Speaks to club

James Chester, regional director for D.E.R., recently spoke to the newly formed speech-debate club at Dallas High School. This year's debate topic concerns the quality of water in the U.S. Mr. Chester's remarks gave the four person debate team direction for the research they have been preparing for upcoming speech and debate tournaments. Other students will also compete in these tournaments in dramatic presentation and Lincoln-Douglas debate categories. The speech-debate club is an extension of the gifted program at Dallas High School moderated by Candyce Fike. Shown here, from left, standing are, James Chester, regional director of D.E.R. (Department of Environment Resources). Seated, Rosemary Hometchko, T.J. Griffin, Pamela Ash, Lee Williams, Kristen Palkowski, D.J. Hopkins, Reese Finn.

Nursery school announces vacancies

After the initial registration day there are still a few spaces in the three year old and four year old child development nursery school projects. Children living in the Dallas School District who were three or four years old by January 1, 1986, are eligible to attend the program.

Any parents wishing to have their child participate may enroll the child by stopping at the Senior High School office between 8:30 a.m. and 3:30 p.m. any day before January 23. Further information will be available at registration time.

The nursery school project is under the direction of Mrs. Nancy Goeringer and the children will participate in story hours, craft activities, games, etc.

The three year program runs from 9 a.m. until 11:45 a.m. on Tuesdays and Thursdays and from 9 a.m. until 11:30 on Wednesdays from February 4 to March 20.

The four year old program runs from 9 a.m. until 11:45 a.m. on Tuesdays and some Fridays and from 9 a.m. until 11:30 a.m. on Wednesdays from April 8 to May 22.

Each calendar is based on the regular school calendar. Transportation is the responsibility of the family.

SPCA food drive ends

The Dallas Junior High School Student Council recently completed its annual Christmas S.P.C.A. Food Drive. During the two week period before Christmas, students donated canned and dry dog and cat food, towels, blankets and money for the homeless animals. Student Council representatives totaled the contributions and prepared them for pick-up by the S.P.C.A. van. Once again this year, the drive was successful, resulting in contributions of $180.00, and over 12 boxes of food and blankets for the animals. The Student Council conducts numerous activities during the year which benefit the school, as well as local organizations such as the S.P.C.A. and local families in need. Officers of the Student Council are Kim Chapple, President; Julianne Orlowski, Corresponding Secretary; and Karyn Klick, Recording Secretary. The advisor of the Dallas Junior High School Student Council is Miss Norine Amesbury.
