Kiwanis to host annual wrestling tourney

The Wilkes-Barre Kiwanis Club will sponsor the 19th Annual Frank Walp Junior High School Wrestling Tournament on March 8 at the Wilkes College Gym, South Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre.

The tournament is open to all junior high school students in both private and public schools in grades 7, 8 and 9 except for those 9th grade students who have wrestled on a senior varsity team.

Weight classes are 75, 80, 85, 90, 95, 100, 105, 110, 115, 120, 125, 130, 138, 145, 154, 165, 180 lbs. and heavyweight classification.

The Walp Memorial Wrestling Tournament was originally established in 1966 by the YMCA with the intent of providing a competitive athletic event for young wrestlers. It honors Frank Walp who made a career of youth service as an educator and supporter of amateur wrestling.

The tournament has attracted thousands of wrestlers from junior high schools in the Middle Atlantic Region. Any interested junior high school wrestler can obtain an entry form by contacting Mr. Jim Thomas, YMCA Wilkes-Barre, 40 W. Northampton Street, Wilkes-Barre or by calling 823-2191.

Nursery School announces annual registration day

The Trucksville Nursery School will hold its annual Registration Day March 7, from 11 to 1:30 p.m.

The school's theme for 1986 is "Happiness is Nursery School." All parents interested in seeing what the school is all about and meeting the staff, are invited to attend with their children.

The Trucksville Nursery School has been serving the community for 17 years.

The school is located in the Trucksville United Methodist Church Educational Building which provides large-size classrooms with plenty of space indoors and out. Children are enrolled in a choice of programs depending on availability.

Classes for three-year-olds are held morning and afternoons with two-day or three-day a week sessions. Classes for morning or afternoon are available for four-and-five year-olds with choices of a three, four or five day session per week depending on availability and age requirements.

Registration for next year is currently taking place and advance registrations will be accepted after Feb. 20. For more information, contact Director Linda Mazur at the school at 696-3897.
