Day

dents, parents and teachers very much in evidence.

Lake-Lehman cheerleaders, winners of the "Collect Cans of Food for the Needy" contest between Dallas and Lake-Lehman, came in a close second to Dallas as they led Lake-Lehman fans in rooting for their Black Knights.

The cheerleaders of the two schools conducted a contest to determine which squad could collect the most cans of food to be given to needy families for Thanksgiving. Lake-Lehman cheerleaders won through the cooperation of the sophomore class, who brought in the most cans.

Both schools held pre-game activities prior to the Old Shoe Game. The Mountaineers held an outdoor pep rally last Friday with junior and senior high school students participating. Lake-Lehman held an "Old Shoe Week" and last Monday they had "Pride Day" when everyone dressed up to attend school. Last Tuesday was "Slave Day" when the players and cheerleaders were sold to the highest bidder and became the bidders' slaves for the day. A contest was held for the player with the loveliest legs and the winner, announced Thursday, was Kevin Gibson. He received a pizza as a prize.

Last Wednesday was "Don't Talk to Players" day. Each student wore a paper football and if he or she talked to a football player, the player took the student's football. The player who collected the most footballs was the winner and won a pizza. Friday was Black and Gold day at Lake-Lehman and Friday night, there was a huge bonfire sponsored by the Lake-Lehman Boosters Club.

The game was postponed on Saturday because of the cold, wet weather but the postponement did not dampen the enthusiasm of the players nor the fans. That was evident in the number of parents who were there, parents who had to do a lot of re-arranging work schedules to get to the game on a Monday afternoon.

Bright and clear as it was overhead, it was just as wet and muddy on the field. The white football pants of the players of both teams, when the game started, soon resembled those worn by the Nittany Lions in last Saturday's game. Neither team appeared to mind, however, as both the Knights and the Mountaineers played great defense.

Loud as the cheering was on both sides of the field, Dallas fans had more to cheer about. Twice in the first period, they rose to their feet as Quarterback Scott Francis passed his Mountaineers to the Knights goal line but both times the Knights defense held and Dallas turned over the ball.

Dallas fans had opportunity to cheer through most of the game since the Mountaineer offense moved the ball more than the Knights but both teams are to be commended because they came to play their best and they did.

It was a beautiful day for football, but more so for Dallas fans than Lake-Lehman because Dallas won and will retain possession of the Old Shoe. The festivities were great, the fans were psyched, the refreshment stands were crowded with patrons hungry for hot dogs, pizza, coke or coffee.

It was a great football game! Congratulations to the Mountaineers and the Knights, Monday - rivals; the rest of the year - friends!

College career begins

Cheryl Gavigan, a June graduate of Dallas Area High School, makes her basketball debut in the college ranks Friday at 8 p.m. as a member of the King's College team in exhibition against the Alumni.

A freshman accounting major, Gavigan starred as a top scorer and rebounder with the Mountaineers. The 5'11" center is expected to see considerable action for Coach Robin Cummins as a yearling.

Friday's game will be a special benefit sponsored by King's Red and Gold Booster Club to benefit the St. Vincent dePaul soup kitchen of Wilkes-Barre. Persons attending the King's opener will be asked to make a donation of cash or food to the kitchen as they enter Scandlon Gym.

Cheryl will not be homesick in the game as a number of Back Mt. neighbors are expected to view the game. Coach Cummins resides in Kunkle and Assistant Coach Arlene Kozich lives in Dallas. Both are former Dallas HS athletes.

From Sweet Valley, the Lady Monarchs will be represented by Ronda Hudzik. Ellen Joyce and Kathy Walsh are both residents of Dallas.

"We would like to see many Dallas fans come out to encourage Cheryl as she plays in the benefit game on Friday," said Cummins.

"We are playing the game for a good cause, to feed the hungry and destitute of the area, and our players are all excited about the idea."

CHERYL GAVIGAN

Soup kitchen officials have expressed their gratitude to the Booster Club and to the collegians for helping focus on their need for food contributions, especially as the holiday season draws near.

National golf championship set

King's College and Fox Hill Country Club in nearby Exeter will host the Division III National Collegiate Athletic Association golf championships in 1986.

The event, set for May 18-23, 1986, will mark the first time the 72-hole tourney has been held in Pennsylvania. King's golf mentor Tom Davis and Fox Hill president Ted Merli announced the tournament selection at a press conference in King's Scandlon Gymnasium on Tuesday.

Davis, who has coached King's linksmen for 14 years, said the tourney will feature 120 of the finest golfers in the country playing for team and individual honors. Golfers in the tournament will be the winners of various NCAA athletic conferences or will receive at-large bids and will tee off daily from 8 a.m. to 1:15 p.m.

Davis said the NCAA tournament is held annually at selected member Division III schools which vie for the event and demonstrate that community support can be generated to conduct the competition.

Merli said Fox Hill was selected as the site because it meets NCAA requirements for championship caliber play and because it can meet banquet and other requirements for participants and spectators.
