Concerts

COUNTRY MUSIC SUPERSTAR WILLIE NELSON will appear for one night only at Pocono Downs Raceway in Wilkes-Barre on Wednesday, July 24, 1985. This Makoul Productions concert will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The secret of so many of America's most significant and durable artists is their ability to melt the traditions of their own heritages and personal pasts into the musical form that is, at once, both authentic and contemporary. Such is the case with Willie Nelson. Like a handful of other great, popular artists of our era, he is a virtual weathervane of musical forces. He has succeeded in transmitting all the years of musical influences he has assimilated in his lifetime to contemporary audiences in a manner that is vital and exciting, yet fiercely authentic.

And for his efforts, America has taken Willie Nelson to its heart. Once a Nashville renegade, later, a favorite son of Texas; his popularity has now elevated him to a stature approaching that of a contemporary national folk hero.

General admission tickets for this concert are priced at $15.50 each and on sale at all Ticketron outlets.

Tickets may also be charged on VISA and MasterCard by calling (215) 821-0906.

JOE WALSH JOINS pop-group Foreigner on the Allentown Fair's bill for Wednesday, August 28.

General admission tickets for Foreigner plus special guest Joe Walsh are $15. They are on sale at the fair box office and at Ticketron outlets and are available through the mail with a $2-per-ticket handling charge which provides admission to the grounds. There are no reserved seats.

For tickets or more information, write The Allentown Fair, 17th and Chew Sts., Allentown, Pa. 18104.

THE ANNUAL JAZZ CONCERT will be held in Tunkhannock, Sunday, August 4, at 7 p.m., on the Court House Green.

This popular event, held each summer for many years, gives the "Music of Your Life" group, as well as the younger music fans, a chance to hear their favorite old standards, blues and dixieland tunes played by musicians who have been entertaining the public for many years.

The concert this year will feature leading jazz artists. The ever popular clarinetist, Don Watt, who played with the "big bands" for many years will again give his renditions of tunes he recorded with those bands. Also on the stand will be Joe Welden, montrose, on keyboard. Dick Schlater, Philadelphia, will be on drums. From the Tunkhannock area will be well known musicians, Jim Welch, trumpet; Henry Malitsky, bass; Sid Daniels, saxophone; Bob Rozelle, trombone; and Vernon Van Dyke, piano.

Drives

THE FRANKLIN/NORTHMORELAND AMBULANCE ASSOCIATION fund drive is continuing. Members of the association would appreciate support from all community residents.

Anyone interested in training or assisting in the Ambulance Association should call Nelson Dymond at 333-4513.

THERE WILL BE A BLOOD DRIVE on Friday, July 26, from 12:45 p.m. to 5:45 p.m. at the Old Beaumont School in Beaumont.

The drive is being sponsored by the Bowman's Creek Lions Club.

Trips

MEMBERS OF BACK MOUNTAIN KIWANIS will join members of Dallas Kiwanis in observing Kiwanis Day with the Phillies on Saturday, July 27.

The Phillies will have a program of special recognition for Kiwanis and will donate to the Kiwanis Children's Heart Program up to $1.50 for every ticket sold to Kiwanians and guests.

More than 1000 Kiwanians and guests are expected to attend the game.

Bar-B-Que slated

The Harveys Lake Lions will hold their annual "Chicken Bar-B-Que" on Sunday, August 4, from 12 noon to 6 p.m. at Hansons Amusement Park, Harveys Lake. Tickets can be purchased from any Lion member, or at the park. Committee members shown are seated: Bill Gallagher, standing; Charles "Pete" Austin, and Tom Yoniski.
