Programs

THE GREATER WILKES-BARRE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE will sponsor a special session on Workers' Compensation Reform on Thursday, June 27 at the Sheraton Crossgates beginning at 8 a.m.

fred A. Sembach, Director of Employee Benefits of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce, will be the guest speaker.

Sembach joined the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce staff in June of 1983 as a Senior Staff Associate. During his first year at the Chamber, he worked on a variety of issues relating to employee benefits and insurance, including Unemployment Compensation, Worker's Compensation, Products Liability, and Tort Reform. In April 1984, when that department was reorganized, he was again promoted to his present position as Director of Employee Benefits, where he is responsible for all matters relating to Unemployment Compensation and Worker's Compensation.

All employers—small, medium, and large—have felt the impact of rising Workers' Compensation costs. Wage loss and Workers' Compensation medical expenses paid have risen steadily every year since 1974 when the WC law was last amended: 1974 - $147.7 million; 1984 - $729.7 million (a 394 percent increase).

The Pennsylvania State Chamber has developed a 10-point program for reform of the law. Sembach will explain the plan and answer questions.

Please make reservations by contacting the Chamber office at 823-2101 by June 25. A country-style breakfast will be served and the cost is $5.00-members and $8.00 non-members.

COLLEGE MISERICORDIA will be the host of an Elderhostel program during the next three weeks, beginning Sunday, June 23. The Dallas campus, which has been a sponsor of the program since 1977 is taking part in the celebration of Elderhostel's 10th anniversary. In recognition of the anniversary of the program, Governor Dick Thornburgh has proclaimed June 1985 as Elderhostel Month in Pennsylvania.

Elderhostel consists of a network of over 800 educational institutions which offer low cost, short term residential academic programs for people age 60 and older. The participants are able to take up to 3 non-credit courses in liberal arts and sciences taught by the institution's faculty. In Pennsylvania, 30 college and universities will host the 1985 program from May 19 to August 18.

During the three one-week sessions College Misericordia will offer the following courses:

June 23-29—"Revolutionary China," by Dr. Ann Hill, professor at the University of Scranton; "The Boom in the Short Story," by Dr. Charlotte Lord, professor emerita at Wilkes College; "Wade Into the World of Water Color," by Sue Hand, member of College Misericordia Art Gallery.

June 30-July 16—"Immigrants, Miners and Molly McGuires" by Dr. James Rodechko, professor at Wilkes College; "Elementary, My Dear Watson: Seminar in Sherlock Holmes," by Christopher Alexander, professor at Keuka College, Keuka, N.Y.; "Wade Into the World of Water Color," by Ms. Hand.

July 7-13—"The Ballad" by Dr. Kevin McGovern, assistant academic dean at College Misericordia; "Murderers, Swindlers and Grandfathers: Mysteries in History," by Dr. Donald Fries, professor at College Misericordia; "Basic Drawing," by Brian Benedetti, professor at College Misericordia.

Any persons interested in participating in the College Misericordia Elderhostel, either as a commuter or resident, call the College Misericordia Office of Special Programs at 675-2181, ext. 331 or 332. Additional information on Elderhostel in other areas is also available.

Elderhostel is sponsored by College Misericordia's Institute of Gerontology under the direction of Debbie Fries and Thomas O'Neill.
