Events

THE BONHAM NURSING HOME in Stillwater will hold a carnival on Saturday, Aug. 24 from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. on their grounds to benefit the Northeast Pennsylvania Chapter of the American Heart Association.

The nursing home is located in Huntington Twp., Luzerne County, just off Rte. 239 between Benton-Shickshinny.

The carnival will feature entertainment and games for the young and the young at heart, including train rides, baseball and basketball tosses and clowns. Music will be provided by Al and Pat Hess.

AN OPEN HOUSE will be held at Nittany Woodlands Apartments on Wednesday, Aug. 14 from 4 to 6 p.m. The newly constructed apartment building, located adjacent to the Penn State Wilkes-Barre Campus in Lehman, will house up to 48 students attending the local campus.

According to Donna C. Holman, Manager of the apartments, they are privately owned and operated by the University Housing Partnership. Students are scheduled to begin occupancy on August 15. Another apartment building is planned for completion in the fall of 1986, in conjunction with the continued growth of the Wilkes-Barre Campus.

The public is cordially invited to attend the Open House.

A FREE HEALTH FAIR will be conducted by Nesbitt Memorial Hospital personnel on Wednesday, Aug. 7 from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. at the Kingston Plaza, adjacent to Shop-Rite Market, 3rd Avenue, Kingston.

Pulmonary screenings will be provided by the Respiratory Therapy Department and the Laboratory will offer diabetes-cholesterol screenings and blood typing. The Nursing Department will coordinate blood pressure screenings as well as height and weight measuring. Educational pamphlets and a "Choking Charlie" demonstration will be conducted by the Education Department. A display of x-rays including "Herman Bones" will be featured by the Radiology Department. Special diet information will also be available from the hospital's Dietary Department. Diane J. Shinal, R.N., Professional Services Representative, will provide information on Nesbitt Home Care Services. Balloons will also be given to everyone attending the health fair.

In conjunction with the education-intervention phase of the OK Heart project, "Diet For A Healthy Heart" cookbook and "Heart Test" books will be distributed.

For further information concerning this upcoming health fair, please contact the hospital's Community Relations Department, 288-1411 ext. 4025.

ON WEDNESDAY, AUG. 7, the OK-Heart Project will join with the American Cancer Society and American Heart Association in the "OK Wyoming Valley Smoke-out", a one day event in which area smokers are urged to give up smoking for only 24 hours.

During the day of the smoke-out area health organizations will have booths set-up on Public Square in Wilkes-Barre from 11 a.m. to 3 p.m. Information on smoking, its effects on your body, and how to quit will be handed out and the OK-Heart Project will have a "Quitter's Honor Roll" for those who do quit for the day to sign.

Wilkes-Barre Mayor Thomas McLaughlin will start the day by signing the scroll at 11 a.m. on the day of the smoke-out.

A YOUTH OUTREACH SKATER BOWL will be held Friday, August 23, from 6 p.m. to 12:30 a.m. at Bonomo's Bowling Alley and Skating Rink, Route 415, Dallas.

Coordinators of the event are Dave Rich of Mount Bethel, Pa., and Bob Eble of West Pittston. They can be reached at (215) 588-7600 or 388-6235.

Cost is $6 per person and includes three hours of bowling and three hours of skating. Shoes and skates are included.

Teens, college age and youth adults, youth leaders and pastors are all invited to participate.

THIS WEEKEND'S NATURE THEME at Frances Slocum State Park, Mount Olivet Road, Wyoming, is Natures Cratures. Free guided walks are open to the general public.

Saturday, Aug. 10, 2 p.m., "Marsh Life Plants and Animals", will discover plants and animals found along the marsh of Slocum Lake.

Sunday, Aug. 11, 2 p.m., "Natures Neighborhoods", will look at where and what animals live along the scenic Deer trail.

The following weekend programs will feature birds, with a bird walk on Saturday, Aug. 17, and a slide show titled Birds of Pa., by William Evans on Sunday, Aug. 18. For more information call the park at 696-3525.

