

Officials sworn in

Harveys Lake Borough's swearing-in ceremonies were held at the municipal building on Jan. 6. Elected officials were sworn in by Judge Arthur D. Dalessandro, after each was pinned with a red carnation by committeewoman, Michell'e Boice. Refreshments, prepared by Drury's Deli, compliments of Richard Tattersall, were served following the ceremony. Reorganization

Back Mountain on the move

FREEZING TEMPERATURES have been part of our daily expectations lately. To most of us the cold weather is welcome as long as the snow isn't too deep and stays off the roads entirely.

IT WAS GOOD TO SEE Tracey and Michelle Thomas of Pear Tree Lane, Dallas, home for the holidays. Th girls are the daughters of Peg and Jim Thomas, "The Tomato King".

WAYNE AND SUE SUTTON and family of Virginia were in the Lehman area visiting relatives over the holidays. The young couple are former Lehman-Dallas residents and are now residing in Virginia.

RUSS AND SHIRLEY MAJOR and son Rodney of Russ Majors Cycles in Trucksville enjoyed five days snowmobiling with friends in the Williamsport area over the New Year's holiday. Chances are their snowmobiles had hand warmers, foot warmers, shields and all those convenient accessories since they said it was a great five days and the weather was perfect.

CONGRATULATIONS ARE IN ORDER for Louise Hicks, daughter of Albert and Grayce Hicks, Main Road, Dallas. Louise graduated from Bloomsburg University in December with a degree in Elementary Education. She is now employed at "Playschool" in Dallas. Louise is a 1981 Dallas graduate.

THERE WERE TWO VERY SPECIAL LADIES who celebrated their birthdays last week. The first is my mother, Ann Farver of Sweet Valley. Happy belated birthday, Mom. The second is Mrs. Sindoni, I'll call her Mrs. Sindoni Sr. since there are two Mrs. Sindonis living at Norton Avenue, Dallas. Mrs. Sindoni, who celebrated the birthday is Dr. Sindoni's mother, a former Atlantic City resident, now making her home in Dallas with her son and daughter-in-law. A very happy birthday wish to both these lovely ladies!!

TWO FAMILIES now minding the cold weather more than ever since their return from Florida are Mr. and Mrs. Lou Naugle and daughter of Pikes Creek. The Naugles spent two weeks in Orlando, Florida, a day or two sight seeing and visiting Disneyworld and some time just relaxing.

THE PIEDMONT INN in Sweet Valley, Pikes Creek area will be taking on a new look as it recently changed hands.

IT WAS A THIRD GRANDCHILD for neighbors John and Elly Thompson. It was a second daughter for Marci and Bill Hardwick of Dallas. The Hardwicks welcomed an 8 lb. 7 oz., 21 inch long baby girl, Jacqueline Ann, on December 30th. Waiting to get her home was three year old sister, Jennifer who helps Mom with every move she makes. Congratulations to the happy parents, grandparents and great grandparents. Here to visit their sixth great grandchild were Mr. and Mrs. John Thompson from Philadelphia. Healthy and in their eighties, they drove up, to Dallas with other family members to welcome Jacqueline Ann and all 12 gathered round the dinner table at John and Elly Thompsons on Sunday. Proud grandma Elly reports all three of her grandchildren were born on a Monday and all three names begin

BILL, JANICE AND SON MARK LOPASKY of Chase spent two weeks in Florida also. The Lopaskys were in the Clearwater area and at St. Petersburg where they visited Mark's grandparents. Jan reports that spending time in a condo on the beach is the way to go in December. The tan she's sporting indicates the weather was right on too.

Richie and Joanne Long, very well known business people in the area and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Maransky also local business people are two of the couples who will be managing the restaurant. Both ladies stopped by to buy some cosmetics and invite us out to try their seafood, steaks, or very special chicken. Want to try somewhere different as Joanne would say, "With a touch of class," stop in at Pikes Creek at The Piedmont.

Dr. Hakkarinen selected as fellow

William Hakkarinen, M.D., Dallas, program director of Wyoming Valley Family Practice Residency-United Health and Hospital Services, was recently selected as a post-doctoral fellow, Family Medicine Faculty Development Program, Michigan State University.

DR. WILLIAM HAKKARINEN

The short-term teaching fellowship in family medicine assists physicians' transition to academic medicine by providing them with the skills necessary to become leaders in academic family medicine. At Michigan State, fellows participate in workshops, seminars and teaching activities conducted by nationally recognized medical educators. At their home institutions, fellows design individual teaching, research and administrative projects to be completed with the assistance of project faculty.

A 1970 graduate of the University of Maryland School of Medicine, Dr. Hakkarinen served his family practice internship at the University of Maryland Hospital and his family practice residency at the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center, The Pennsylvania State University. He also served as chief resident, family practice residency, at the Milton S. Hershey Medical Center during 1972-1973.

eastern Pennsylvania, Dr. Hakkarinen currently serves as director of ambulatory services at Wilkes-Barre General Hospital. He is a fellow of the American Academy of Family Physicians, a diplomate of the American Board of Family Practice and a member of the Luzerne County Medical Society, the Pennsylvania Medical Society and the American Medical Association.

A former medical director of the Rural Health Corporation of North-with a "J" and all three are "Just wonderful."

IT WAS NATIONAL RECOGNITION for Diane Bryant, owner-operator of Great Beginnings Fitness Center in Dallas. Diane was awarded certification by the Aerobic and Fitness Association of America for her abilities as an aerobic and fitness instructor. After completing the tests on aerobics and fitness which included such minute details as the heart and the working parts of it, pulse testing, muscle tightening etc. Diane completed the testing with great achievements in her field.

She passed the very difficult program which you are given "green" no prompting just prove your ability and is now a certified instructor of the Aerobic and Fitness Association of America. Congratulations, Diane, maybe your New Year's resolution to "tone up all the bodies in the Back Mountain" won't be so hard to achieve after all.

JOHN AND SHARON RANDOLF and sons of High Point Acres, Dallas, spent a very relaxing holiday touring Florida, making Orlando their main area. Sharon says temperatures in the 60's were very "cool" in Florida.

ALSO THINKING ORLANDO, FLORIDA these days are the Dallas High School cheerleaders. These girls have done an outstanding job this year in competitions locally and have been invited to Orlando for competition.

Music selected
