Twin brothers Rocky and Ricky Bonomo, graduates of Lake-Lehman, both won championships for Bloomsburg University in the Pennsylvania Conference wrestling championships two weeks ago at Clarion University. Rocky, who wrestled at 134 pounds, won by default of Clarion's Paul Clark in 38 seconds of their championship bout, and Ricky, wrestling at 126 pounds, took an 8-2 decision over Matt Avery of Lock Haven. The Bonomo twins are students at Bloomsburg.

Rocky Bonomo has been named a tri-captain for the Bloomsburg wrestling team for the rest of the season. Bonomo, junior at Bloomsburg University, will join John Gibas and Darrin Evans as captains for the Huskies, who have an 8-3 record.

Rachel Holthaus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Holthaus, Dallas, earned 27.8 points to aid the Wilkes-Barre Family YMCA Spinners to a 128.9-105.6 season opener win over the Pocono Family YMCA Flipettes, last Saturday at East Stroudsburg University. Rachel earned her points in vaulting, on the uneven bars, the balance beam and the floor exercises. A student at Dallas Junior High School, she also earned an All-Around ribbon in the 14-and-over age category.

Former Dallas high school basketball player Cheryl Gavigan scored 15 points and grabbed eight rebounds to lead King's College to a 72-62 win. Cheryl is a freshman at King's.

Dallas Unico's Sixth Annual Spaghetti Supper to be held Feb. 17 from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m., at Dallas High School, will benefit the Dallas High School cheerleaders. Cost of the supper is $4 for adults and $3 for children. Takeouts are available. Proceeds will be used to help defray the cost of the cheerleaders trip to the national competition in Florida.

Soccer team working toward trip

The Dallas High School Soccer team is tentatively planning a two week tour of Scotland during August, 1986. The Parents Club is sponsoring several fund raising events.

Friday, Feb. 7, from 8 p.m. to 12 p.m. at Penn State Lehman Campus, the club will sponsor a 50's-60's dance with Harry West. Donations are $10 a ticket. Plenty of food, soda, mixers, and beer will be provided as well as costume and door prizes. Contact any member for tickets before the dance - no tickets at the door.

Saturday, April 19, a craft fair is tentatively planned at the Dallas High School.

In June, at Irem Temple Country Club, the Parents Club will have a golf tournament.

Remembering all the support Wyoming Seminary received with their Super China trip, we are hoping the public will support the Dallas team as well.

KNIGHTS LOSE
At the other end of the Back Mountain, Coach Rodger Bearde's Lake-Lehman Knights lost in a close 32-22 game to Northwest.

Both teams played a deliberate offense but the Rangers wore down the Black Knights, whittling a few points in each period to take the win.

In the first period, Northwest took an 8-6 lead and outscored the Knights 6-3 in the second period to hold a 14-9 lead at halftime.

In one of their lowest scoring games of the season, the Rangers doubled their scoring over the Knights taking an 8-4 lead for the third period and an overall 22-13 lead into the final quarter. In the final period the Knights scored the first six points to come within three points of the Rangers 22-19. But the Rangers took over and outscored the Knights to take the 32-22 win.

HOUCK HIGH SCORER
Carl Houck was high scorer for the Knights with eight points. Darryl Sherrick scored 12 for Northwest. His brother, Dave, and Mark LeValley each hit for eight.

In Tuesday's game with Meyers, Knight Jeff Ruzicki connected for two free throws with only nine seconds remaining in the game to give the Black Knights a 50-49 upset over the Mohawks.

His foul points gave the Knights a three-point 50-47 lead over the Mohawks but a two-point toss by Meyers Mark Atherton gave the Knights the one-point win.

Leading by only 25-24 at the half, it was the Knights shooting at the foul line that helped them take the game as they hit nine for 14 in the fourth period. They connected for 18-26 for the game.

Carl Houck scored 19 points for the Knights, nine of them from the field and one-for-two from the foul line. Houck scored 12 of his points in the second half to keep the Knights in the game. Keith Kendall and Chris Landmesser each had eight points for the Black Knights. The Knights were scheduled to play GAR at home, Tuesday night, and Dallas, away, Thursday, Feb. 6. Dallas was to play West Side Tech, away, Tuesday. After Lehman, Feb. 6 they meet Hanover, away, Sat. Feb. 8. Knights meet West Side Tech at hme, Saturday night.

FIRST SIX POINTS

Chris Vincelli took a major 8-0 decision from Brian Orfalano. 185-lb. Dale Williams won by a forfeit to move the Mountaineers score to 55-6 and Hwt. Ron Fabri ended the meet with a 1:37 pin over Tom Charney to put the final score at 55-12.

TO THE WIRE
The Dallas-Hanover meet went down to the wire with the Hawkeyes winning it in the final bout.

Dallas' 185-lb. Chris Vincelli flattened Hanover's John Bleich in 5:59 to give the Mountaineers a 26-23 lead. The two heavyweights came out on the mat, shook hands and started the bout.

Hanover's Sam Guesto used a takedown in the first period to lead 2-0 but then caught Mountaineer Tom Charney in a half nelson to pin him in 1:07 and give Hanover the 29-26 win.

ON BOARD FIRST
Hanover went on the board first when their 98-lb. Bob Hawkins pinned Jim O'Donnell in 1:17 and 105-lb. Mike Swiderski took a 5-3 decision from Brian Mathers.

With Hanover leading 9-0, Mount Paul Burke gave Dallas six points by clamping Bill Snyder in 1:50 to move the score to 9-6. 119-lb. Keith Graham gave Hanover three points when he was decided by Hawkeye Mike Jaslar 4-2 and 126-lb. Terry Kochoer added three points by defeating Mount Bill Janosky 10-5.

With the score 15-6 Hanover, 132-lb. Mike Richards took Joe Ropiefski 8-5 to cut the Hawkeyes lead to 15-9. 138-lb. Scott Mangan and Bryan Maseychik wrestled to a 4-4 draw, moving the team score to 17-11. 145-lb. Mount Gene Faulls shut out Jason Martinez 4-0 to make the team score 17-14.