THE SECOND ANNUAL BACK MOUNTAIN ANTIQUE CAR SHOW AND FLEA MARKET is scheduled for Sunday, August 18, with a raffle on Sunday, August 25. This event is being sponsored by the Lake-Lehman Band Sponsors Association. This year's show will feature a Model Class in addition to the usual Antique Car Classes. Gate admission will be $1 per person and judging of the cars will start at 12:30 p.m.

THE ANTHRACITE JIM BEAM BOTTLE CLUB has scheduled its annual picnic on Saturday, August 17, at Kozick's Park, Dorchester Drive, Dallas.

Food and refreshments will be available from 1 to 6 p.m.

To reach the park, turn right off Route 309 at Hess Self-Serve Gas Station and the park is approximately 1-4 mile from Route 309.

There will be no regular business meeting during August. The next regular meeting will be held Tuesday, September 10. Members are invited and urged to attend the picnic.

Programs

COMPLETE OBSTETRICAL SERVICES are currently being offered to area residents as part of Nesbitt Memorial Hospital's Mother-To-Be Program conducted each Tuesday at 4 p.m. at the Wyoming Valley Family Practice Center, 540 Pierce Street, Kingston.

The program is designed to provide quality health care for both mother and baby regardless of one's ability to pay. For patients without adequate insurance coverage, a comprehensive fee covers regular physician directed care, complete obstetrical services and all other hospital related care.

All necessary testing is completed at the hospital and may include blood work and ultrasound procedures. Couples also participate in Nesbitt Hospital's free prenatal education program. The eight-week course furnishes important information on natural childbirth techniques and care of the newborn.

Anyone interested in the Mother-To-Be Service at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital can contact the hospital's Obstetrics Department at 288-8959 for more information.

THE SECOND ARTS AT HAYFIELD SUMMER FESTIVAL, free and open to the public will offer a program of varied entertainment, from dance to drama to organ music. The Festival will be held outdoors on the grounds of Hayfield House at the Penn State Wilkes-Barre campus in Lehman from 4 to 7 p.m. on Sunday, Aug. 11.

Scheduled to perform is Scott Coates, an organist who recently participated in the Yamaha Organ Competition in North Carolina. A junior at Wyoming Valley West where he is a member of all four of that school's bands, he has taken part in a number of other competitions nationwide.

Soprano Karen Phair, a skilled musician who teaches in the Nanticoke school district and who has appeared in numerous local productions, will also perform.

Original choreographic works will be presented by M. Genine Kelly, a senior modern dance major at Texas Christian University.

The Winding River Players, a Towanda-based group, will present a one-act play, "Queen of France," a farce about Marie Antoinette which proved extremely popular during Bastille Day celebrations at the historical French Azilum near Towanda last month. This new theatre group is being introduced to the Wilkes-Barre area by Arts at Hayfield.

A variety of food will also be offered for sale at the Festival including the Hillside Farms ice cream.

Guests are encouraged to bring their own blankets and lawn chairs for this picnic style event.

At the first Festival, held July 21, a crowd turned out to hear lively entertainment by First Name Basis, a jazz-rock band; Jennifer Gallagher, talented young singer; and two singing groups from Wilkes College's Encore Music Camp.

Arts at Hayfield, housed at the Penn State campus in Lehman, is a non-profit organization dedicated to promoting cultural activities in the Back Mountain.

Screenings

THE SPEECH THERAPY DEPARTMENT at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital is offering free speech therapy screenings during the month of August.

Screenings must be scheduled by appointment through the Speech Therapy Department, 288-1411, ext. 4901. By special arrangement, screenings can also be conducted in your home.

Results of the screening will be forwarded to your physician.

For further information, contact Marcia Strauss, Speech Therapist at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital.

Classes

THE OBSTETRICS DEPARTMENT at the NPW Medical Center will hold an Early Prenatal Class for expectant couples on Tuesday, Sept. 3, from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. in the NPW Learning Resources Center.

The two-hour class focuses on the care and comfort needed during the early months of pregnancy, and emphasizes continual preparation for the birth.

For additional information and registration, and to obtain a free brochure on NPW's Maternity Programs, please call the Obstetrics Department at 826-7324.

Exhibits

ENTRIES OF EXHIBITS AND LIVESTOCK for the 133rd Allentown Fair are being accepted in Agricultural Hall now through Saturday, Aug. 10.
