Cub Scout Pack 241 sponsored by the Lehman United Methodist Church has just concluded its annual fund raiser. This year's project featured items from the Tom Watt Showcase, a wide variety of gift and household items. Enough money was earned to cover the pack's operating expenses for the year and provide several field trips and wilderness experiences for the cubs. Top Cub Scout Salesmen, each selling over $300.00 of merchandise include Jason Poplaski, Chase, first place; Randy Hozempa, Huntsville, second place; Tim Alters, Lehman, third place; and Joe Blained, Idetown, fourth place. All other cubs selling over $50.00 in merchandise were given gift items for their efforts. Frank Poplaski, committee Chairman arranged the Tom Watt Project. Other Pack volunteers included Cubmaster Mark Hozempa, Huntsville, Asst. Cubmaster John Grutkowski, Lake Silkworth, and Den Leaders Sandy and Joe Blaine, Idetown, Pat Hozempa, Huntsville, Diane Plosi, Meeker and the Webelos Leader Ernie Price, Chase. The pack has over 30 Cub Scouts, who have enjoyed many recent activities such as hiking, educational tours, cross country skiing, roller skating, ice skating, bowling and sledding. Anyone from the Lehman School District who is interested in the Scouts in their adventures may contact Mark Hozempa at 675-4866 or the Scout Office at 823-6158.
