

Community Calendar

Concerts

THE RIVER CITY BRASS BAND, the only professional brass band in America, will present a free concert at College Misericordia on Sunday, September 29, at 12 noon.

Founded in 1981 by Music Director Robert Bernal, the River City Brass Band (RCBB) presents a home season in Pittsburgh of 18 subscription concerts annually and performs summer, fall and spring tours. Bernal was the first American composer-conductor selected by the State Department to participate in an artists exchange program with Great Britain. He is best known for his composition "In Memoriam: John F. Kennedy," which was commissioned and performed by the Pittsburgh Symphony and recorded by the Louisville Orchestra.

Often called "The Boston Pops-In Brass," RCBB's 27 virtuoso musicians present a program popular with audiences of all ages. The RCBB repertory ranges from Renaissance masterworks to works by today's leading composers. The ensemble consists of the traditional brass band instrumentation: ten cornets, four tubas, three trombones, three horns, two euphoniums, two baritones, one flugelhorn and two percussion.

The public is invited to bring a picnic lunch and enjoy this outdoor concert. In the event of rain, the program will be presented in Walsh Auditorium on the Dallas campus.

The RCBB concert is sponsored by College Misericordia as a community service. The college's next musical event will feature Maynard Ferguson, renowned jazz trumpeter on October 10 at 8 p.m. in Walsh Auditorium.

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA PHILHARMONIC will open its 1985-86 Season of Stars the last week-end in September with international violin virtuoso, Elmar Oliveira.

The program will include the magnificent Tchaikovsky Violin Concerto, the lyrical Brahms Symphony No. 2 and the unique Svoboda Overture.

Concerts have been scheduled for Friday, September 27 at 8:30 p.m. at Masonic Temple in Scranton and Saturday, September 28 at 8:30 p.m. at Irem Temple in Wilkes-Barre.

For best seats call Philharmonic ticket hotlines: 342-0920 or 287-1916.

Meetings

THE ALUMNI ASSOCIATION of Luzerne County Community College will conduct its first meeting of the 1985-86 academic year on Wednesday, September 25, at 7 p.m. in the Conference Room of Building 5 on the college's main campus in Nanticoke.

The college's alumni will meet to begin preparation for activities and events that will be held throughout the coming year. Any alumnus planning to attend the meeting, or interested in further information should contact Lisa Baker in the LCCC Alumni Office at 829-7387.

THE HARVEYS LAKE ENVIRONMENTAL ADVISORY COUNCIL (EVAC) will hold its second public meeting on Thursday, September 26 at 7:30 p.m. at the Harveys Lake municipal building.

The EVAC was created by Harveys Lake borough council members in order to discuss the lake's water quality problems and to offer possible solutions. The meeting is open to the general public and any input from concerned citizens is welcomed.

BLUE CROSS of Northeastern Pennsylvania's assessment of changes that are occurring in today's health care delivery system, and priorities that have been established to meet these challenges, are among topics slated for review on Wednesday, Oct. 2, 12:15 p.m., at the Fall luncheon forum for Blue Cross Advisory Board members from central Luzerne and Wyoming Counties. They will be meeting at the Genetti Best Western Motor Inn, Wilkes-Barre.

Announcement of the upcoming forum was made by the Rev. Anita Ambrose, Plymouth, and Roy E. Morgan, Forty Fort, co-chairmen of the panel representing regional communities.

CHAPTER 9 DISABLED AMERICAN VETERANS will meet on Monday, October 7, at 7:30 p.m. at the Parsons VRW, Scott Street, Wilkes-Barre.

Commander Murray Brown will preside.

VETERANS OF THE VIETNAM WAR, Post No. 2, will meet Thursday, Sept. 26, at 8 p.m., at the Coral Lounge, 245 Owen St., Swoyersville. The Veterans of the Vietnam War, Inc. is a full service organization open to all veterans.

Events

THE SECOND ANNUAL TEDDY BEAR FAIR will be held at the Bay Window Shops on Overbrook Road, Shavertown on September 19 from 1 p.m. to 6 p.m.

This is a benefit for the Nay Aug Park Zoo in Scranton and a plan of the new zoo will be available for everyone to see. There will be crafts, toys balloons, pictures, bear shirts, food and contests including Name The Bear, Oldest, Smallest, and Best Dressed Bears. Prizes will be awarded.

The rain date will be October 6. For more information, call 675-6400.

THIS WEEKEND, Frances Slocum State Park, Mount Olivet Road, Wyoming, is offering free guided nature walks. These walks are open to the general public.

Saturday, Sept. 28, 2 p.m. "Indian Hunting Customs" will discover how the American Indians of the area used the park as hunting grounds.

Sunday, Sept. 29, 2 p.m. "Slocum Birds", will examine birds that are found in the park all year, and birds that are passing through on their fall migration.

For more information call the park at 696-3525.

FRANCES SLOCUM STATE PARK, Mount Olivet Road, Wyoming, is offering environmental education services to school classes, scout groups, and other organized groups of children or adults.

