Holiday party held

The home of Dr. and Mrs. Wallace F. Stettler at Wyoming Seminary was the setting for a pre-Christmas open house recently for trustees, faculty members of the Upper and Lower School, students and friends. More than 200 guests enjoyed the homelike Christmas atmosphere portrayed by burning candles, holiday greens, a beautifully decorated Christmas tree and golden lights throughout the house. The guests were served refreshments of delicate holiday breads, assorted cookies, pastry, coffee, tea and punch. In the photo trustee, faculty representatives and spouses are shown. From left, first row, Mrs. Richard Pearsall, Dallas; Mrs. Marvin Antinnes, Kingston; Mrs. Wallace F. Stettler, Kingston; and Mrs. John Moore, Dallas, Faculty, Lower School. Second row, Mr. Richard L. Pearsall, chairman, Board of Trustees; Mr. Marvin Antinnes, athletic director, Upper School; Dr. Wallace F. Stettler, President, Wyoming Seminary; and Mr. John Moore, Dallas.

CHRISTMAS DAY has come and gone for 1985. This week those of us who have time off are enjoying a nice vacation, while the children are having lots of fun with the toys Santa brought them. This is also a week for holiday get-togethers with many people visiting friends and relatives to wish them season's greetings.

LITTLE STEPHANIE PINENO is doing a great job helping her grandpa Gil Tough with commercials for Blue Cross. Stephanie is the daughter of Jon and Linda Pineno of Lehman.

KINGSBURY

THE CENTURY CLUB of King's College held its annual Christmas party recently at the college. Executive board members from the Back Mountain enjoying the festive evening included Dennis and Nancy Garvey, and Shirley and Jim Regan of Dallas.

MR. AND MRS. RALPH F. WAGNER, Harveys Lake, announce the engagement of their daughter Rhea Marie to Edward Patrick Everett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Everett, Mocanaqua.

Miss Wagner is the granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Joseph J. Balchun, Wilkes-Barre.

Miss Wagner is a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School and is attending Luzerne County Community College where she is majoring in Secretarial Science and Word Processing. She will graduate in May, 1986 with an Associate's Degree in Secretarial Science Technology.

Mr. Everett is a graduate of Greater Nanticoke Area High School and is attending the University of Kentucky, Lexington, where he is majoring in mathematics. He will also graduate in May, 1986 with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Mathematics.

The couple will be married in Our Lady of Victory Church, Harveys Lake, June 21, 1986.

A FEW WEEKS BEFORE CHRISTMAS while visiting my daughter, Nancy, who was a patient at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, I ran into Miss Jessica Thomas, one of my former teachers from Lake-Lehman High School. I can honestly say that she was by far one of the finest teachers that I ever had, and I know that my love of reading stems from her fine teaching abilities.

ties. It was a pleasure seeing her again.

THERE IS A TREMENDOUS PUSH on this year through the media to avoid drinking and driving. Drinking slows down reflexes, and with the nasty weather we have been experiencing, it just isn't a good idea to drive after a few drinks. On New Year's Eve, when lots of people will be taking a drink, try to make some prior arrangements to have a non-drinker drive or hire a taxi to take you home. In this way you can party as much as you wish, and not even have to think about the drive home.

TO ALL MY READERS, best wishes for a wonderful year filled with the best of everything, good health, peace and prosperity, Happy New Year!

NEW YEAR'S EVE GLAMOUR

Here are some tips that are guaranteed to make you shine in any spotlight. Remember you want to look as far away from "everyday" as possible. Different, striking, and chic, is the look you want.

BLACK — Nothing is more dramatic than black. Silk, lace, chiffon are particularly striking.

BARE SHOULDERS — An outfit, preferably in black, that leaves your shoulders bare is classy.

JEWELRY — Pile on costume jewelry for a wild appearance with pizzazz.

GLOVES — Short or long cotton or lace gloves add excitement.

ELABORATE MAKEUP — You can't look glamorous if you skip on cosmetics. Go heavy on eye shadows, and glasses. Add a dark lipstick to make the mouth stand out. Red looks terrific. HAVE A HAPPY NEW YEAR.
