

Sports

Oh, deer — it's that time of year again!

Dallas Post/Ed Campbell

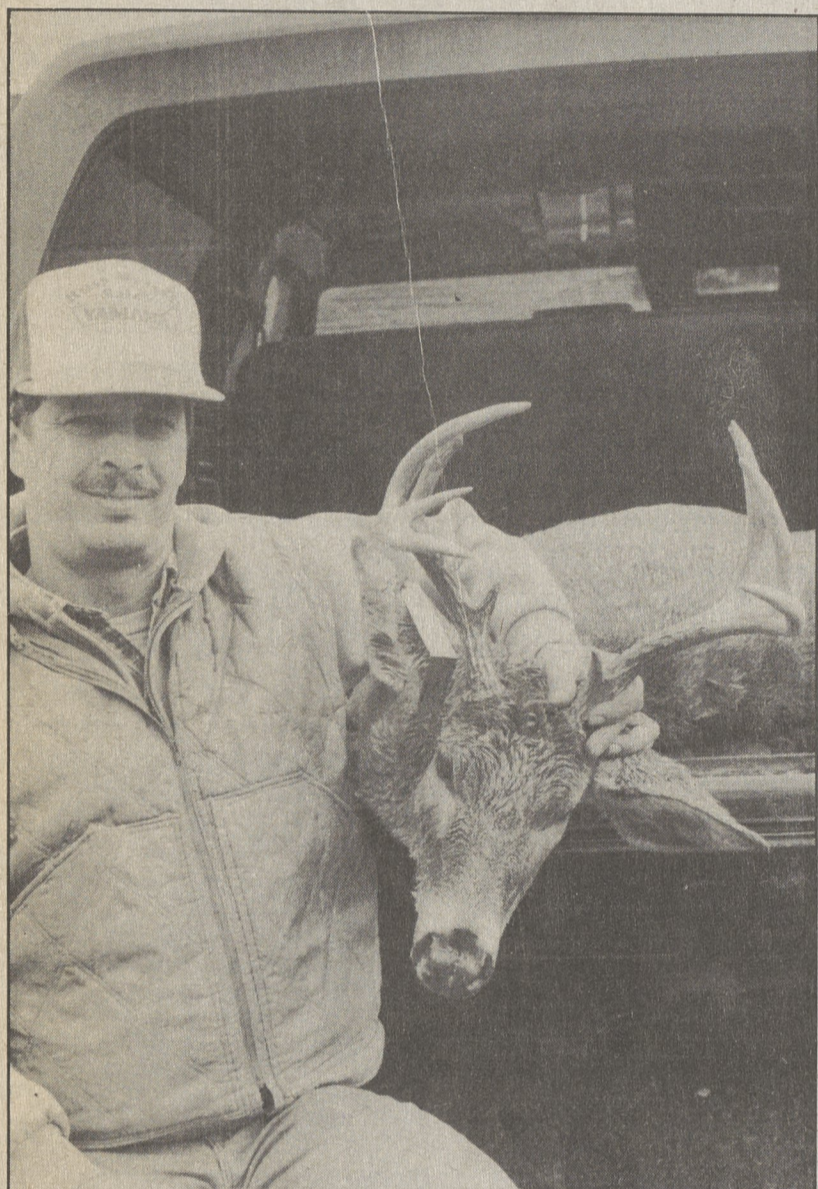

Dallas Post/Ed Campbell

All in the family

Frank Roginski, right, of Oak Street, Trucksville, and his daughter, Patricia, are shown here with a 5-point, 110 pound deer Frank bagged in Mooretown. Frank has been hunting for 36 years.

Like father, like son

Ron Ostrowski, left, of Oak Drive, Kingston, and his son, Joe, both bagged deer on opening day. Ron got a 6-pointer while Joe, a sophomore football player at Fairleigh Dickinson University in New Jersey, bagged a 4-pointer.

Dallas Post/Fred Gunn

Lone hunter

William Gordon of RD 2 Dallas, Pikes Creek, was hunting alone in Mooretown when he shot his prize at 8:30 a.m. Gordon is a hunter of 27 years.

Dallas Post/Earl Weidner

Brothers get one

Jeremy Gordon, left, and Tom Gordon, right, of RD 2, Dallas, stand proudly with the 12-point buck 12-year-old Tom shot at 7 a.m. on Opening Day. This was the boys' first year hunting and their were accompanied by their father.

