECT RESULT OF THE DALLAS POST SPONSORED CRIME WATCH ORIENTATION at the Dallas High School last month, plans are being made for a Township-wide Crime Watch Organization in Kingston Township.

Residents of the community are invited to learn more about the program on Tuesday, June 18 at 7:30 p.m. at the Township Municipal Building, Trucksville. The program has the full support of the Police Department and the Supervisors.

Lieutenant Gerald Cookus, Crime Prevention Officer of the Wilkes-Barre Police Department will outline the program. For further information please call Harold Shelly, Crime Watch Chairman at 696-3295.

Seminar held

A seminar entitled "Nursing and the Law" was recently presented at the Educational Conference Center of Luzerne County Community College for the second year nursing students and nursing faculty of the community college. Susan Chenowith, R.N., B.S., J.D., presented the seminar and discussed legal implications of licensure, medical negligence and liability. A question and answer period followed. Among those in attendance for the seminar are, from left, seated, Marion Pierce, Hughestown; Susan D. Chenowith, Esq., Philadelphia; and Lori Throne, Nanticoke. Standing, Ted Bender, Pittston; JoAnne Buczynski, Wilkes-Barre; John Collins, Dallas; Gloria Brezinski, Nanticoke and Sharon Hudacek, Shavertown, LOCC nursing instructor.

Wyoming National Bank merges

Carl J. Feichtel, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Merchants Bancorp, Inc., announced that Wyoming National Bank of Wilkes-Barre became an affiliate of Merchants Bancorp and changed its name to Merchants Bank, North, effective June 1, 1985. Harold J. Rose, Jr., will continue to serve as president and chief executive officer of the bank. Effective with the acquisition, Rose became vice chairman and chief operating officer of Merchants Bancorp, a director of the corporation and a director of Merchants Bank, N.A.

Wyoming National Bank is a 156 year old community bank with 11 offices in Wyoming and Luzerne Counties.