Nonno

upholstered booth. Old world soft-colored chandeliers etched with dogwood shed soft light over the room adding to the romanticism of the soft dinner music and water flowing from the marble fountain adorned by the Goddess Ceres.

Veal and chicken are the specialties at Nonno Lini's, in addition to fish, seafood and pasta. Beef is seldom served at the restaurant unless for a special occasion, such as prime rib for Mother's Day or Father's Day. Customers return often for the Roast Long Island Duck prepared by Mary Theresa.

Mary Theresa prepares most of the veal flavored with goat cheese, steeps it in wine and seasons it lightly. Only the freshest of mouth-watering provimi veal butchered and pounded on the premises is served. Fresh original antipastos, home-made pastas prepared by Richard's mother, and red or white sauces made fresh daily are a pleasant and savory experience.

Creamsicles, fruit daiquiries, pina colodas or Blue Velvet Hammers are a before-dinner delight to the palate prepared by Jean in the trellis-enclosed bar.

A dessert tray of delicious concoctions made to order by Richard's mother tops off dinner. Bavarian Banana Cream, canoli, chocolate mousse, triple chocolate torte, homemade cheesecake, most delicious the peanut butter cheesecake, are just a few. Try one or more of these delights with home-brewed cappuccino or espresso.

New is the restaurant's walk-in wine cellar which provides a wide variety of Italian or domestic wines.

Every Tuesday and Thursday night is "All You Can Eat" Pasta Night and every Sunday from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m., family style dinner is served and from 4 to 9 p.m., the regular style menu. Tuesday through Thursday, the restaurant is open from 4 to 11 p.m., Friday and Saturday, from 4 to 12. Entertainment is provided every Friday, Saturday and Sunday. For the finest in Northern Italian Cuisine, it is Nonno Lini's Restaurant and Lounge, where reservations are recommended. Call 825-4299.
