State Job Service begins OJT program

Ronald Faust of the Governor's Veterans Outreach and Assistance Center has announced that the Pennsylvania Job Service has placed into operation an On the Job Training (OJT) Program for disabled veterans which provides financial incentives to employers to help disabled veterans secure training and permanent employment.

The Program, funded through Title IVC of the Job Training Partnership Act, provides a reimbursement of up to 50 percent of the disabled veteran's wages, plus an additional $500 for work site adaptations to make the place of employment and training accessible for service connected disabled veterans hired through the program.

Any veteran with a service connected disability rate at 10 percent or more will be eligible for the program. Disabled veterans must register through Job Service. For information contact the Governor's Veterans Outreach and Assistance Center, 45 W. Market Street, Hotel Sterling, Wilkes-Barre, phone 825-7343 or toll-free 1-800-432-9735; or any Job Service office.
