Check donated The Meadows Nursing Center Auxiliary, Dallas, recently presented a check for $112 to the Center to purchase a nebulizer for the treatment of residents with breathing problems. In accepting the check, the administrator of the Meadows Nursing Center, Tom Sweeney, expressed his appreciation to the Auxiliary for their continuing efforts to add to the quality of life of the residents. The Auxiliary, in addition to providing funds for projects and equipment at the center, volunteer many hours working in a variety of capacities, host special activities and join in a unique fellowship with the residents, staff and other auxiliary members. Membership is open to anyone interested in helping others. Call the volunteer office at 675-8600 if you would like information on this worthwhile activity. Shown in the picture from left are Bernice Hill, Auxiliary Treasurer; Dianne Corby, Auxiliary President; Tom Sweeney, Administrator of the Meadows Nursing Center; and Diane McAndrew, R.N. Staff
