Ready to serve you

Jerry Passikoff, left, proprietor, and Bill Kravitz, head chef at Hottle's Restaurant, Wilkes-Barre, are prepared to make your dinner at Hottle's one of the most enjoyable ever.

Hottle's also has varied lunch menu

By CHARLOT M. DENMON
Staff Correspondent

Hottle's Restaurant, 242 South Main St., Wilkes-Barre, has long been noted for its seafood, steak and poultry entrees and in the years since Jerry Passikoff became chef, Hottle's became popular for many of the gourmet dinners prepared by the chef.

Now with Jerry as chef and owner, Hottle's is also the place to go for lunch. Prices are reasonable and suitable for the working person and prompt, courteous service is provided in a chery atmosphere. Takeouts are available for those persons, who would rather stay in and continue working over their lunch hour.

All food is prepared on the premises and is fresh daily. Every week, Tuesday through Friday, there are daily specials on the menu as well as a soup and sandwich special with something different offered each day. Because the restaurant has become a popular luncheon place, reservations are recommended to guarantee seating.

The luncheon menu offers a wide variety from cold or hot sandwiches, salads, side dishes to platters. Among the most ordered cold sandwiches are chicken salad, egg salad, turkey club, liver-wurst, roast beef, tuna salad, tomato, lettuce and bacon to tuna salad. All served on the bread of your choice—white, rye, wheat or pumpernickel.

Many of the luncheon customers prefer hot sandwiches and among the favorites are the crab cake, fried bologna, beef burger, fillet of chicken, cheese steak, or the Buc-A-rue, an open faced grilled cheese and bacon topped with a soft-shelled crab.

Mushrooms, onion rings, French fries, cole slaw are just a few of the side dishes offered on the menu.

The fisherman's platter, flounder, haddock, or open faced steak are just a few of the platters preferred by diners. The Monte Crisco — ham, turkey, swiss cheese, dipped in batter and sauteed in butter is "Something Different" offered at Hottle's.

Looking for something not too heavy for lunch? Try the shrimp or crab salad, Manager's salad, comprised of Julienne ham, turkey, cheese, tomato wedges and hard boiled egg on a bed of lettuce, or for the weight-conscious there is nothing any better than Jerry's fruit platter.

Top off lunch with a touch of sweetness such as Jerry's chocolate, peanut butter or strawberry ice cream pie, or his specialty - a mouth-watering gourmet cheesecake. For the less daring there are creme de menth or chocolate parfaits or peach melba.

The mixologist on duty is prepared to mix your favorite cocktail or if drinking is a "no-no" at lunchtime, there is coffee, tea, decaffeinated coffee, Sanka, white or chocolate milk, soda or iced tea. Crab Cake, chopped tenderloin, hot roast beef au jus, ham steak and a variety of seafood is on the menu every day.

Just as Hottle's has become a popular meeting place for lunch, it is also a popular dining place in the evening. Many returning diners have become friends through their many returns to the South Main Street restaurant for dinner.

Since the dinner rush hour is usually from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m., for the person who doesn't mind dining a little later Jerry suggests coming at 8:30 or 9. Avoid the mad confusion and dine at leisure.

The Cattleman cut of prime rib is a favorite Friday and Saturday night special with many of the diners.

Prepared just for your enjoyment at prices for your budget are the delicious entrees at Hottle's Restaurant "Where The Best Seafood is a Tradition."