Park Naturalist Jeff Smith is now accepting group reservations for guided walks on the Park's scenic trails. The educational walks, which run from 1 to 1 1/2 hours in length, may be scheduled for weekdays or weekends between 8 a.m. and 8 p.m. A choice of guided walk topics, including nature study and American Indian culture is available.

Groups are encouraged to schedule walks at least three weeks in advance by contacting Frances Slocum State Park at 696-3525.

THE CHAIRMAN of the 40th annual library auction to be held in July of 1986, Dr. John R. Shaskas, has announced the 1st annual library auction Christmas dinner dance will be held on Saturday, December 7 at the Woodlands in Wilkes-Barre. Co-chairmen of the dinner committee are: Nancy Calise and Kathy Kostrezewski. Tickets for the affair will be available at the library after October 7, cost to be $70 a couple and $40 for single.

The menu will be a full course dinner with Chicken Wellington as the main entree. There will be open bar all night, bar opening at 6, dinner served from 7 to 8; a mini-auction from 8 to 9 and dancing from 9 to 12. The mini-auction will feature Christmas oriented items. Dress will be semi-formal.

A gala occasion to get the 40th annual Back Mountain Memorial Library auction off to a good start.

Sales

A RUMMAGE SALE, sponsored by The Lehman U.M. Women will be held in the Lehman United Methodist Church on Friday Sept. 20, from 9-5 p.m. and Saturday Sept. 21, 9-2. Saturday is Bag Day.

There will be a Fall Bake Sale and a Fall Snack Bar both days.

Helen Squier and Lillie Lumoreaux are co-chairpersons. Committees; Vera Hoover, Fern Rogers, Jean McCulloch, Evelyn Ide, Rummage - Elda Coolbaugh, Patricia Miers, Ruth Disque - Bake Sale. Naomi Nuss, Dorothy Wright, Jean McCulloch, Fern Rogers - Snack Bar.

THE WOMEN OF ALDERSON METHODIST CHURCH, Harveys Lake, will hold a rummage and bake-sale on October 4 and 5 from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The bake sale will be held on Saturday only from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Both events will be held in the church basement.

Church

THE SHAVERTOWN UNITED METHODIST CHURCH announces the following schedule:

Wednesday, September 25 - 7:15 p.m. Bible Study. 7:30 p.m. Work Area on Education.

Thursday, September 26 - 10:30 a.m. Bible Study. 7:30 p.m. Chancel Choir.

Sunday, September 29 - 9:30 a.m. Church School for All Ages. 11 a.m. Worship. 7:30 p.m. Orpheus Choral Concert Candlelight.

Tuesday, October 1 - 2:30 p.m. Lectorary.

THE SHAVERTOWN UNITED METHODIST WOMEN are busy making preparations for their annual Roast Beef Dinner which will be served on October 9 in the church social room from 5 to 7 p.m. Serving as co-chairmen of the dinner are Olwen Overman, Marla Karalunas, Marie McCoy, and Helen Kishbaugh.

On the menu will be tomato bisque, pepper hash, choice roast beef, gravy, mashed potatoes, tiny Belgian carrots, applesauce, dinner rolls, and a choice of pie for dessert with coffee or tea. All the food will be homemade.

Tickets are available from members of the Unit or by contacting the ticket chairmen Alice Borthwick and Harriet Stahl. There will be no tickets sold at the door.

Programs

GREAT BOOKS AT HAYFIELD is being offered for the second year at the Pennsylvania State University Wilkes-Barre Campus, beginning September 23 with John Osborne's play Luther.

"This program offers a great

Castle planned

Plans are being made by the Lehman Methodist Church to hold their annual Halloween Haunted Castle. The youth group from the church are working on the castle and Lehman Cadette Troop 706 will be preparing to sell pumpkins at the Haunted Castle. Proceeds from the pumpkins will go toward the troop's trip to Georgia in 1986. The Haunted Castle will run from Oct. 28 through Oct. 31, 6:30 p.m. to 9 p.m. near the Lehman Church. Shown here are those who attended the special meeting to make plans for the Haunted Castle. From left, first row, Missy Larkens, Jenny Hynick, Jenny Jones, Kim Yekel, Andrea Bunney, Mandy Jones, Becky James. Second row, Charlene Cook, Shawn Clark, Jon Rogers, Jason Gearhart, Dave Larkens, Sheryl Clark, Kim Watkins. Third row, Alan Perrego, Russell Yekel, Mary Cipolla, Colleen Felty, Wendy Watkins. fourth row, Earl Weidner, Kim Weidner and Jon Pineno.

opportunity for both the campus community and local residents who enjoy reading great books, poetry and plays to participate in lively discussions of great literature with the guidance of a coordinating committee made up of faculty, staff and students," said Dr. Frederick J. Stefan, Assistant Professor of History, chairman of Great Books at Hayfield.

This year's program will offer eight informal discussions; all fall sessions will be held on Monday evenings at 7:30 p.m. in Hayfield 105 on the campus in Lehman.

In the fall series opening September 23 with Lther, are E.M. Foster's A Passage to India on Monday evening, October 21; and Arthur Miller's The Crucible on Monday, November 18.

