Family Service sets plans for 90th anniversary meeting

There will be a big celebration and a happy reunion when the Family Service Association of Wyoming Valley has its 90th Annual Meeting-Luncheon at noon on Sept. 5, at the Sheraton-Crossgates in Wilkes-Barre. Returning to Wyoming Valley, to honor Family Service as the principal speaker for this commemoration, is the noted former resident, Alfred Eisenpreis. Eisenpreis was first employed by Pomeroy's in Wilkes-Barre, went on to become an economic consultant to three U.S. presidents, and is currently a vice-president with the Newspaper Advertising Bureau. Founded in 1895 and known as "United Charities" until 1941, Family Service has chosen this 90th Anniversary meeting to present special Community Service Awards to Judge Chester B. Muroski of the Luzerne County Orphans Court and Ian Richardson, executive vice-president of Offset Paperback Mfrs., Inc. of Dallas. All 90-year old residents of Wyoming Valley have been invited to be Family Service's guests at the luncheon. Among those accepting the invitation to attend is the noted local musician and performer, Phil Cusick, who just celebrated his 90th birthday. Phil, who played at almost every movie house in Wyoming Valley during the silent movie days, had an 11-piece band, and broadcast live radio shows over local stations WBRE and WBAX, has volunteered to play the piano during the luncheon. Joining in the celebration with Family Service is the Leichtman Ice Cream Co., Inc. of Hazleton, which is also marking its 90th birthday this year. Jerry Leichtman, president, is donating Leichtman ice cream to be served with the birthday cake at the luncheon. Family Service, a United Way member agency, who has been a friend for 90 years to thousands in Wyoming Valley who needed help, is inviting the community to join in celebrating "The Year Of The Family" at its 90th Annual Meeting on Thursday, Sept. 5, at the Sheraton-Crossgates. Donation in $5.50, but 90-year olds are welcomed to be guests of Family Service. For reservations, contact Family Service, 73 W. Union St., Wilkes-Barre, Pa. 18702, or phone 823-5144.
