

Hasay's district office has calendars listing 1986 events happening in Pennsylvania

Pennsylvania's 1986 Calendar of Events is available from Rep. George C. Hasay.

Information on a wide range of crafts, sports, cultural and outdoor activities is included in the 88-page booklet prepared by the Department of Commerce.

The listing for each event includes the location and a telephone number for further details.

The booklet also includes the address and phone number for each of more than 50 tourist promotion agencies in the state.

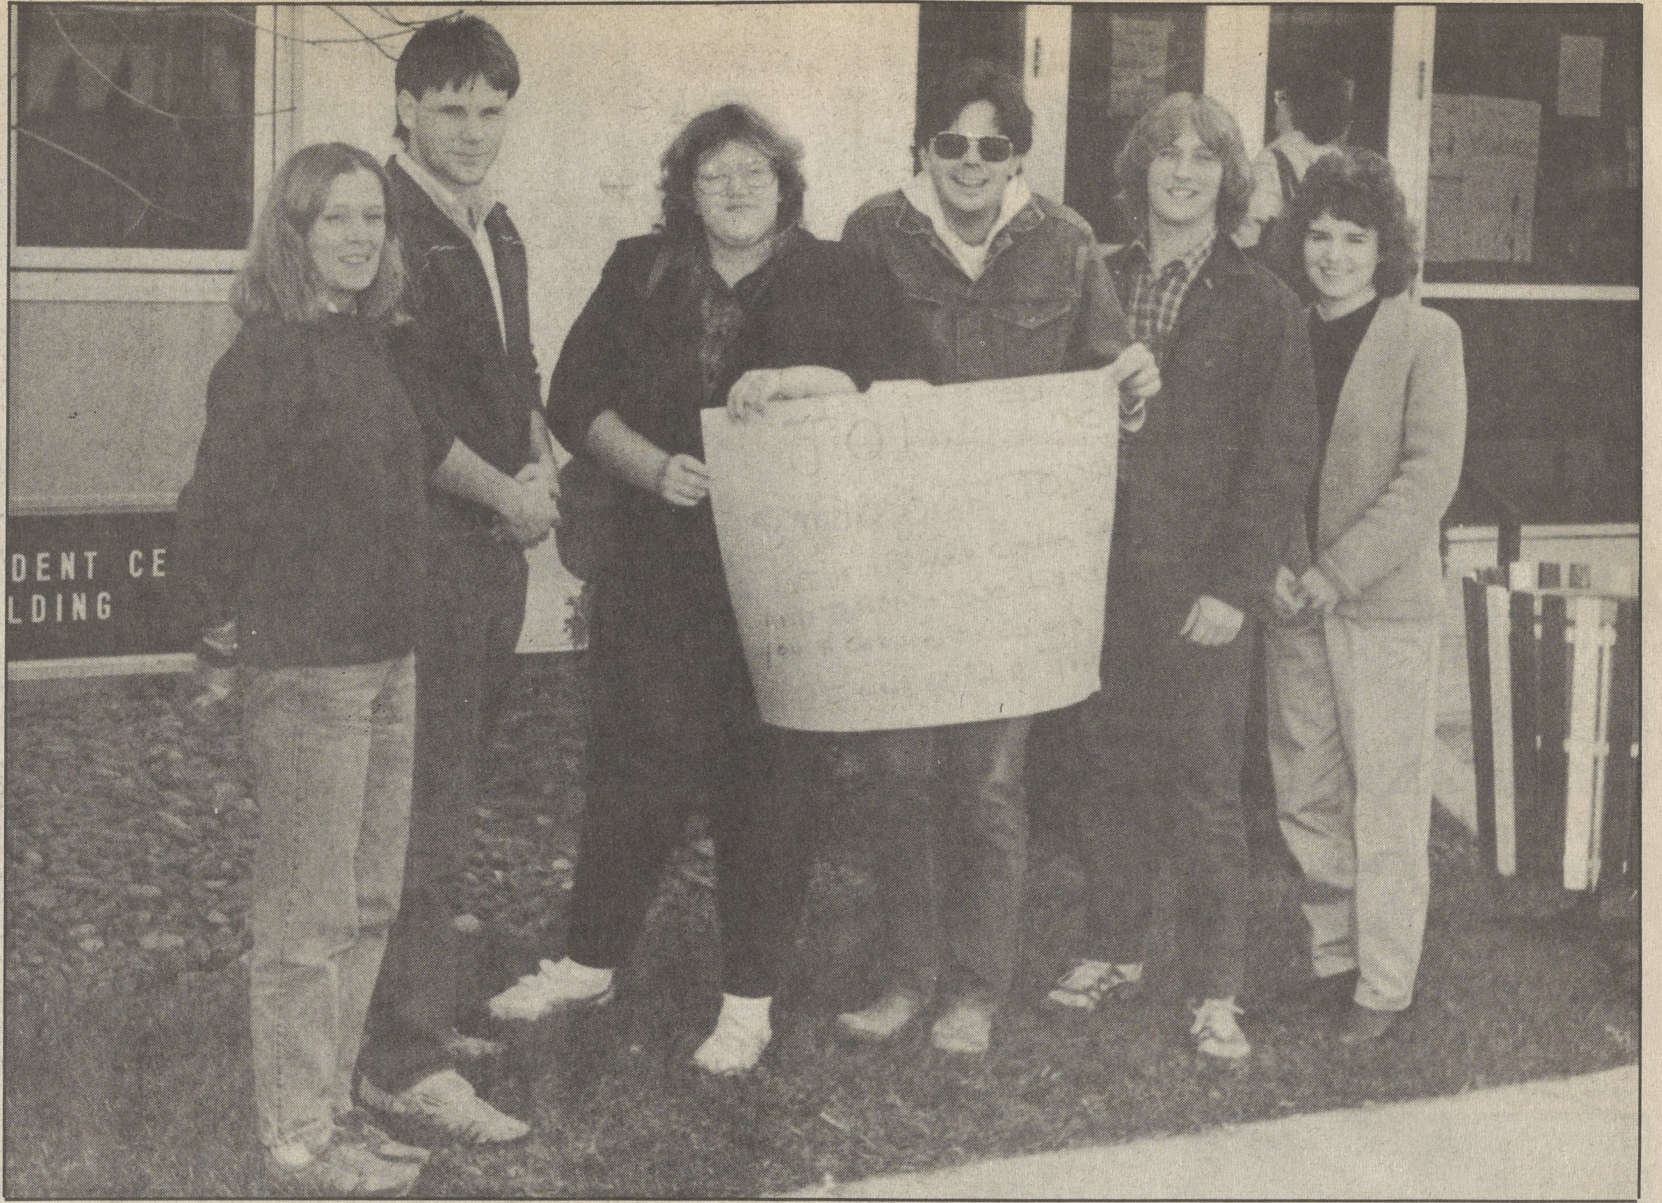

For a free copy constituents may visit Hasay's office on the Sans Souci Highway in Hanover Township. The telephone number is 542-7345 or 735-2794.

Seniors in PACE program to get new cards

More than 400,000 senior citizens enrolled in the Pharmaceutical Assistance Contract for the Elderly (PACE) program will receive renewal application forms in the mail this month, according to Alma R. Jacobs, Secretary of the Pennsylvania Department of Aging.

PACE is the Lottery-funded program that permits state residents over age 65 to purchase prescribed medicines for as little as $4 regardless of the cost, if their incomes are less than $12,000 per individual and less than $15,000 per married couple.

"I emphasize that the renewal forms being mailed are for current PACE card holders only," Mrs. Jacobs said. "Persons who are enrolling in PACE for the first time must obtain new enrollment applications at pharmacies, legislators' offices or county area agency on aging offices."

