Events

PLANS ARE IN FULL SWING for the annual Tyler Memorial Antique Show and Sale and hundreds of people are working to ensure its success.

The Antique Show and Sale will again take place on the first weekend in October at Nativity Hall in Tunkhannock. The show will begin Friday night, Oct. 4, with the Preview, and will continue through Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 5 and 6.

Proceeds from the show will benefit Tyler Memorial Hospital.

For further information about The Mercantile, contact Karen Lord, 836-2889. Completed forms should be sent to Mrs. Debbie Lord at RD 6, Box 5B, Tunkhannock, Pa. 18657.

ST. JOHN'S CHURCH in Larksville will hold its annual parish festival Friday, Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 16, 17 and 18 on the parish grounds, Nesbitt Street. Reverend John C. Masakowski, pastor and members of the parish family invite the public to the event which will get underway Friday and Saturday at 6 p.m. and on Sunday at 12 noon, rain or shine.

Live musical entertainment will be featured daily, from 7 to 11 p.m. George Tarasek and his Polka Partners will perform on Aug. 16; Polka Punch on Aug. 17 from 7 to 11 p.m. and on Sunday, Aug. 18, everyone will enjoy the music of the Henry Charles Orchestra from 7 to 11 p.m. In addition, "Bobby Z" of WMJW FM 92 will broadcast live from 1 to 4 p.m. on the parish grounds.

A special attraction for youngsters is slated for Sunday afternoon from 2 to 4 p.m. when the Three Little Pigs will make their appearance at the bazaar grounds and host a special children's bingo with special prizes. Children may have their pictures taken with the Three Little Pigs.

Each evening at 9:30 and 11 p.m. a 50-50 raffle will be held. Grand prizes totaling $1200 in cash will be awarded on the final evening of the bazaar. Other special prizes include a Shopping Spree to Insalacos, Special Ceramic Prizes and an Afghan. Ample picnic tables and benches will be available for patrons to enjoy a bevy of homemade foods prepared by the men and women of the parish. Included will be pierogi, haluski, golumbki, clam chowder, potato pancakes, hot dogs, whimpies and other American favorites. A sweet tooth booth will feature homemade breads, cakes, doughnuts and pies. Cotton candy, funnel cakes and soft pretzels will satisfy all. On Sunday, from noon to 5 p.m. a spaghetti dinner will be served.

A variety of booths such as floral, Christmas Boutique, hand-dressed dolls, plush animals, spin-off and many more too numerous to mention will add enjoyment for patrons of all ages.

SATURDAY AND SUNDAY AFTERNOONS, Aug. 17 and 18 the Laceyville Area Oldest House Historical Society will present a Quilt Show featuring the works of Mrs. Linda Morris and her students. The display may be seen both days from 1 to 4 p.m. at the old landmark, E. Main St., Laceyville.

The show will include pieces done by several students including a sampler quilt by Gloria Beckley that took "Best of Show" honors last year at the West End Lewisburg Fair and was the first one done by Ms. Beckley.

At the Oldest House Quilt Show, Mrs. Morris and perhaps some of her students will be present to discuss the art with visitors who, too, are presently or potentially quilters.

The ladies of the Historical Society will serve homemade cookies and fruit punch.

Everyone is welcome to this lovely display. The Oldest House is easily reached by any of the three exits from Route 6 to the town.

A HEALTH FAIR AND OPEN HOUSE will be held at the Monroe-Noxen Health Center, Route 39, Noxen on Saturday, August 17 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. An invitation is extended to all area residents to attend the event and meet Dr. Joan Orloski who recently joined the staff.

Dr. Orloski is a graduate of the Philadelphia College of Osteopathic Medicine and earned a Ph.D. degree in genetics from Penn State University, Hershey Medical Center. She is a native of Duryea and attended local schools and Marywood College.

The Health Fair will feature free screenings for hypertension, diabetes, oral cancer, colorectal cancer, vision, and dental health.

Educational information and displays will be available on nutrition, wellness, family planning, and emergency first aid. Gifts, refreshments, and entertainment will be provided.

Tours will be conducted of the Center and medical and dental personnel will be available to answer questions.

The Center is located on Route 29, one-half mile west of Route 309, between Dallas and Tunkhannock. The staff provides comprehensive preventive and primary medical and dental care for all persons, including immunizations, examinations, diagnostic evaluations, treatment, emergency care, and hospital coverage. Transportation is also provided for registered patients when needed for scheduled appointments at the Center.

