There's really only one place to go where breakfast, lunch and dinner menus are prepared and served with equal care and efficiency — The Colonial Pancake House and Restaurant.

'Round the clock, the Colonial offers an abundant array of delicious, homestyle foods, on an extensive menu where you can find most anything - anytime.

The Colonial Pancake House and Restaurant has a location near to just about everyone: Kingston Corners, Wyoming (across from the Midway Shopping Center) and on Rte. 115 by the Wyoming Valley Mall; and all but the Wilkes-Barre locale are open 24 hours a day.

Surroundings are congenial and inviting. Red leather seating and brick veneer blend well with the medium and dark woods used in the dining and service areas.

Cheerful, hanging baskets, filled with scarlet poppies and anemones, golden roses and daisies, azure blue trumpet flowers and royal blue cupids dart add a contrasting, soft touch when used to highlight the rainbow colors in the stained glass panels of the delicately scalloped tiffany lamps; creating an abundance of color interest throughout the dining areas.

Although breakfast is served anytime, as its name implies, The Colonial Pancake House nevertheless, boasts a large sandwich menu, soup and salad bar, dinner entrees, children's and dieter's menus, breakfast, lunch and dinner specials for the entire family; and quite possibly the very best homemade pies you'll ever taste.

Breakfast specials are run between 7 a.m. and 11 a.m. and feature regular and special items from the menu at greatly reduced prices; or try pecan, chocolate chip, blueberry or potato pancakes with bacon, sausage, or ham...a western or mushroom omelet or, for those with a sweet tooth, select from a sensational smorgasbord of fresh, homemade desserts such as: strawberry shortcake, apple dumplings (served hot with ice cream) or cinnamon buns and other pastries.

Fruit and crumb pies (which are never too sweet), feature gobs of fruit fillings in a delicate pastry shell. Custard and creme pies are exceptionally rich and amply infused with their standard be it coconut, strawberries, cherries or bananas, you'll find these luscious confections jam-packed with whole, sliced fruit.
