Proud owners
 Jim and Carol Davis, proprietors of Jedidia's Restaurant, Route 309, Dallas, look forward to celebrating the second anniversary of their restaurant.

Jedidia's observes second anniversary

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
 Staff Correspondent

Jedidia's Restaurant in Dallas is celebrating its second anniversary this month - two years of serving delicious, homestyle cooked foods from a full menu including breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Owners Jim and Carol Davis pride themselves on their quality food, fair prices and good service and vow to serve their patrons even better in the year ahead.

Located on Route 309 just above the intersection of Routes 309 and 415, Jedidia's is one of the few restaurants that serves breakfast any time of the day or night, including their popular breakfast special which is available from 6 a.m. to 11 a.m., seven days weekly.

The diningroom is cheerful and bright, lending an aura of friendliness and welcome. The brick walls and deep red leather upholstered booths are highlighted by the light maple trim. The wagon wheel chandeliers reflect the beauty of the oil paintings on the light walls, done by a local artist.

Jim Davis does all of the cooking, spending hours in the kitchen daily, preparing mouth-watering soups, salads, entrees and desserts. He prepares everything from meat loaf to lobster, all good American favorites. One of his outstanding specialties is his Oriental entrees as well as his four or five Italian dishes featured on the menu.

Jedidia's features a soup and salad bar every day of the week, from 11 a.m. to 9 p.m. And popular for business customers who can spare only a half hour or so, Jedidia's offers the Business Men's Buffet, Monday through Saturday, "All You Can Eat" for only $3.45. A business man or woman can help himself or herself and get in and out fast.

Customers return many times over for the "Sarah Kate Dinner Buffet", available Monday through Wednesday, from 4 to 9 p.m., a feature Jim Davis started 16 months ago, the day his daughter, Sarah Kae, was born.

There is a dinner special every night, in addition to the regular menu and hot items are featured on the dinner salad bar. A rare item found in restaurants these days is real roast turkey, complete with home-cooked dressing, an entree best described as gourmet whether or not meant to be.