Other committee members in addition of Dr. Stefan are Jean Dietz, Lecturer in GERman, publicity; Gerry Gregory, Assistant Professor of English, and Patricia Cole, coordinator of the Learning Support Center, program co-chair persons.

A RADIOGRAPHY REGISTRY REVIEW is being offered by College Misericordia on Saturday, Oct. 5, from 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at the Dallas campus.

The review will be conducted by Stephen S. Hiss and Gary Wogenrich. Hiss is the author of numerous books on radiology which are used as texts by schools of radiography including College Misericordia. Wogenrich holds a master's degree in educational administration and a bachelor's degree in radiologic technology.

The workshop will cover radiographic technique and imaging, physics and circuitry, anatomy and physiology, and positioning. An optional question and discussion period will be offered.

For information, contact Misericordia's Center for Professional Development at 675-3862.

A NEW CAREER-EXPLORATION COMPUTER SERVICE has been instituted at the Student Assistance Center at College Misericordia.

The program allows students to explore career opportunities by indicating possible career fields based upon their interests. Expanded services will also help students in majors by identifying career options.

A grant from the Pennsylvania Department of Education was made to College Misericordia for purchase of the computer equipment and careers program.

Lectures

A FREE PUBLIC LECTURE entitled "Safety in God's Care" will be held on Monday, October 14, at 8 p.m. at the First Church of Christ, Scientist, 1585 Wyomin Ave., Forty Fort.

The lecture will be presented by Rex W. Beasley, C.S., a member of The Christian Science Board of Lectureship.

Workshops

REGISTERED NURSES Licensed Practicia Nurses, Student Nurses, Respiratory Therapists and Technicians in the area are invited to participate in a one day seminar/workshop presented by the RESpiratory Care Consortium and co-sponsored by the American Lung Association of Northeast Pennsylvania dn ALA of Wyoming Valley, a division of Lehigh Valley.

On Thursday, October 3, a program entitled "Adult Respiratory Distress Syndrome" will be presented at the Education conference Center of Luzerne County Community College, Nanticoke from 8 a.m. - 4 p.m.

The seminar fee of $25. per person - $15 for currently enrolled students in health care programs includes registration, education packet, luncheon, and breaks.

Application has been made to the Pennsylvania Nurses Association for the awarding of Continuing Education Units. Certificates of attendance will be issued to all participants.

For further information and registration contact Karen Wrublewski, RN at the Veterans Administration Medical Center, 824-3521.

Exhibits

AN ART EXHIBIT by Carol Slusser Fraind will be held from September 29 through October 11 at King's College. Capturing the time-worn character of old buildings and remarkable individuals is a favorite challenge for the artist.

A reception will be held on Sunday, September 29, from 2 to 5 p.m. in the Kilburn Room, sheehy Student Center, King's College. The gallery is open from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. weekdays and from noon to 8 p.m. on Sundays.

HEART IN HAND

Join us for our very 1st sale!
10% to 50% Off Everything
In Our Store.
Thursday, Sept. 26th
Thru Sunday, Sept. 29th Only!
11 A.M. to 5 P.M.

34 Lake st. dallas. 675-1299 mon. thru sun.

Hearing Loss Is Not A Sign Of Old Age.

Chicago, Ill. — A free offer of special interest to those who hear but do not understand words has been announced by Beltone. A non-operating model of the smallest Beltone aid of its kind will be given absolutely free to anyone who sends for this free model now.

Send for this model, it will show you how tiny hearing help can be. It is not a real hearing aid and it's yours to keep free. The actual aid weighs less than an eighth of an ounce, and its fits completely into the ear canal.

These models are free, so we suggest you write for yours now. Again, we repeat, there is no cost, and certainly no obligation. All hearing problems are not alike and some cannot be helped by a hearing aid but many can. So send for your free model now. Thousands have already mailed, so be sure to write today to Department 671, Beltone Electronics Corp., 4201 West Victoria Street, Chicago, Illinois 60646.

Offer not valid in California.

Concert planned

The Orpheus Choral Society will present a concert of secular and sacred music on Tuesday, October 1, at 7:30 p.m. at the Shavertown United Methodist Church. The program is sponsored by the Fine Arts Committee of the Church. A reception will follow in the Church Social Room. The Orpheus Choral Society is directed by Gordon J. Evans, and accompanied by his wife, Carol. Mr. Evans also serves as the music director at the Firwood United Methodist Church, and has been involved in the presentation of fine music in the Wyoming Valley for a number of years. The public is invited to the Concert and reception. A collection will be taken to benefit the Upper Parking Lot Fund of the Church. Members of the Orpheus Choral Society are pictured at a recent planning session with the Fine Arts Committee of Shavertown UM Church. From left, seated, are Richard Williams, Gordon Evans. Standing, Jack Rogers, Carol Evans and James Evans. The Rev. James A. Wert is Pastor of Shavertown UM Church, The Rev. Harriet L. Santos is Associate Pastor and Helen Earles, is chairperson of the Fine Arts Committee. The church is located on the corner of West Center St. and North Pioneer Avenue.