The workshops will deal with emergencies that could seriously affect the water system, methods of providing alternative water supplies, who should be contacted in an emergency, the importance of detailed drawings of a water distribution system, and methods of protection for a water system and planning for emergency response.

For further information, water supply companies should contact the Community Environmental Control district offices in Wilkes-Barre, 717-826-2532; Scranton, 717-963-4521; Stroudsburg, 717-424-3006; and Pottsville, 717-628-4970.

Programs

A PENN STATE/WILKES-BARRE FACULTY MEMBER who serves as chairman of the Telecommunication Technology program of The Pennsylvania State University, will be in Denver next week to lead one facet of a telecommunication industry conference.

Harold A. Groff, who teaches telecommunications technology at the campus in Lehman, will conduct a workshop at the conference of the National Telecommunication Education Committee which is part of the Human Resources Council of the North American Telephone Association.

David G. Rice, director of academic affairs at Penn State-Wilkes-Barre will attend the conference as will John Kolesar, associate dean, College of Engineering, The Pennsylvania State University and Edward tomeszko, vice president for technology, The Pennsylvania State University.

A PRAYER SERVICE was held at noon Tuesday, Oct. 1 in Unity Church of Christ, Gus Genetti's, 77 E. Market St., Wilkes-Barre.

The Course in Miracles groups meet at 9:30 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. Wednesdays. For information call the Rev. Jean Grace Addison at 822-2230.

The Rev. Addison will present the message, "Yes I Can" at the 11 a.m. service Sunday, Oct. 6. A prayer service will be held at 10:30 a.m. Sundays.

The Rev. Addison and Russell Douglas Addison will conduct a seminar "How to be More Prosperous" from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 5. A love offering will be taken.

Beginning Oct. 21, the Rev. Addison will begin a new class, "The Double Win" at 10:30 a.m. Mondays.

PENN STATE/WILKES-BARRE CAMPUS is again inviting persons interested in astronomy to join Dr.

Tom Winter, associate professor of physics, in taking out a Celestron telescope to view and to photograph the moon, the planets, galaxies, star clusters and nebulae. Later in the year Halley's Comet will be tracked.

Interested persons should assemble on clear Monday and Tuesday nights throughout the fall and spring semesters at 7:30 p.m. in the Science Center, Room 111. There is no fee.

For information or confirmation of weather conditions, please call Dr. Winter at 675-9278 or Marjorie Zikor at 675-9243. After 5 p.m. call Dr. Winter at 675-2039.

THE WYOMING VALLEY CHAPTER of The Stepfamily Association of America invites the public to attend their October program entitled "Love Makes The World Go Round" presented by Maureen McCann, RSM.

Sr. Maureen McCann is currently the Director of the Mercy Consultation Center, Dallas, where she is involved in counseling, group therapy and spiritual direction. The winner of the 1979 Significant Achievement Award from the American Psychiatric Association, she has given over 300 workshops throughout the United States in the area of personal integration.

The program will take place on Monday, Oct. 7 at 7:30 p.m. at the Family Practice Center, 540 Pierce Street, Kingston. All are welcome to attend.

Contact Marsha Howes, Chapter President (675-2290) for further information.

LUZERNE COUNTY COMMUNITY COLLEGE will sponsor a 5 week program, "The Principles of One-Minute Management," designed to provide executives, managers, supervisors, and management trainees with the skills necessary to diagnose changing business and personnel situations, and develop appropriate objectives and strategy.

The series of breakfast seminars will be conducted every Friday morning from 7:30 to 9:30 a.m., beginning Oct. 18 and continuing through Nov. 15, in the Educational Conference Center on the college's main campus in Nanticoke.

The deadline to register for the upcoming breakfast seminars is Oct. 4. For more information or to register contact the Office of Continuing Education at Luzerne County Community College at 829-7481.

Meetings

WILKES-BARRE GENERAL HOSPITAL'S AUXILIARY will hold its annual meeting during a salad luncheon on Monday, Oct. 7, at 1:30 p.m. in the hospital dining room. New members are welcome to attend.

The Auxiliary's membership comprises over 400 women and men whose aim is to raise funds to support many Auxiliary-sponsored hospital projects.

The latest Auxiliary project was the purchase of hospital beds and patient furniture worth close to $500,000. Mrs. Stanley C. Ushinski of Shavertown is Auxiliary President.

THE HARVEYS LAKE LITTLE LEAGUE ASSOCIATION will hold a meeting on Wednesday, October 2, in the music room of the Lake-Noxen School.

WILKES-BARRE GENERAL HOSPITAL'S CARDIAC SUPPORT GROUP will meet on Wednesday, Oct. 2 at 7 p.m. in the hospital's board room on the main floor. A staff pharmacist will be present to discuss cardiac medications and side effects.

The public is invited. For further information, contact General's Social Services Department, 829-8111, extension 3038.

THE ANTHRACITE JIM BEAM BOTTLE CLUB will meet on Tuesday, Oct. 8, at 7:30 p.m. in Konefel's Restaurant, Main Street, Edwardsville.

In addition to routine business, arrangements for the coming Christmas party will be on the agenda. The usual display of Limited Edition Decanters will be featured.

Visitors are always welcome.

THE BETTER BREATHING CLUB will meet on Friday, Oct. 11, at 2 p.m. at Mercy Hospital's Medical Arts Building, 8 Church St., Wilkes-Barre.

At this meeting a new film on chronic lung disease will be shown. Topics covered by the film are: (1) overview of the breathing process; (2) actual photographs of the respiratory system and (3) the changes and problems caused by emphysema, asthma and chronic bronchitis.

The Better Breathing Club is for persons with chronic lung disease such as asthma, emphysema, chronic bronchitis or black lung disease and their family members. If interested in attending, please call the Mercy Hospital Wellness Center at 826-3553.

THE REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING of the Lake-Lehman Board of School Directors will be held on Tuesday, Oct. 8 at 8 p.m. in the Multi-Purpose Room of the Lake-Noxen Elementary School, Harveys Lake.

Joseph "Red" Jones, President will preside.
