Wednesday/ Jan. 8

DUE TO RENOVATIONS, Irem Temple Country Club will not be available to Back Mountain Kiwanis Club for meetings during January. Arrangements are being made with the Dallas Kiwanis for both clubs to meet at the Clam Claw on Memorial Highway, Dallas, on Wednesday evenings, January 8, 15, and 22.

Seafood dinners will be served at 6:30 p.m. The January 22 meeting is being designated as "Wives Night" and an appropriate speaker will be engaged.

THE REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING of the Wyoming Valley Camera Club will be held Wednesday, Jan. 8 at 7:30 p.m. The club meets on the 2nd floor of Nesbitt Hall, on the campus of Wyoming Seminary, West Market St., Kingston.

NESBITT MEMORIAL HOSPITAL'S CARDIAC REHABILITATION CLUB will meet on Wednesday, Jan. 8 at 7 p.m. in the classroom of the Medical Arts Building, 534 Wyoming Ave., Kingston.

Cardiologist Dr. Daniel Silverstein will present a program on cardiac catheterization. A slice presentation of actual catheterizations will be shown and discussed.

Club meetings are open to all area cardiac patients and their families free of charge and are held the second Wednesday of each month. The programs provide an informal atmosphere where cardiac patients can discuss common concerns.

A walking session will also be offered for interested members prior to the Wednesday meeting at 6:15 p.m. in the Medical Arts Building Auditorium. Low calorie, low cholesterol refreshments will be served following the presentation. For more information, contact the Cardiac Rehabilitation Program a 288-1411 extension 4773.

Thursday/ Jan. 9

THE NORTHEASTERN PA. VOLUNTEER FIREMEN'S FEDERATION will meet on Thursday, Jan. 9 at 8 p.m. in the Grattan Singer Hose Co., Simpson, John Long, president, will preside. All delegates are asked to attend this meeting.

WOLF-TV 38, Scranton-Wilkes-Barre and WWLF-TV 56, Hazleton, will focus public attention on alcoholism, a disease afflicting some 10 million Americans, during an evening of special programming on Thursday, Jan. 9.

The programming will begin at 8 p.m. with Studio 38's feature movie presentation, "The Boy Who Drank Too Much," starring "Happy Days" Scott Baio as a teenage alcoholic whose problems mirror those of his father, played by Don Murray. Jerrold Freedman directed this sensitive and dramatic treatment of the alarming epidemic of problem drinking among the nation's teens. "The Boy Who Drank Too Much" will be followed at 10 p.m. by "The National Alcoholism Test," sponsored as a public service by Marworth, a Geisinger affiliate and treatment center for alcoholism in Waverly, Pa. This thought-provoking half hour, narrated by Patrick O'Neal, is designed to reveal the signs and symptoms of alcoholism, which is the direct or indirect cause of some 95,000 deaths annually across the country.

A cross-section of recovering alcoholics - from celebrities to housewives and students - take the test along with the viewer, and share their personal experiences and perspectives as alcoholics.

WOLF and WWLF will conclude the evening at 10:30 with a special half-hour panel discussion originating in the Scranton studio and moderated by Tom Powell. The panelists are Dr. Robert Krauss, Medical Director at Marworth; Trooper Chester Kulewicz, Pa. State Police, Dunmore Barracks; and Mike Ruddy of the Lackawanna County Tavern Owners Association. The discussion will deal with alcohol abuse in the region, and with the local help that is available to those who either are or have the potential to become alcoholics.

Anyone wishing further information on "The Boy Who Drank Too Much," or the panel discussion, is invited to call WOLF-WWLF at the studios in Scranton, telephone 347-9653.

JACOB KOLFF, M.D., professor of surgery and head of thoracic and cardiovascular surgery, Temple University School of Medicine, Philadelphia, will present a lecture on the "Current Status of Coronary Bypass" at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital. The program will be held on Thursday, January 9, at 11 a.m. in the classroom of the Medical Arts Building, 534 Wyoming Ave., Kingston.

Well known in the field of cardiovascular surgery, Dr. Kolff also serves as adjunct associate professor of surgery at the University of Utah, Salt Lake City, Utah. From 1974 to 1976, Dr. Kolff was principal investigator for total artificial heart experiments at the University of Utah during his tenure as research assistant professor of surgery, division of artificial organs.

