Dairy Bar has more than ice cream treats

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Post correspondent

The Shadowbrook Dairy Bar located along Route 6, Tunkhannock, is the hub of the huge complex which provides dining, entertainment, bowling, racquet ball, physical facilities and a modern motel. The Dairy Bar, which still serves delicious homemade, hard ice cream for which it has been so well known, is celebrating its 30th anniversary this month.

During the past five years, the new owners have doubled the seating capacity of the Dairy Bar and with the addition of the Oak Room and Patio Room, 175 persons can be seated easily.

The Dairy Bar is open from 6 a.m. to 11 p.m. every day and its menu is designed for family dining. The old favorites for breakfast, lunch and dinner are still on the menu, which has been expanded to include such mouthwatering entrees as Crabmeat Casserole or Chicken Breast Platter with the chicken lightly marinated and broiled.

The Dairy Bar averages approximately 28 flavors of ice cream, some of the most popular being chocolate chip, strawberry shortcake, chocolate fudge brownie, Almond Joy, and for the kiddies, bubblegum.

The Oak Room, adjacent to the Patio Room, was added primarily for private meetings or parties for groups of about 50 people. Like the other rooms, large ceiling to floor windows provide a beautiful view of the entire complex.

John Shaffer and his sister, Cathy Streby, are co-managers of the complex and are continuously coming up with new ideas to please their patrons.

This is not an easy task, for included in the complex is an 18-hole golf course, 18-hole miniature golf course, racquet and fitness center open 24 hours daily complete with racquet courts, Nautilus, aerobics and volleyball. There is also a 12-lane bowling center which is open daily; the motel which has 33 units, and the diningroom and lounge with entertainment, Wednesday through Saturday. The lounge and diningroom is best known as the "Brook."

If you haven't stopped at the Shadowbrook Dairy Bar, it's time you did. You're missing a lot and you don't realize it.
