Wednesday, / Feb. 26

THE SHAVERTOWN UNITED METHODIST CHURCH, 163 N. Pioneer Avenue, will hold Bible Study at 7:15 p.m.

DRUG THERAPY, urine and blood glucose testing, and blood glucose monitoring machines are three of the topics to be presented on Wednesday, Feb. 26, at the second of a six-part community diabetes program sponsored by Nesbitt Memorial Hospital.

Afternoon and evening sessions will be held at 1:30 and 7 p.m. in the classroom of the Nesbitt Medical Arts Building, 534 Wyoming Ave., Kingston. Principal speakers will be William Dennison, registered pharmacist, and Betsy Trzinski, registered nurse.

The free program is designed to help provide the public with increased awareness of the complications surrounding diabetes. For more information, please call the hospital's education department at 288-1411, ext. 4035.

Thursday, / Feb. 27

THE SHAVERTOWN UNITED METHODIST CHURCH will hold the following activities: Bible Study at 10:30 a.m.; Brownies Troop 929 will meet at 4 p.m.; Chancel Choir rehearsal at 7:30 p.m.

VETERANS OF THE VIETNAM WAR, Post 2 will meet Thursday, Feb. 27, at 8 p.m. at the Coral Lounge, 245 Owen St., Swoyersville.

Election of officers will be held, and refreshments served. A directory of the names on the Vietnam Veterans Memorial in Washington D.C. is available for references at the meeting.

The Veterans of the Vietnam War, Inc. is a full service organization open to all veterans.

THE WILKES COLLEGE DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGY continues its Biology Lecture Series for the 1985-86 academic year with a presentation on Thursday, Feb. 27 at 8:15 p.m. in Stark Learning Center Room 1. Dr. William Phelps is the guest speaker for the evening, and will speak on "The Biology of Papilloma Viruses." The lecture is open to the public, free of charge.

William Phelps, an expert on papilloma viruses, is currently a post-doctoral fellow at the Laboratory of Tumor Virus Biology at the National Cancer Institute. The Institute is a division of the National Institute of Health.

STUDENTS AT PENN STATE WILKES-BARRE will be participating in a Jump Rope and Dance for Heart on Thursday, Feb. 27 from noon until 3 p.m. in the Commons on the Lehman Campus. Jump Rope and Dance for Heart is an event sponsored by the Pennsylvania State Association for Health, Physical Education, Recreation and Dance to benefit the American Heart Association.

At the event, student teams will jump rope for up to three hours, collecting pledges from community sponsors for every minute jumped.

Janie Griffin, coordinator for the Penn State Wilkes-Barre Jump Rope and Dance Events stated "The students are actively participating in the fight against Heart Disease—the Nation's Number One Killer. At the same time, they are learning that experience is a key factor in maintaining strong and healthy hearts."

The funds raised through Jump Rope and Dance for Heart project support research, education, and community service programs of the American Heart Association.

THE LUZERNE-WYOMING COUNTIES BUREAU FOR THE AGING Retired Senior Volunteer Program is sponsoring a two day Medication Awareness Program for senior adults. The program's purpose is to emphasize the importance of keeping a record of all medication, following directions exactly, and familiarization with over the counter medication.

The program consists of a slide presentation, "Treating Yourself with Care" and the Brown Bag Clinic. For the Brown Bag Clinic, participants are asked to bring in all their medications (Prescription and non-prescription) for the pharmacist to review. RSVP will be assisted by pharmacists from the Mercy Hospital.

The slide presentation and Brown Bag Clinic was held at the Dallas Senior Center.

Friday, / Feb. 28

DAMIAN BREZINSKI, a 1984 graduate of King's College and a student at the John Hopkins University Medical School, will conduct a slide presentation and lecture on "Current Trends in Cardiology" at 3 p.m. Friday, Feb. 28, in Room S-90 of King's Administration Building.

Sponsored by the Center for Independent Learning and the department of biology at King's, the presentation will be open to the public free of admission charges.

A native of Naticoke, Brezinski will begin a year of research in cardiology at Harvard University in March.

More information on the presentation can be obtained by contacting Dr. Edmund Napieralski, director of the King's Center for Independent Learning, at 826-5900, Extension 715, weekdays from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

Saturday, / March 1

A VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL materials Preview program and clinic will be offered to churches of the area in cooperation with the Pennsylvania State Sunday School Association. On Saturday, March 1, the Preview will be held at the Wyoming Avenue Christian Church in Forty Fort, at 9:30 a.m. and also at the Tunkhannock United Methodist Church on Church and Warren Streets in Tunkhannock at 3 p.m.

The purpose of the VBS Preview and Clinic is to give individual churches opportunity to preview all available 1986 VBS materials at one time and in one location. Materials from 17 denominational, cooperative and independent publishers will be colorfully displayed along with craft ideas, visual aids and promotional materials. Plenty of time will be allowed for browsing and answering questions, although none of the materials will be endorsed or sold during this Preview program.

Perhaps the most rewarding part of the two-hour programs is the excellent "mini-clinic" sessions that provide good tips and ideas on how to make your VBS ministry more effective. Under the leadership of Jan Cagno from the staff of the Pennsylvania State Sunday School Association, relevant ideas for the successful planning, organization and administration of VBS are discussed and presented in stimulating visual fashion. Supportive "Idea Sheets" containing comprehensive outlines on VBS work are also
