Course available

Farm Management written by a Pennsylvania farm management specialist for the nonfarmer, the novice, or as a review for the established farmer is available now from Penn State.

This eight-lesson course gives options for the use of farm resources-land, labor, capital and management. It discusses the bases for choosing enterprises for a particular farm, explains enterprise budgets and marginal analyses and details farm recordkeeping.

To obtain a copy of the course, send $7.50, which includes postage and handling, to FARM MANAGEMENT, Box 5000, University Park, PA 16802. Make check payable to Penn State.

Trip planned

A dream come true! The students pictured above are busy preparing themselves for their study tour to Europe. This trip is called Europe with an Alpine Flavor and is led by Arno Miller in cooperation with E.F. Institute for Cultural Exchange. It is a 15 day program departing in July and visiting England, France, Switzerland, Austria and Germany. The study tour program includes a full itinerary of sightseeing trips, excursions and a host of other exciting activities. Parents and students interested in further information about the trip can contact Arno Miller by calling 675-3243 or 675-5201. Students who are pictured are, from left, Steve Brace, Jamie Opalicki, Mr. Miller, A.J. Crahall, Ed Raver and seated Tracy Richardson. Missing from the picture are Chris Chapple and Shauna Griffen.

Expo held

Wilkes College held its annual Science Expo at the campus recently. The day-long event provided high school students with an opportunity to witness many of the research projects and academic programs offered by various science departments at the college. The focus of this year's Expo was a two-part lecture-presentation entitled "Science and the Media: Bridging the Information Gap." Shown here, Lake-Lehman high school students view high resolution computer graphics created in the Wilkes College Department of Mathematics and Computer Science. From left, are Mike Bigus, Dr. John Simmons, Wilkes College professor; Jim Klamovich.

APRIL YATSKO

FIRST GRADE: in the first grade, besides getting ready for the Christmas play about Santa trading elves for robots, Sister Alice Ann's class, 1-212, is making puppets which will be on display on their bulletin board this week.

Sr. Catherina's class participated in a spelling bee Friday. Sister is very confident about them and claims much progress is being made in her room.

SECOND GRADE: The second graders, Room 2-202, Sr. Elizabeth's class, won the sale of wreaths and poinsettia contest, along with Room 6-216, Mr. Simon's class. They will both enjoy a pizza party in the very near future.

The second graders are also revving up for their robotic play which will be held on Wednesday, Dec. 18, at 7:30 p.m. in the gym.

THIRD & FOURTH GRADE: The third and fourth graders are also gearing up for their Christmas play, "No Vacancy." This year, the chorus will be dressed as "travelers". It promises to be a great performance.

FIFTH GRADE: Chrissy Elechko won the price for the most sales of poinsettias and wreaths. This was a musical Christmas bear. Congratulations, Chrissy.

SIXTH GRADE: Room 6-216, Mr. Simon's class, will also enjoy a pizza lunch, hosted by the PTG, for their good work in the wreath and poinsettia sale. Congratulations.

Mr. Don Walutes, 6-217, won the Hand-crafted telephone book cover for his sales of Poinsettias.

SEVENTH & EIGHTH GRADE: Students of the 7th and 8th grade class wish to thank all those who helped make their jewelry sale a success. They did well on it. Proceeds go toward class trips.

ON BEHALF OF Father Cusick, Father Langan, Sr. Davida, faculty, staff and students, we thank the PTG for their fine efforts and energies they have shown on their first-ever Holiday Fair. Proceeds from this project goes toward the school expenses. Besides its being a financial success, it was a lot of fun, too.

WE WANT TO REMIND YOU

also of the chances still available on the Gourmet Basket and lovely prizes. This basket and prizes will be chanced off the night of the school Christmas play, Dec. 18 in the gym.

WE WOULD LIKE TO THANK Stephen Greger, President, Student Council, and the other members of the council, for the food and soap collection for the Little Sisters of the Poor annual collection for their nursing home in Scranton. The Sisters were very grateful for the splendid collection.

IN THE BASKETBALL-CHEERLEADER ACTION: The Gators Varsity Basketball and cheerleaders both won first-place trophies in the Knights of Columbus Tournament held at Gate of Heaven during the Thanksgiving weekend.

In the Knights of Columbus Tournament at Bishop O'Reilly last week, the Gator Varsity basketball team lost to St. Nick's-St. Mary's. We have a chance to beat them Monday night, the 9th and we have the advantage of the home court.

STUDENT OF THE WEEK: Jack Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Jones of Shavertown, is a member of the Student Council, an altar boy for Gate of Heaven Church and a member of the varsity basketball team. He enjoys sports and is a great fisherman. He is undecided about his high school choice, but would like to attend N.C. State and eventually become a doctor.
