Tours

A TRAVEL AND STUDY TOUR of Russia and the Caucasus is planned by the Wilkes College Division of Continuing Education and the Department of Language and Literature. For 17 days, from August 12 to August 28, members of the fully escorted tour will have the chance to visit some of the most significant historical sights in Moscow, Kiev, Tbilisi, Yerevan, and Leningrad.

For more information, contact the Wilkes College Division of Continuing Education at 824-4651, ext. 225.

Courses

THE KING'S COLLEGE CENTER for Part-Time Studies will conduct registration for the Second Session of summer courses from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. July 1, 2 and 3 in the Center's offices at 133 N. River St.

Classes in the second summer session begin Monday, July 8 and end Thursday, Aug. 8. Classes meet for 110 minute periods Mondays through Thursdays and begin at either 8 a.m., 10 a.m. or 1 p.m.

For more information and a complete schedule of Second Session summer courses, call the King's Center for Part-Time Studies at 826-5865.

Classes

THE AMERICAN RED CROSS Wyoming Valley Chapter will be conducting Learn to Swim classes at the Wilkes-Barre Holiday Inn pool during the week of August 12-16.

Interested participants must be between the ages of 6 and 16. The fee for participants is $10 for one week of lessons.

Those interested should call Safety Services at 823-7161, to pre-register.

THE WILKES-BARRE YMCA is offering swim lessons for grade school age children. The child would be screened and placed in the proper swim level. Classes meet once a week for 8 weeks.

The swim classes will begin the week of July 1.

There are seven different levels in the National YMCA Progressive Swim Program beginning with the Polliwog level (beginners) through the Porpoise level (advance watermanship) which teaches the child in all areas of aquatics ranging from synchronized to competitive swimming. On each level the child is taught a new stroke. Their endurance is built up and new safety skills are added.

Registrations are now being accepted at the Wilkes-Barre YMCA. For further information contact the Y at 823-2191.

THE WILKES-BARRE YMCA is now accepting registrations for their Sunfish classes. The Sunfish class is a parent-child program with the child ranging in age from 3 months to 3 years old. The class acquaints the child with water through games and songs. Each class runs for 45 minutes.

The classes begin the week of July 1 ending July 22. Classes are held either once or twice a week. Classes fill quickly so early registration is encouraged.

For additional information contact the Wilkes-Barre Family YMCA at 823-2191.

Seminars

COLLEGE MISERICORDIA is sponsoring a seminar on "Wardrobe", Saturday, June 29 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The workshop will explain which clothing style best suits the participants and will cover proportion and style for all figure types. Those attending will also learn how to shop for clothes and save money.

Instructor Sharon Friedman serves as senior consultant with First Class Image Consultants, Chicago, Ill., and as a color and image consultant to 10 Boscov's Department Stores located in Pennsylvania, New Jersey and New York. She has taught various courses dealing with personal development to the Chicago Bar Association, several weight loss groups, colleges, a variety of companies and to non-profit groups.

Exhibits

ALLENTOWN FAIR PREMIUM LISTS, which explain exhibit entry procedures for this year's fair running Aug. 27-Sept. 2, are now available at the fair office.

Requirements, deadlines and fees for entry in all the departments including animals, agriculture, domestics and fine arts are listed. The poultry and pigeons department is back this year after being absent because of the Avian Flu last year.

If interested in entering, please pick up a Premium List at the fair office behind the Ritz Bar-B-Q on the fairgrounds. If it's impossible to come to the office, write The Allentown Fair, 17th and Chew Sts., Allentown, PA 18104, and mark the envelope "Premium List Request."
