THIS WEEK I would like to extend a special thank you to Mr. Hank Hill, custodian at Dallas Elementary School. Daily, regardless of how cold, rainy or miserable it is Hank is there to make sure that the children unloading from buses and cars get into the building safely. To the mother of school children this is of the utmost importance. So, thanks, Hank!

ALTHOUGH THE NURSERY SCHOOL is now on a two week spring break, I think it's always with me. A case in point: recently I visited a friend. "Can I take your coat?" she asked. I took my hat off, put my gloves in it and put it in the sleeve of my coat. Since she is a first grade teacher, she understood this procedure perfectly. That is how you teach small children to keep their winter clothing altogether, making it easier to get ready when it is time to go home.

You can take the teacher out of the Nursery School but you can't take the Nursery School out of the teacher!

BETTY AND ART SEGRAVE-DALY are thrilled with their new granddaughter Colleen Rose, daughter of their son and his wife, Dr. and Mrs. Stephen Segrave-Daly. Colleen Rose is their first grandchild.

Congratulations, grandma and grandpa!
