BACK MOUNTAIN YOUTH SOCCER NEWS

U-10 DIVISION
The U-10 Division battled for their victories under warm and sunny skies on Saturday. The Cosmos defeated the Fury 2 to 0 with Mike Scott scoring in the second quarter and Sean Callahan putting away a penalty kick in the third quarter. Strong and alert goalies were Gary Farbor for the Cosmos and Darin Dixon for the Fury.

In the second contest of the day, the Kicks held on to beat the Roughnecks 4-2. Thanks to a great effort by Tom Oznik, the Kicks were able to keep their opponent to only two goals both scored by Tom Smigiel-ski. Robert Kane provided forward leadership for the Kicks by scoring 2 goals and Jessica Kerr and Scott Walters helped ensure the win by each kicking goals.

In a heated defensive struggle, the Rowdies overpowered the Sockers 5-2. Randy Staff scored for the Sockers, while outstanding defensive tactics by Lynn Turner and Justin Lochheim held that team to its low total. The Rowdies goals were scored by Brad Barket (3) and Eddie Thomas (2) two outstanding forwards who have put forth their best all season and continue to provide energy and expertise for their team.

The final game of the day saw a lopsided meeting of the Sting and the Strikers with the Sting victorious 5-0. Pounding the opposing goal all day, the Sting's points were scored by Patrick Costello (3) and Michael Petruska (2). These two quick and sure-footed forwards have consistently been scoring leaders.

U-12 DIVISION
U-12 Division the Sting's aggressive offensive line led that team past the Strikers 5 to 3. The Strikers held firm in the first quarter answering every Sting goal with a Striker goal but the Sting forged ahead in the second and added an insurance goal in the third to secure the win. Steven Geist scored two goals for the Sting while Kevin Loeffler, Kenn Miroslaw, and Tracy Hefron added one apiece. Two of the Strikers goals were tallied by Jeff Malak. David Knapp added the third. Geoffrey Spear, Libby Davies and Chris Williams highlighted the Sting defense while Marcia Garcia played an outstanding day at half-back for the Strikers.

A total team effort by the Sockers ousted the Rowdies 6-2. Rob Jemio began the Sockers scoring off a pass from Liz Cave then Alison Cave made it 2-0 when she connected on a pass from Eric McDonough. Liz Cave scored an unassisted goal to finish the first half scoring. Jemio began it again in the second half off a pass from Sean Reynolds who then went on to score two goals of his own. Rob Beretski scored both Rowdies goals. Nancy Kingsbury and Randy Showlin led the Sockers defense.

Two of the division leaders, the Chargers and the Stallions, battled to a 1-1 tie with a goal in the second quarter. Chris Boraski scored in the last minutes of the game to tie it at 1-1. Chargers goalie A.J. Cecconi and Steven McCafferty were outstanding in their positions while Scott Cox played a very tough game in the Stallions goal.

The other division leader, the Kicks, triumphed over the Roughnecks in a close game. Jason Matthey scored two for the Kicks to give them an early lead but the Roughnecks came back in the second half when Chris Ryan scored off a pass by Tom Adams and Adams scored on an assist from Brian Miller.
