The Mountaineers, however, were outsize by their Wyoming Valley Conference opponents and suffered a defeat at the Warriors stadium.

Lady netters beaten

Dallas girls' volleyball team dropped to 2-8 last Thursday when they bowed 2-0 to Wyoming Area, who upped their record to 5-5. The Warriors Amy Postea had nine points in the first set won 15-11 by the Warriors and Maria Iacina had seven serving points for the Warriors as they took the second set 15-6 at the Warriors gym.

Dallas junior varsity led by freshman Jenny Vloedman's serving defeated the Wyoming jayvee 2-1. The young Warriors took the first set 5-15 but the young Dallas netters came back to take the final sets 15-0, 15-5.

Lake-Lehman girls downed Coughlin 2-0 led by Ashley Ryan's serving and Stephanie Kukosky's four kills. Ryan's 13 serving points led the Knights to a 15-8, 15-11 sweep of the Crusaders.

The win raised the Knights to 6-3, the Crusaders dropped to 4-5.

Earlier in the week, the Knights bowed 2-1 to Wyoming Valley West, who upped its record to 8-0 by winning two sets of 15-6, 15-8 but dropping the opening set 7-15.

Ashley Ryan paced the Lady Knights with 13 serving points but the Spartans Dawn Kendig had 14 kills to lead in the win.

The Knights junior varsity defeated the young Crusaders 10-15, 16-14 and 15-13. Lori Cannon had eight serving points for the young Knights.

The Lake-Lehman junior varsity also defeated the Spartans jayvees 2-1, taking the opening set 15-6, dropping the second set 12-15, but winning the final set 15-9.

Prior to the meet with Pittston both runners had only one loss, each, both of them having lost to Northwest's Dan Pszeniczny, who is undefeated. Warriors

Early in the fourth period, the Warriors used a 10-play, 68 yard drive to set up Birosak's score from the six yard line. Koczka's kick was good and Wyoming took a 34-7 lead.

With the point span too wide for the Mountaineers to overcome, both Coach Ted Jackson and Coach Paul Marranca began substituting their younger players freely and the Warriors' second string Brian Hines scored from the 40 yard line after his teammate intercepted a Lyons pass. Koczka's kick was blocked and the game ended with the Warriors winning 40-7.

The Mountaineers meet GAR at home this Saturday in a game that will go a long way in deciding the Division AA title. GAR has a 3-3 overall record to date and the Mountaineers have a 4-2 overall record. The Grenadiers are 1-1 in Division II, the Mountaineers are 3-0.

"It should be an interesting game," said Coach Jackson. "Both teams are coming off a loss. The Grenadiers have lost their last three games, we have our loss to Wyoming. This game will determine how well our kids can rebound after a big loss like Friday night."

"The Grenadiers have one of the league's best quarterbacks in Jay Kubicki and some excellent receivers. Our advantage is that we are playing them on our field instead of the turf."

After it seemed that neither team could muster an offensive scoring threat early on in the third stanza, the Trojans mounted their second 80-yard scoring drive with just over seven minutes remaining in the quarter.

The seven-play drive culminated when McDermott ran a quarterback keeper on a third and two and upped the Trojan lead to 20-6 with 1:48 remaining in the third period.

Nanticoke's fourth score came when running back Ferraro gathered in a fourth and nine TD pass from McDermitt at the Lehman 11-yardline giving the Trojans an insurmountable 26-6 lead with only nine minutes remaining in the game.

Trojan Head Coach Bill Goodman then inserted a host of underclassmen to finish the game. The last