THE SECOND ANNUAL BACK MOUNTAIN Antique Car Show & Flea Market will be held Sunday, August 18. Rain date is Sunday, August 25. It is being sponsored by the Lake-Lehman Band Sponsors Association. Admission will be $1 per person. Judging of the cars will start at 12:30 p.m.

THIS WEEKEND, free nature programs continue at Frances Slocum State park, Mount Olivet Road, Wyoming. Birds will be the subject of the walk and presentation this weekend.

Saturday August 17, 2 p.m. "Birds of Frances Slocum," will look at what birds use the park, during the summer.

Sunday August 18, 2 p.m. William Evans, Treasurer of Greater Wyoming Valley Audubon Society, will present a slide show entitled "Pa Birds and Animals." Mr. Evans has been involved in birding for many years, and has developed an extensive slide collection of birds of Pennsylvania, of which he would like to share with everyone. This program will feature many species of birds, photographed in their natural environment, which should make this program a must for people who enjoy looking at birds.

Field glasses are recommended for the bird walk on Saturday. For more information call the park at 696-3525.

THE ANNUAL REUNION of the descendants of John and Rachel Bulford, early pioneers of the Back Mountain area, will be held on Sunday, August 18, at the Bloomingdale Grange. There will be a picnic dinner at 12:30 p.m. Gary Miers, president, will preside at the meeting following the dinner.

THE GREATER WILKES-BARRE YMCA will be sending down its camping season for the summer with Day Camp which will finish on Aug. 23.

Day Camp is conducted at Camp Kresge which has a 30 acre spring fed lake. Activities conducted on the lake are swimming, boating and fishing. Over the years the YMCA camp has expanded and developed a quality boating program which includes rowboats, canoes, playaks, sailboats, sailboards and the most recent addition paddleboats. Each camper is instructed and tested on their ability to use the boat and properly.

Other activities which the camp offers are riflery, archery, sports programs, arts and crafts and many other exciting activities.

The Day Camp program is for children 6 thru 14. A bus will pick up the children at the YMCA at 8:30 a.m. and return at 4:15 p.m.

For further information call the Y at 823-2191.

THE MAPLE GROVE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH will hold an old-fashioned Ice Cream Social on Saturday, August 17, at 4 p.m., featuring Bar-B-Que, homemade ice cream and homemade pies.

The Church is located near the intersection of Routes 118 and 29, on the Main Road in Sweet Valley.

THE COLLEGE-CAREER GROUP of New Life Community Church will be sponsoring a youth day at Frances Slocum Park. The event, called the UNCIVIL WAR, will feature games, comedy skits, and free food. Kids of all ages are welcome.

THE UNCIVIL WAR will happen at Francis Slocum Park this Saturday, August 17 from 2 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Francis Slocum park is located on Carverton Road in Shavertown.

THE HARVEYS LAKE BEACH ASSOCIATION will hold their annual Fireworks Display at the Sunset section of the Lake on Sunday Evening, September 1, 1985, at approximately 9 o'clock.

Fireworks will be set off at the Harveys Lake Yacht Club soil on the lake in their annual Torchlight Parade beneath the magnificent aerial display. The event is a very popular one, sponsored by the association and local business people as a public service. It signifies the end of the summer season at the lake.

Concerts

BACK MOUNTAIN STRING BAND will be a featured attraction at the Country Western Jamboree being sponsored by the Harding Mt. Zion Community Ambulance Association.

This fund raiser is being held Sunday, Aug. 18, beginning at 12 o'clock at the Exeter Township Municipal Building, Route 92.

THE OAK RIDGE BOYS, who are performing at the Allentown Fair Thursday, August 29, are looking for some "acorns" to open up their two shows.

The "Great Acorn Talent Search" is on, and youthful quartets who think they can sing "Elvira," "Bobby Sue" or "American Made" close to the way The Oak Ridge Boys do, can try out for a chance to perform on the fair's grandstand stage.

Groups of four, ages 4 to 18 in any combination of males and females, are eligible. Ten quartets will be chosen by a random drawing to compete in a preliminary contest on the fair's Multi-National Festival free stage Preview Night Tuesday, August 27 at 7:30 p.m. They must sing one of the three stated Oak Ridge Boys' hit singles.

The competition is being co-sponsored by Service Electric Cable Super Channel 2 and WXXW country music radio station. Judging the 10 finalists quartets will be Don Hunt and Dana Arcidiacono, of Super 2, and Ted Bare, of WXXW.

Each member of the winning quartet will be presented with a plaque from The Oak Ridge Boys bearing the inscription, "Today an Acorn-tomorrow a Mighty Oak." All four will receive an Oak Ridge Boys tour jacket and meet the members of the award-winning country group at the fair.