PACE renewal forms require each applicant to provide his or her annual income for the 1985 calendar year and to update information such as residency, marital status and medical insurance coverage. All applications must be signed in the space provided and returned in order to receive new PACE cards for use after July 1, 1986. Unsigned applications cannot be processed.

Mrs. Jacobs said present PACE card holders will receive their new cards during the last two weeks of June.

Nominations due for Brader award

Now is the time for you or your organization to nominate that extra special volunteer for the Rose Brader Community Service Award. The award provides an opportunity to recognize an individual or group that has provided outstanding service to the people of Wyoming Valley.

Implemented in 1980 by the United Way of Wyoming Valley board of directors, the award is named in honor of Rosalie Brader who was employed for 31 years as the U.W. Labor Participation Director and served in numerous volunteer capacities.

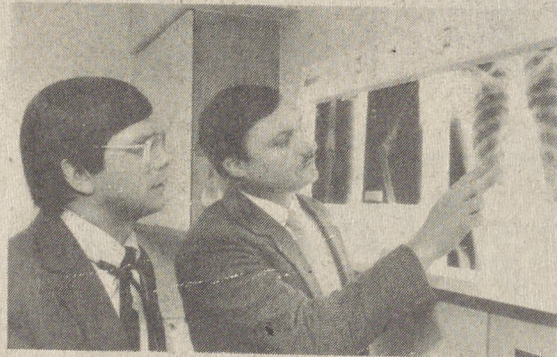

Nomination forms can be obtained at the United Way, 9 East Market Street, Wilkes-Barre, or by telephoning 829-6711. Deadline for submitting nominations is Feb. 28. The 1986 award recipient will be selected by a panel of volunteer judges representing the U.W. Board of Directors, Labor Participation Committee, Communications Committee, PARD, and the Campaign Cabinet, and will be honored in April at the United Way's Annual Meeting and Awards Dinner.

TAKE THE FIRST STEP

DAVID GRIMES did. He's a business administration major at Penn State Wilkes-Barre. "Penn State has enabled me to pursue courses that appealed to me during my earlier college education, but which I did not have the time to take. I have also found that going to Penn State is a wonderful pace from the work-a-day world."
