Theater

"WHAT A GREAT COMMUNITY WE LIVE IN!" exclaimed Charles Kirkwood, Shawnee Playhouse President, after East Stroudsburg University officials informed him that the Shawnee Playhouse would be able to utilize the East Stroudsburg University's Fine Arts Theater for at least the rest of the summer.

Early Monday morning a fire gutted the Shawnee Playhouse and damaged the Shawnee Volunteer Fire Company. Police and fire investigators have labeled the fire as arson.

ESU President, Dr. Dennis Bell, informed Ginny Kirkwood, one of the executive producers and owner of the Shawnee Playhouse, that in keeping with the ESU's usage policy, Shawnee will be permitted to stage performances of The Robber Bridegroom and The Sound of Music. The Robber Bridegroom was in the middle of its run when the fire struck Monday morning.

Though the entire set was destroyed, by good fortune, the costumes had been sent to the cleaners and were saved. Carmella Guiteras, Artistic Director of the Shawnee Playhouse, says that the cast is now working hard to get the show back up and will reopen the show Friday evening. "It is a magnanimous gesture by the University," said Ginny Kirkwood, "and one we are thankful for." All ESU students will be admitted free to both productions and encouraged to participate in them on the technical production and the performing aspects.

The Robber Bridegroom reopened on Friday, June 28, and will run until July 14. The Sound of Music will run from July 19 until September 1. All season ticket holders are encouraged to see The Robber Bridegroom before it closes. All ticket reservations and Playhouse information calls should be temporarily directed to the following two numbers: 424-6222 or 424-6221. Within a week to 10 days, the regular Playhouse numbers 421-5093 and 421-1500 ext. 452, 453 will be back in service according to Lori Ott, Shawnee Playhouse Manager.

"We are operating at full speed as if the fire had not happened. The shows and production standards will both be up to the high standards Shawnee audiences have come to expect. It is just a temporary switch, one which we are grateful to have been offered."

"HANSEL AND GRETEL," a children's play based on the popular Grimm Brothers fairy tale, will be the second of three plays to be performed as part of the Fourth Annual King's College Summer Theatre Festival.

The play will be performed at 1 p.m. and 3 p.m. Thursday and Saturday, July 11 and 13, and at 1 p.m., 3 p.m. and 7 p.m., Friday, July 12 in the King's College Auditorium, 133 N. River Street.

Directed by Victoria Visgilio, of Shavertown, a communications and theatre major at King's and daughter of King's professor Thomas Visgilio, the play is the classic story of two young children who are sold by their stepmother and then encounter a series of adventures including getting lost in a forest and trying to escape the wrath of the wicked witch.

The lead roles are played by Erik Farmer and Meredith Ambrose of Kingston. Farmer is the son of Dr. Donald W. Farmer, academic dean at King's. Also with a role in the production is James Godwin, son of J. Gerald Godwin, associate professor of theatre at King's.

Tickets for the performances can be obtained by calling the King's College Box Office at 826-5825 Monday to Fridays noon to 8 p.m. and Saturdays and Sundays noon to 5 p.m.

Seminars

WILKES-BARRE GENERAL HOSPITAL'S VOLUNTEER SERVICES DEPARTMENT will hold a babysitting seminar for girls ages 11-18 on Wednesday, July 10 from noon to 4 p.m. at the hospital. The seminar is free of charge.

Registration is limited to 25 participants and pre-registration is advised. To register, contact Wilkes-Barre General Hospital's Volunteer Services Department at 829-8111 ext. 3029.
