Bible presented

A large print bible was presented to Thomas J. Sweeney, administrator of the Meadows Nursing Center, for the chapel to be constructed at the center in Dallas. The bible was presented during a visit recently by students from the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh grade Sunday School classes from Prince of Peace Church, Dallas. The students conducted a bake sale and sold advent wreaths to raise funds to purchase the bible. Shown here during the presentation are, from left, Jane Slaff, Sunday School teacher; Jane Jesse, Heidi Wenrich, Chris Repotski, Thomas J. Sweeney, administrator, Meadows Nursing Center; Stacey Paculavich, Megan Sheehan, Nicole Sutton, Jenny Sutton, Karen Hobbs, and Lois Townsend, Superintendent, Sunday School classes.

Vows are exchanged

The recent marriage of Janine Carol Carey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Carey, Shavertown, and Ardolan Ossereh, son of Dr. and Mrs. Abdol Hossein Ossareh, Shiraz, Iran, was performed in St. Therese's Church, Shavertown. Monsignor Joseph P. Gilgallon celebrated the Nuptial Mass.

Miss Janet Carey, sister of the bride was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Mrs. Mohammad Hajimohammad, sister of the groom; Mrs. Mark Kalish, Miss Roseann White and Kristin and Karen Ortle, the bride's godchildren.

Mr. Mohammad Hajimohammad, brother in law of the groom was best man. Ushers were Ardashir Afshar, Dr. Jay C. Carey, and Joel Carey, brothers of the bride; and Hossein Gharowski, Ali Reza Ossareh, brother of the groom was ringbearer.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore her mother's wedding gown. The bodice of beaded chantilly lace featured a mandarin collar and long sleeves tapered at the wrists. The full ivory satin skirt ended in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil, designed by MaryJean of Washington Millinery, Inc. was arranged on a pearl headband. She carried a cascade bouquet of cymbidium orchids and roses, also a crystal rosary, a gift from her mother.

The bridesmaids, wore waltz length gowns of satin burgundy and matching hats, decorated with pearls. They carried long stem roses dyed to match their gowns.

The mother of the bride selected a pink silk dress, matching accessories and wore a wrist corsage of pink roses. The groom's mother was attired in a grey silk dress, matching accessories and wore a wrist corsage of red roses.

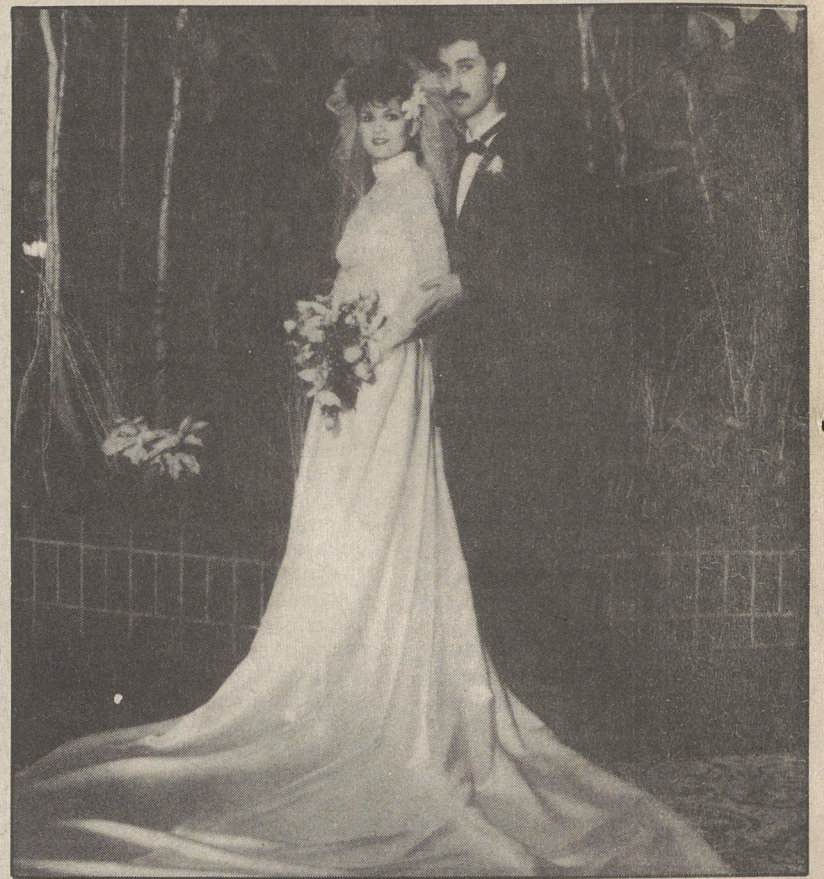

An evening reception was held in the Grand Ballroom, Genetti's, Wilkes-Barre. A rehearsal dinner was hosted by the groom's parents at Genetti's.

After a wedding trip to Florida, the couple is residing in Alexandria, Va.

The bride was feted at a shower given by her mother and sister at the Knights of Columbus Home, Luzerne. The couple also will be honored at a formal reception in Virginia.

Mrs. Ossareh, a magna cum laude graduate of Marywood College, is pursuing a Masters Degree in Journalism at the University of Maryland. She directs Communications and Public Relations for the Color Marketing Group, a Washington, D.C. based Trade Association.

Mr. Ossareh is a graduate of the Capital Institute of Technology, Kensington, Md. He is pursuing a Masters Degree in Electronics and Computer Engineering at George Mason University.
