WWW anticipates another good year

Wyoming Valley West head football coach Jim Fennell is looking toward another super year with his Spartans as the Plymouth-based school boys head into the 1985 gridiron season.

Returning letters on the Valley West roster this season include Mike Nicotera, Rich Gavlick, Jeff Tomko, Pat Tagnani, Dan Suda, Connel McNulty, Darryl Emershaw, Dave Lowery, Steve Stelma, Marc Meighan, Frank Gallagher, Dave Salus, Wally Haddick, Carl Edwards, and Sean Fennell.

Halfback Matt Michaels and quarterback Joe Novitsky are both three-year Spartan veterans and will be heavily relied upon this year while fullbacks Joe Perzia and Joe Koval will also be looked toward for their talents.

Sophomore halfback George Mizzer, who rushed for 1,000 yards as a freshman, will be a welcome sight to the Valley West offense while players like Fred Mazur, Doug Rush, Jerry Meighan, Frank Gallagher, and Pat Tagnani will be counted on by the coaching staff.

Joe Blannett, a sophomore, is expected to see quite a bit of action in the quarterback slot.

Assisting the veteran Fennell in the coaching department will be Les Nicholas, George Simms, Steve Duda, Gary Mack, Mark Koval and John Faust.