Dallas Post/Earl Weidner

Tex gets his

Tex Wilson, of RD 1, Dallas, a member of the Dallas School Board, shot a 4-point, 130 pound deer in East Dallas. Tex has been hunting for 41 years and was hunting with Roy Stair on Monday.

Dallas Post/Ed Campbell

An 8-pointer

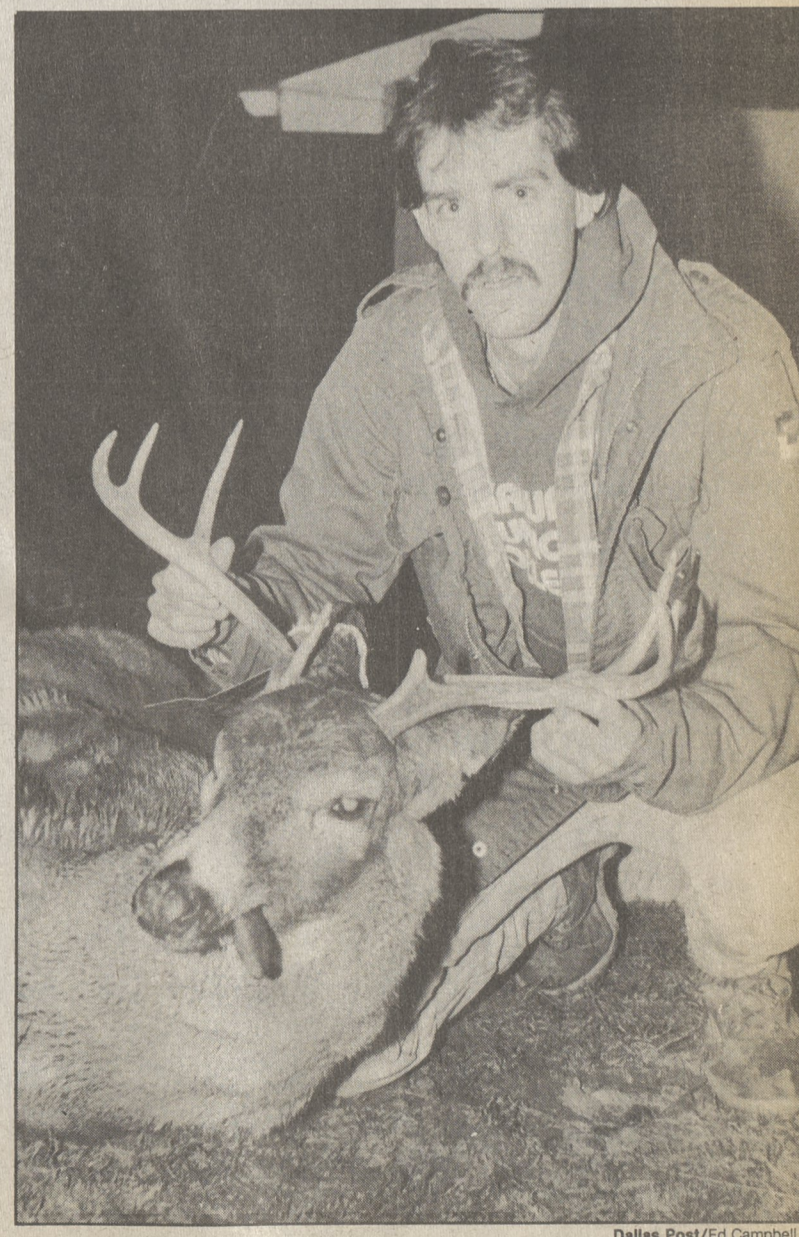

Jeff Hadsel of Rd 1 Dallas has been hunting for 10 years. He is shown here with an 8-point, 110 pound deer he bagged in Meshoppen on Opening Day.

Dallas Post/Ed Campbell

Shawn gets his

Shawn Murphy, of Box 99, Noxen, is shown here with a 9-point, 130 pound deer he brought down in Noxen. Shawn has been hunting for 10 years and bagged his prize at 7:35 a.m. on Opening Day.

Dallas Post/Ed Campbell

An 8-pointer

Jeff Hadsel of Rd 1 Dallas has been hunting for 10 years. He is shown here with an 8-point, 110 pound deer he bagged in Meshoppen on Opening Day.