Dr. Kolff earned his medical degree from Western Reserve University, Cleveland, Ohio, and completed graduated training at the University of Colorado, the Cleveland Clinic and the University of Chicago, Department of Surgery. He is a member of the Council of the American Federation for Clinical Research, Association of Academic Surgery, the College of Physicians of Philadelphia and the American Society for Artificial Internal Organs.

VETERANS OF THE VIETNAM WAR, Post 2, will meet Thursday, Jan. 9, at 8 p.m. at the Coral Lounge, 245 Owen St., Swyersville. A film will be shown and refreshments served.

A directory of the names on the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington, D.C. is available for references at the meetings. The Veterans of the Vietnam War, Inc. is a full service organization open to all veterans.

THE DALLAS ROTARY CLUB will hold its meetings on Thursday, January 9, and Thursday, January 16, at the Crab Claw, Memorial Highway, Dallas.

Meetings will resume at the Irem Temple Country Club on January 23.

Friday/ Jan. 10

A COMMERCE CLUB LUNCHEON, a membership program of the Greater Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Commerce, will be held at 12 noon on January 10. The luncheon will be held at Genetti's Best Western located at 77 E. Market Street in Wilkes-Barre.

This month's guest speaker for the Commerce Club is Dr. Mickey D. Levy, Senior Vice President and Chief Economist at Fidelity Bank, N.A.

Dr. Levy is a member of the prestigious Shadow Open Market Committee. He serves as an economic advisor to the Congressional Budget Office and is on the Economic Advisory Committee to the American Bankers Association. At Fidelity, he serves on the asset-liability and the investment policy committees.

Prior to joining Fidelity, Dr. Levy spent 10 years as an economic researcher in Washington, D.C. at the Congressional Budget Office and the American Enterprise Institute.

He is the author of several books and numerous articles in academic journals on monetary and fiscal policy, financial market conditions, tax, social security, and pension policies. Much of this recent research has been concerned with the interaction between fiscal and monetary policy.

Commerce Club is chaired by Richard Allan of Allan Industries. The cost of the luncheon is $8.00 for members and $10.00 for nonmembers. For reservations, call Tilly Kalish at the Chamber at 823-2101.

Monday/ Jan. 13

THE KINGSTON TOWNSHIP ROAD DEPARTMENT will be scheduling the pick-up of Christmas Trees during the week of January 13. Collections will be made Monday through Friday from 7:30 a.m. to 3 p.m., weather permitting.

Residents are advised to place their Christmas trees, free of stands, at the curbline. Road Superintendent Robert Chamberlain further advises residents that snow removal work will take priority over the tree pick up schedule.

THE MONTHLY MEMBERSHIP MEETING of the Luzerne County Chapter 3836 of the American Association of Retired Persons, Inc. will be Monday, Jan. 13, 1 p.m. at Pomeroy's Community Room, Wyoming Valley Mall. The officers and committee chairpersons will meet Friday, Jan. 10 at noon at the Silver Queen Hotel.

The guest speaker for the membership meeting will be Rev. Jule Ayers, D.D. Pastor Emeritus, First Presbyterian Church, Wilkes-Barre.

Membership applications will be available. Walter George, committee chairman on Legislation in the local chapter will report on Legislative News.

THE MEADOWS NURSING CENTER AUXILIARY will meet at the center in Dallas on January 13, at 2:30 p.m. in the second floor diningroom. The public is invited to attend.

THE MUSIC BOX DINNER PLAYHOUSE announces auditions for the opening play of its 1986 season. "Mame", the fabulous musical that made Angela Lansbury a household name, will springboard the playhouse into its 6th year.

Kevin D. Costley will take up the tasks of Director and Choreographer for the first time since returning to the Music Box staff. Kelly Bishop, playhouse manager, is Musical Director.

All roles in "Mame" are open to audition. A cast of six women, seven men and a singing and dancing chorus of eight (4 men and 4 women) will be chosen. There is also one child's role for a boy (approximately age 10). Auditions will be held at the Music Box on January 13 and 14 from 7 to 10.