Interested quartets should submit their names, ages, the title of the song they wish to sing and the name, address and telephone number of an adult representative to "The Great Acorn Talent Search", c/o Super Channel 2, 1045 Hamilton St., Allentown, PA 18104. Entries must reach the station by August 20.

Clinics

NESBITT MEMORIAL HOSPITAL is sponsoring an Arthritis Clinic on Wednesday, Aug. 21, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the hospital's Medical Arts Building.

Dr. John Carey, a specialist in arthritis and rheumatology, conducts the program which provides arthritis patients with a complete physical examination and treatment plan. The results are forwarded to the patient's physician for consultation input and followup care.

Patients requiring orthopedic or corrective surgery or extensive physical therapy are tested with a multidisciplinary approach known as CORE (Combined Orthopedic and Rheumatologic Evaluation).

Patients, referred by their physician, must make an appointment with the Arthritis Clinic by calling Nesbitt's Outpatient Registration office at 288-1411, extension 4130, Monday through Friday, from 1 to 4 p.m.

Courses

A SIX-WEEK SELF-HELP COURSE for persons with arthritis will be offered on Tuesdays, September 3 through October 8, at Dr. Kistler School, Old River Road, Wilkes Barre. Sessions meet once a week and a donation is requested to cover the cost of materials. Pre-registration by August 24 is necessary. Call Shirley O'Gorman at 779-2864 during the evening.

Sponsored by the Eastern Pennsylvania Chapter of the Arthritis Foundation the Self-Help Course is designed to provide knowledge and skills needed to help the person with arthritis to better manage his or her disease. A Physician Information Form will be required for participation.

Discussions are included about the disease process, principles of exercise and joint protection, pain management through relaxation techniques, proper use of medication, patient-physician communication and psychological aspects. Other topics addressed are nutrition, quackery and evaluation of non-traditional treatments for arthritis.

Classes

CHILD BIRTH EDUCATION CLASSES for pregnant teenaged women, held at Planned Parenthood of Northeastern Pennsylvania, began Monday, July 29, 1985, at 7:30 p.m. and will continue for seven weeks. Openings are still available for women wishing to participate.

The classes, which are conducted by Judith Seroska, R.N., and Judith Fried, R.N., are geared specifically to the needs of pregnant adolescent women, many of whom are identified as "high risk" patients by obstetricians because of their age.

According to Mrs. Seroska, special attention is given to nutrition during and after pregnancy, relaxation and breathing techniques to assure a good childbirth experience, emotional and physical changes during pregnancy, and newborn care. The availability of academic programs in the community for young mothers is also discussed to encourage high school participants to continue their schooling.

Mrs. Seroska notes that each pregnant teenager is invited to attend the sessions with a person who will serve as her "coach" during labor and delivery. This person may be a spouse, parent, friend or anyone of the young woman's choosing.

Young women who attend the series are eligible to use Planned Parenthood's Swap Shop, which contains maternity and infant clothing and infant furniture.

There is no charge for the classes, and use of the Swap Shop is also free. Persons interested in learning more about the classes may contact Planned Parenthood.

Theater

THE INTERNATIONALLY ACCLAIMED MUSICAL, "Evita" appears on the Pocono Playhouse stage in Mountainhome from August 13 through August 18, returning for an additional one week from September 3 through September 8.

"Evita" is based on the rise to power and ultimate death of Eva Peron. She was an illegitimate child who rose from the depths of poverty to become a popular movie and radio actress and then, at age 27, the very rich and extremely powerful first lady of Argentina.

All tickets at Pocono Playhouse range from just $10 to $14. For further information and ticket reservations, call 595-7456.

Programs

THE NEXT BASIC TRAINING WEEKEND FOR THRESHOLD will be held on September 14 and 15 at the Parish House of the Prince of Peace Church, Main St., Dallas.

Threshold is a course in Decision Making which is taught during a 10 week cycle to inmates of the Dallas Correctional Institution who are about to be released into the various communities.

At present, there are still openings for volunteers to attend the training session. If interested, please call Ingrid Prater at 823-9548 or Sr. Barbara Craig at 287-6801 in the evening.

Dinners

FIRST ASSEMBLY OF GOD CHURCH, Carverton Road, Truicksville, will hold a chicken barbeque on Saturday, August 24.

Serving will be from 3 to 7 p.m. and donations of $4.50 for adults and $2.25 for children will be accepted. Children under six years of age will be served free of charge.

Take-outs will also be available.
