

Scouts visit hospital

Nesbitt Memorial Hospital's Education Department recently conducted a tour of the hospital for Brownie Troop 640 from Lehman. The girls received nurses hats that read "Nesbitt Memorial Hospital Future Nurse." It is part of a program designed to familiarize young children with hospital facilities. Shown in the picture are, from left, first row, Winter Rusilowski, Jennifer Brewer, Becky Sutton, Adrienne Miroslaw, Kim Gaylord and Alison Stubb. Second row, Pat Rusiloski, Betsy Trzcinski, R.N., education department; and Deborah Dinger, troop leader.

Cutting labels

Cub Scout Pack 155 of Trucksville recently conducted a community service project for the Back Mountain Memorial Library. The boys cut Campbell Soup labels for Mrs. Florence Gauthier. Den leaders are Mariann Macri, Georgianna Reynolds, Barbara Hoover, Debbie Natitus, Betty June Mathers, committee chairperson; and Michael Repotski, Cubmaster. Shown here are, from left, Tony Cox, Ryan Boraski, Adam Hoover, Chris Repotski, Eddie Gawlas, Ronnie Yanchick, Michael Lykon, Corey Moyer, Brian Achuff, Danny Natitus, Tommy Socash, Billy Bullock, Jason Reynolds, Joey Hayer, Robbie Ricker, Jarrod Cooney, Scott Banta, Den Chief; and Terry Meehan.

Show slated

The Dallas Area Federated Women's Club will sponsor a card party-fashion show on Tuesday, April 1, at the Irem Temple Country Club, Dallas. Melba's Fashion Nook will provide the fashions. Tickets are $4 and will benefit the club's scholarship fund. Tickets may be purchased from any club member or at Melba's Fashion Nook, Carverton Road, Trucksville. Shown here are members of the committee planning the event following a meeting held at the home of Marilyn Webster. From left, seated, Shirley Smith, Peggy Thomas, Marian Muldoon, Alice Savage. Standing, Betty Roman, Marilyn Webster.

Lehman program scheduled

The seventh installment of Lake-Lehman's Early Childhood-Pre-School Program is scheduled for March 19, 20 and 21 and will feature "Health, Nutrition, and Safety Awareness" as our program theme. The health awareness section of this program will be conducted by our school nurses, Mrs. Evans and Mrs. Smith. Topics included will be medication policy, health room procedures and policies, vaccination record policies, and general school playground and recess rules. Lynn Evans, high school home economics teacher, will also present a program segment concerning proper nutrition practices. Our counselors, Mrs. Phillips and Mrs. Blessner, will discuss personal safety in the home and neighborhood.

Breakfast set

The Harveys Lake Lions will hold their annual Pancake and Sausage Supper and Breakfast, on Saturday, March 22, from 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. and Sunday, March 23, from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the Lake-Noxen Elementary School, Harveys Lake. Tickets can be purchased from any Lion member or at the door. Committee members shown are from left to right seated; Ken Olshefski, Calvin McHose, and Joe Neilson. Standing, Frank Bialogowicz, Wilfred Ide and John Lynch.

Cub Scouts awarded with badges

February 9 was a big day in the life of Cub Pack 155 of Trucksville. This marks the 36th year of continued scouting for Pack and Troop 155. Scout Sunday was celebrated at the 11 a.m. service in the Trucksville United Methodist Church, the sponsoring organization. Six boys received their God and Family Award. They were Jason Seward, son of Mr. and Mrs. Larry Seward; Jason Reynolds, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Reynolds; Billy Bullock, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Bullock Jr.; Jarod Cooney, son of Mrs. Millie Cooney; Chris Repotski, son of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Repotski; and Tony Cox, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Cox. The Blue and Gold Dinner was held in the afternoon in the Educational Building of the church. Terry Matosky, Carol Bullock and Georgiana Reynolds were co-charimen of the dinner assisted by parents of the pack.