Auditionees need to prepare one song to show singing ability and vocal range. An accompanist will be provided. Those interested in speaking roles will be asked to read from the script and a short dance audition will also be given. Audition appointments will be given by calling the Music Box at 283-2195. Appointments are not required but are requested to assist the directors. An audition package including character descriptions of all speaking roles can be obtained upon request.

Production dates for "Mame" are Feb. 14-16, 20-23, 27-March 3, and March 6-9. Rehearsals will begin January 15, however specific dates and times vary according to the role.

The Music Box encourages everyone interested in musical theatre to audition. "Mame" is a delightful show, and look what it did for Angela Lansbury.

Tuesday/ Jan. 14

THE REGULAR MONTHLY MEETING of the Lake-Lehman Board of School Directors will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 14, at 8 p.m. in the library of the Lehman-Jackson Elementary School, Lehman.

COMPLETE OBSTETRICAL SERVICES are currently being offered to area residents as part of Nesbitt Memorial Hospital's Mother-To-Be Program conducted each Tuesday at 4 p.m. at the Wyoming Valley Family Practice Center, 540 Pierce Street, Kingston.

The program is designed to provide health care for both mother and baby regardless of one's ability to pay. For patients without adequate insurance coverage, a comprehensive fee covers regular physician directed care, complete obstetrical services and all other hospital related care.

All necessary testing is completed at the hospital and may include blood work and ultrasound procedures. Couples also participate in Nesbitt Hospital's free prenatal education program. The eight-week course furnishes important information on natural childbirth techniques and care of the newborn.

Anyone interested in the Mother-To-Be Service at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital can contact the hospital's Obstetrics Department at 288-8959 for more information.

THE ANTHRACITE JIM BEAM BOTTLE CLUB recently presented the annual donation to charitable organizations to the St. Vincent DePaul Kitchen. Each year a worthy organization is selected to be the recipient of the club's award.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday, Jan. 14 at 7:30 p.m. in Konefal's Restaurant, Main Street, Edwardsville. Visitors are welcome.

Next week

MERCY HOSPITAL, Wilkes-Barre, will sponsor a program entitled "Epilepsy" on Wednesday, January 15, at 7 p.m. as part of its monthly Community Health Education Series. The speaker will be Yu-Song Kao, M.D. The program will be held at Pomeroy's Community Room (2nd floor) Wyoming Valley Mall.

In addition to an overview of epilepsy, other topics for discussion will be symptoms of epilepsy, diagnosis and treatment, the incidence of epilepsy, and what occurs during an epileptic seizure. A question and answer period will follow.

The program is free to the public, but registration is necessary by calling the Mercy Wellness Center at 826-3553, Monday through Friday, 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

THE GUIDANCE DEPARTMENT of Bishop O'Reilly High School, Kingston, will administer the S.R.A. High School Placement Test to eighth grade students planning to enter the high school in the fall on Saturday, Jan. 18 from 9 a.m. to noon at the school. Test content includes educational ability, reading-language arts and arithmetic.

Parents with questions should contact Sister Francis de Sales, RSM, Director of Guidance for Bishop O'Reilly at 288-1404.

THE VISITATION COMMITTEE of the Greater Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Commerce will be meeting at WBRE-TV at 12 noon on January 15.

The noon event will commence with a tour of its facilities followed by lunch in WBRE's cafeteria.

This will be the first visitation for the Greater Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Commerce for the new year. The Visitation Committee is chaired by Scott Dieterick of Wyoming Valley Insurance Agency in Kingston.

Reservations can be made by calling Tilly Kalish at the Chamber at 823-2101.

WILKES-BARRE GENERAL HOSPITAL'S VOLUNTEER SERVICES DEPARTMENT will hold a babysitting seminar for teens ages 11 through 18 on Wednesday, January 15 from noon to 4 p.m. at the hospital. The class is free-of-charge.

Registration is limited to 25 participants and pre-registrations advised. To register, contact Wilkes-Barre General Hospital's Volunteer Services Department at 829-8111, extension 3029.

A RECORD HOP featuring WILK's Jimmy Coles will be held on Friday, January 17, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. at Gate of Heaven Gym, Machei Ave., Dallas.

Refreshments will be served. Cost is $6 per person and $10 per couple.
