ans or widows of Veterans who meet eligibility guidelines under the Veterans Administration's Pension Programs, according to Tom Bufano of the Governor's Veterans outreach and assistance center.

Bufano will be at the Kingston Township Municipal Building, 11 Carverton Road in Trucksville on Sept. 12 from 1:30 to 4:15 p.m. to answer questions about VA Pension Pro-

Proof of Veteran Status is required and may include a VA letter, A VA Patient Data Card, a discharge certificate or DD-214. Appointments are not necessary.

Disability pension and death pension are two VA benefit programs. Disability pension refers to wartime veterans with limited incme, who served 90 or more days, and who are permanently and totally disabled for reasons not traceable to service. Veterans 65 years of age or older and not working are considered permanently disabled.

Death pension is the monetary benefit payable monthly to the widow or children of a veteran of wartime service who dies of nonservice-connected causes. The widow or children must be determined to be in need of the benefit.
