KINGSTON TOWNSHIP

A Trucksville man was taken to Nesbitt Memorial Hospital Friday evening after suffering cuts and bruises on both arms when he lost his brakes and crashed into a curb on a 11 horse-power riding mower while riding down Spring Garden Avenue.

Kingston Township police say Cedrick Griffiths of 165 Highland Drive, Trucksville was riding northbound on Spring Garden Avenue when he noticed he had lost his brakes. Griffiths reportedly drove the mower through the intersection of Carverton Road and Spring Garden Avenue.

Griffiths then crashed into a curb on the north side of Carverton Road and was thrown onto the lawn at 194 Carverton Road.

Griffiths was transferred to Nesbitt for cuts and bruises and no charges were filed.

A Larksville man was released on $1,000 bail stemming from charges of disorderly conduct and public drunkenness Sunday night, Kingston Township police said.

Arrested was William D. Haughwout of 180 East Luzerne Avenue, Larksville. Haughwout reportedly harrassed his mother residing on Post Road, Trucksville by smashing a window on the house.

When Kingston Township officers Mike Moravec and Charles Rauschkolb responded, Haughwout became loud and shouted obscenities.

Haughwout was taken into custody and charged and was later released by District Justice John Hopkins, Larksville.

The windshield of a 1984 GMC, owned by Francis Smith and Sons of Chinchilla, Pennsylvania, was smashed last Wednesday afternoon while the vehicle was traveling south on Route 309, Kingston Township.

Police reports speculate that someone had thrown a stone at the vehicle, operated by Mike Fuller of RD 3, Dallas.

DISTRICT COURT REPORT

A hearing on charges of "recklessly endangering another person" has been scheduled for Mark Howell of 209 Spruce Street, Kingston, District Justice Earl Gregory told The Dallas Post Monday.

The misdemeanor charge was filed by Christine Perkoski of RD 3, Dallas, stemming from an incident on May 17 on which Howell allegedly chased Perkoski in his car along route 415 after leaving Bonomos Roller Rink and forced her to stop along Center Hill Road.

Howell, the complaint says, then jumped from his car and began pounding on the hood and roof of Perkoski's vehicle. The complaint goes on to say that Howell then punched out the driver's side window and hit Perkoski on the left side of her face.

Perkoski sustained a large wound on the side of her face which later took 12 stitches to close at Nesbitt Memorial hospital.

District Justice Gregory said that Perkoski said that she did not know Howell before the incident.

Merchants announces dividends

Carl J. Feichtel, chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Merchants Bancorp, Inc. announced recently that the Board of Directors declared regular quarterly dividends on the corporation's common stock and Class A preferred stock and approved a 2-for-1 split of its common stock.

the third-quarter dividend of 42.5 cents per share on common stock will be paid on Aug. 14, 1985, to shareholders of record on July 31, 1985. This dividend represents a 13.3 percent increase over the third quarter dividend last year.

Merchants Bancorp common stock will be split 2-for-1 on Aug. 14, 1985, following payment of the third quarter cash dividend. The new shares will be issued to shareholders of record on July 31, 1985.

According to Feichtel, "The 2-for-1 stock split enhances the marketability of Merchants Bancorp common stock and will result in broadening the corporation's shareholder base."

Grossman on economics

Non-fiction book is growth instrument

By HOWARD J. GROSSMAN
Special to The Dallas Post

A multi-million dollar non-fiction book has been recently revised as a powerful new instrument for economic growth in Northeastern Pennsylvania.

Titled, "The Green Pages," the report was issued by the Economic Development Council of Northeastern Pennsylvania (EDCNP) as a helpful guide for those who seek federal and state grants and loans to support new projects of benefit to the region.

The 78-page report adds a new dimension for easier reading and usage. A Table of Contents and Index have been included, along with a completely revised directory of names, addresses, and phone numbers of key agencies and organizations concerned with economic development.

Most of the document is devoted to a page-by-page portrait of federal and state grant and loan programs, providing information as to eligibility for the program, brief description, who to contact for assistance, and other types of data important to economic development.
