Events

THE PRINGLE VOLUNTEER FIRE COMPANY will hold their annual bazaar on Thursday, July 18 through Saturday, July 20, on the Evans Street Fire Company Grounds.

On Saturday, July 20, a firemen's parade will be held starting at 7 p.m. Trophies will be awarded in various categories by the judges.

The Ladies Auxiliary have prepared homemade foods for the event, such as pierogi, potato pancakes, kluski and cabbage, homemade clam chowder, and many more delicious homemade foods.

This event is scheduled to open nightly at 7 p.m. and everyone is cordially invited.

Fire truck rides will be provided for the children.

THE NORTHEAST PENNSYLVANIA LEHIGH UNIVERSITY ALUMNI CLUB will host a send-off reception and picnic for local students who will be freshmen at the University this fall on Sunday afternoon, July 21.

The freshman send-off will be held in conjunction with the Northeast Pennsylvania Alumni Club's Summer Picnic, beginning at 1 p.m. at the Kirby Episcopal House in Glen Summit.

In addition to freshman guests and their parents, those attending the affair will include Lehigh alumni, family members, and University undergraduates from the local area.

James P. Stevenson of West Pittston is serving as program chairman for the event. Robert M. Schantz of Dallas is president of the Northeast Pennsylvania Lehigh Alumni Club.

THE 73RD ANNUAL REUNION OF THE HOOVER FAMILY will be held on Saturday, July 20 beginning with a basket lunch at 12 noon.

Place of meeting is Hanson's Park, Harveys Lake.

Following lunch, there will be a business meeting and games and prizes for children and adults.

Relatives and friends are urged to attend.

BILL ELLIOTT, driver of the Coors-Melling No. 9 Ford Thunderbird, the current NASCAR points leader, winner of the Daytona 500, and 6 other NASCAR Grand National races this season, as well as the holder of numerous qualifying and speed records in 1985, will appear on Public Square in Wilkes-Barre, on Thursday, July 18 at approximately 6:30 p.m. to crown the winner of the "Miss Pocono Summer 500 Queen Contest".

Bill will be available for a short time following the contest to the media.

DOROTHY MUGFORD, chairperson of the "Miss Pocono Summer 500 Queen Contest", has announced that the finals for that event will be held on Public Square in Wilkes-Barre on Thursday, July 18 beginning at 6 p.m.

Competition will be in swim suit and evening gowns with each contestant being asked one question from their application as an indication of their poise and public speaking ability.

Mrs. Mugford has also announced that the woman selected "Miss Pocono Summer 500" will receive from the Penn Hills Resort a weekend for two at that resort beginning on Friday evening and ending on Sunday, including selected meals.

Gary Boam, co-chairman of the contest, reports that arrangements have been made for the queen to be crowned by Bill Elliott, the current NASCAR points leader, winner of 7 Grand National Races in 1985 and the holder of numerous qualifying and race speed records this year.

Applications are still available for the contest at the following locations: The Sheraton-Crossgates Hotel Front Desk; Boscov's First Floor Courtesy Desk; Gallery of Sound, all locations; Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Commerce.

The public is invited to the contest, and to meet and greet Bill Elliott following the festivities.

DAVID BROMBERG, MICHAEL COONEY, TOM FAXTON, MIKE CROSS AND THE SELDOM SCENE are among the more than 60 performers or groups that will appear at the 24th annual Philadelphia Folk Festival this year. The Festival will be held August 23 to 25 at the Old Poole Farm in Upper Salford near Schwenksville, PA.

Three days of music, crafts, dancing, camping and special children's events will include three main stage evening concerts, two main stage afternoon concerts, two special showcase concerts, two days of workshops, and plenty of jamming and playing.

Tickets and information are available from the Philadelphia Folk Festival, 7113 Emlen St., Philadelphia, PA 19119; or by calling 215-242-0150. Toll free numbers, in Pennsylvania, 800-422-FOLK; outside Pennsylvania, 800-556-FOLK.

The Philadelphia Folk Festival is sponsored by the Philadelphia Folk Song Society, a non-profit, educational corporation.

SUMMER NATURE PROGRAMS at Frances Slocum State Park, Mount Olivet Road, Wyoming will continue this weekend with a free presentation about waterfowl.

"Waterfowl of North America" will be the subject of a presentation by John Levtsky at 2 p.m. Sunday, July 21, at the park Visitor's Center. With a slide show, Levtsky will identify species of ducks found throughout Pennsylvania, and the U.S., along with general populations of local areas and food requirements. Beautiful nature photography and closeup views of ducks make this program a must for hunters, nature lovers and photographers.

Levtsky is a member of Ducks Unlimited, and the Susquehanna Waterfowlers, which is very active in establishing food plots and nesting sites for various waterfowl of the area.

Painting donated

The Cider Painters of America have donated the miniature painting "Haunted Staircase," by Hal Moore, Columbia, S.C., to the College Misericordia Art Gallery. Displaying the painting are, from left, Sue Hand, Dallas, regional coordinator; Kathy Semmel, Benton, keeper of the jugs (treasurer); Sister Mary Kittell, Dallas, assistant art gallery director; and Marilyn Webster, Dallas, art gallery director. The College Misericordia Art Gallery hours are Sunday through Friday, from 9 to noon and 1 to 4 p.m., and Saturdays by appointment.
