ONE OF DALLAS ANTIQUE DEALERS and shop owners has been invited to participate in an important charity Christmas Antique show and sale in the Clarks Summit area in November.

Diana Getz of Dallas displays a fine jewelry collection second to none. At the Clarks Summit show Diana will be offering antique as well as estate jewelry which will please Christmas and hanukkah shoppers.

Diana has been in the antique business for over 20 years in the Dallas area. In her shop she also carries an assortment of country and formal furnishings and accessories.

Beth Mante along with her husband, Reverend Hal Mante, former of the Kingstons area and now residing in Bethlehem will also be displaying at the antique show.

The show entitled "Christmas in the Abingtons" will be held November 15 from 5-9 p.m. and November 16, from 10 to 5 p.m. at the Clarks Summit United Methodist Church. Proceeds benefit Rotary International.

Diana's friends and clients in the Dallas area will find her display to be as outstanding as ever.

NORTHEAST PA. ADVOCATES OF SPAEROBIC-A-TION will be held during November Mental Retardation Month at Genetti's, Sunday, Nov. 10, from 1 to 3 p.m. Century 21, Health Spa is sponsoring the event. Registration forms can be picked up at N.E.A. - 21 Century Health Spa, and Boscov's.

Free T-shirts will be given to all participants with a two week pass to the 21 Century Health Spa.

Prizes will be awarded to the top three participants with the highest amount of sponsorship.

Sandra Farrell, Chairman said, proceeds will benefit N.E.A. to continue their assistance to advocate for mentally retarded citizens and their family as an entity.

N.E.A. is a non-profit independent advocacy organization for Mentally Retarded Citizens.

MRS. ISADORE ROBINS, reservations chairman, and Mrs. Clifford Bigelow, co-chairman, announce that no further reservations can be accepted for the 17th Annual Starlight Ball.

The ball, sponsored by the Wilkes-Barre General Hospital Auxiliary, is scheduled for Saturday, November 16, at the Woodlawn.

Clinics

NESBITT MEMORIAL HOSPITAL is sponsoring an Arthritis Clinic on Wednesday, Nov. 13, from 11 a.m. to 2 p.m. in the hospital's Medical Arts Building.

Dr. John Carey, a specialist in arthritis and rheumatology, conducts the program which provides arthritis patients with a complete physical examination and treatment plan. The results are forwarded to the patient's physician for consultation input and followup care.

Patients requiring orthopedic or corrective surgery or extensive physical therapy are tested with a multidisciplinary approach known as CORE (Combine Orthopedic and Rheumatologic Evaluation).

Patients, referred by their physician, must make an appointment with the Arthritis Clinic by calling Nesbitt's Outpatient Registration office at 288-1411, extension 4130, Monday through Friday, from 1 to 4 p.m.

WILKES COLLEGE, in cooperation with the Northeastern Chapter of the Pennsylvania Institute of Certified Public Accountants, will present its annual Tax Clinic on Friday, Nov. 22, in the Dorothy Dickson Dart Center for the Performing Arts. The clinic will feature a presentation by James I. Scheiner, Secretary of Revenue for the State of Pennsylvania, on "Pennsylvania Tax Update."

The annual Tax Clinic has been offered by the college and the N.C.P.A. for over 30 years. Accountants, bankers, lawyers and other interested individuals have attended the clinic to keep abreast of changes in the U.S. tax structure. In addition to up-to-date information, participants also receive eight hours of Continuing Professional Education units. Instruction will be given on corporate liquidations, employee fringe benefits, taxation of corporations, President Reagan's tax proposal, and a variety of other topics.

Interested parties are asked to contact the Division of Graduate Studies and Continuing Education at 824-4651, ext. 225 for more information.

Drives

ON THURSDAY, NOV. 7, Wilkes College will sponsor Blood Donation Day from 9:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. in the Wilkes College Gymnasium, 274 South Franklin Street. The Red Cross Bloodmobile will be on campus collecting donations to help meet the urgent need for blood.

Wilkes faculty, staff and students will volunteer their time and donate blood for the event. The public is urged to attend and help Wilkes College meet their goal of 300 units. The Red Cross indicates that blood supplies are seriously low, and meeting the needs of the area is becoming difficult. To find out how you can help solve this problem, contact the Red Cross of Wilkes-Barre and donate during the Wilkes College Blood Donation Day.
