GATE OF HEAVEN SCHOOL NEWS

LAST WEEK the third grade class ventured to the Anthracite Museum in McDade Park, Scranton, where they learned about coal mining, Indian artifacts, trains, silk mills, and antique cars. They really enjoyed the trip and had much to say the next few days in their oral reports. Most of them decided they are glad they are living in our hi-tech age.

MOST OF THE SCIENCE CLASSES seem to be taking on the challenge by the Jr. High students to grow different kinds of plant life. This is great, except now, they asked the principal to be sure that next year everyone is on the "sunny side" of the building; so maybe they'll pick straws.

THE FIFTH GRADE CLASSES made models of Indian houses for the Social Studies class. They had to make them out of things they have around the house or in the yard. They all did very well, but, as you know, there can only be so many ribbons awarded. So, first prizes went to David Kasmark, and Amy Freeman; second prize to Jeffrey Malak and Robert Scott; third prize to Tara Bradbury and Stacy Barkac.

A SPECIAL THANKS to Nick Tsiolos who graciously hosted a skating party on October 13, at his Roller Skating Rink in Dallas. He donated the proceeds to the Gate of Heaven cheerleaders fund. We express our sincere gratitude to Mr. Tsiolos.

AS WE KNOW, the Folk Festival is in full swing now in Kingston, and we are happy to announce our winners in this year's contest: Seventh grade; 1st, place, Greg Dietl, Greg Stahovec, Stephen Sennett, Jennifer Harteis, John Lukas, Tom Finarelli. Second place, John Kasmark, Cindy Kuniskas. Third place, Bill Austin, Lori VanEtten, Tony Finarelli, Susan Ryan, I.J. Hosey, Alexandria Lawrence.

6-216 6th Grade, First Place: Brandt Millham, Sara Lukas. Second place, Robert Casterline, Jodi Kuniskas, Paula Sitar. Third place, Eric Williams, Susan Rygel-ski.

6-217, First place, Vicky Dorrance, Josephine Zekas. Second place, Carrie Reid, Christine Stuart. Third place, John Gilgallon, Eric Yazwinsky, Joe Krstan.

SR. ELIZABETH'S SECOND GRADERS had a "junk sculpture" project from their reader's last week. They were very cleverly done. Erica Kleinhans made her whole village of McDonald "throw-aways. MISS TOMETCHKO'S CLASS also developed some "professional" pieces of work and Katie Chimock performed her unique task with egg cartons, milk cartons, dried leaves and an empty film container.

BASKETBALL FEVER is up here at school and Mr. Simon and Mr. Walutes are gearing up for a great season by trying to get the guys in shape. After a long layoff, we might see a few members of the team walking a bit slower down the hall; getting in shape means "loosening up muscles", so out comes the liniment.

THE JUNIOR HIGH EXPERIMENT on plant growth is really progressing - mostly toward the "sunny side." Mrs. Rutkoski's bean plants are "beanless" while Mr. Simon is ready for autumn canning. And Mr. Walutes 8th grade class's experiment is proving that a controlled environment vs. window-sill environment is better. And then we have the hamsters. It's A-MAZE-ing what hamsters who eat krimpets will do!

MRS. ALBERT'S FOURTH GRADE Social Studies class made landforms and were judged for materials used, creativity, and how well the work was done. Billy Appel won first prize; second prize went to Corin Schall, and Daniell Freeman came in third.

THE ECOLOGY DIRECTOR of the Student Council, David Wojciechowski, really spirited the drive for newspapers and aluminum cans to commemorate Ecology Week. Our truck is filling up rapidly and our tins are overflowing. Good work, David, and students. It is a worthy cause.

THE EIGHTH GRADE CLASS, with Mrs. Hiller, Art History teacher, traveled last week to New York to The Cloisters, and to the Metropolitan Museum of Art to culminate their Art History Class. They saw much more than they expected and thoroughly enjoyed the entire trip.

STUDENT OF THE WEEK: Robert Dempsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dempsey of Shavertown. Robert enjoys football, hunting, art, and science and in ranking these, science comes first. After high school Robert would like to join the Air Force and become a pilot.

NMSC honors Dallas students

Dallas Senior High School has been notified by National Merit Scholarship Corporation (NMSC) that Timothy Corcoran and Steven Roskos have been designated as Commended Students in the 1986 Merit Program.

The principal, Dr. Thomas Cypher, announced recently that these seniors will receive a Letter of Commendation in honor of outstanding academic promise, demonstrated by placing in the top five percent of over one million participants in the 31st annual National Merit Scholarship Program.

Timothy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Corcoran of 16 Vine Street, Shavertown, and Steven is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald P. Roskos of 131 Machel Avenue, Dallas.

An officer of NMSC, which administers the program, stated that, "Being named a Commended Student is the extremely competitive Merit Program is a credit to these young men and women and to their schools, which play an important role in the development of academically talented youth. The high test performance of Commended Students is indicative of exceptional scholastic ability, which is essential in a nation that prides itself on cultivating individual excellence. We hope the honor these students have earned will provide motivation for them to use their talents to the fullest and also will serve as an example for other aspiring young citizens."

Participants entered the current Merit Program by taking the PSAT-NMSQT in October, 1984, when most of them were juniors. Although their qualifying test scores are very high, the 35,000 Commended Students nationwide scored slightly below the level required for Semifinalist standing.