The opening ceremony was held by Dens 1 and 2. Invocation was given by the Rev. H. James Shillabeer, pastor of the host church. Michael Repotski, cubmaster, was master of ceremonies, and introduced the following guests, Bob Bellas, Cub Scout Executive Frank Roginski, Mrs. Joan Roginski, Religious Awards Chairman, the Rev. and Mrs. James Shillabeer; Pat Repotski, Bernadette Banta, Russell Banta Jr., Scoutmaster; Marge Griffin, Roundtable Commissioner; Betty June Mathers, Church Coordinator of Scouting; Mary Ann Macri, Area Commissioner for the Back Mountain and Monsignor Gilgallon, pastor of St. Therese's Church, Shavertown. Following dinner awards were presented to: Tom Socash, Wolf badge, 1 gold and 2 silver arrows; Billy Bullock, 2 silver arrows; The Arrow of Light was presented to Billy Dover of the Webelos Den. Scott Banta of Troop 155 who served as Den Chief for the past two years was presented a special plaque and thank you by Mary Ann Macri, Den Leader of Den 5. The following Tigers, who were guests at the dinner were presented Claws, Harold Roberts, J.P. Cosgrove, Ben Sappe, Kevin McGovern, Ted Jackson, David Fredrick, Dean Evans, Ned Friar, Brian Reggie, Michael Tomasura, Stephen Tomasura, Walter Davis, Edward Sabol and Brad Adams. The following Den Leaders were recognized, Den 1 and 2 Georgiana Reynolds, Den 5, Mary Ann Macri, Den 7, Barbara Hoover and Debbie Natitus, Webelos Leader Rick Macri. Tiger Coordinator, Barbara Hoover, Tiger Group 1, Rosemary Evans, Group 2, Ruth Roberts, Committee Chairman, Betty June Mathers. Special Certificates were presented to parents who helped throughout the year.

Chairpersons named

Judy Rosing and Sandee Cohn, both residents of Dallas, have been elected to serve as Co-Chairpersons for "Auction 86", a fundraising event for the Sisterhood of Temple B'nai B'rith. "Auction 86" will be held on Saturday, April 19 at Temple B'nai B'rith, 408 Wyoming Avenue, Kingston. This special community event is one of the major fundraising activities for the Sisterhood. All proceeds will be used for the enrichment of Sisterhood and community projects. Shown here, from left, are Judy Rosing, Co-Chairperson, Dallas, and Sandee Cohn, Co-Chairperson, Dallas.

C of C sponsors poster contest

The Greater Wilkes-Barre Chamber of Commerce Small Business Council is sponsoring a poster contest open to all high schools (grades 9-12) in the Wilkes-Barre Wyoming Valley. "There's No Business like Small Business," is the theme of the poster contest which offers a number of prizes for the selected winners; the prizes include: a telephone answering machine donated by Northeastern Communications valued at $120.00; two $50.00 savings bonds; three $25.00 savings bonds; five set to Rocky Glen Park tickets valued at $8.50 each; and a prize donated by Markdata, Inc. valued at $50.00. Winners of the poster contest will receive their awards at the May 15, 1986 Small Business Luncheon to be held at the Sheraton Crossgates.

Calendar

(Continued from page 16)

Chairing the Cultural Development Task Force is Mary Hepner of the Wilkes-Barre Ballet.

SPLASHES OF COLOR is the theme for the Trucksville Nursery School's spring fashion show, set for Sunday, April 6, from 2 to 4 in the afternoon, at the school on Church St. Plans are to show the hottest spring looks for both kids and women.

Committee members who put together this first time fashion benefit are Connie LaJeunesse, Gen. Chairman; Sharon Hawke, publicity; Janice Winters, finance; Jan Anderson, refreshments. All proceeds go to the children of the Trucksville Nursery School.

LADIES AUXILIARY of the Jackson Township Volunteer Fire Co.

will meet at the fire hall in Chase on Wednesday, April 9 at 7:30 p.m. Auxiliary is selling cookbooks, and they will be on sale that evening. Hostesses are Margaret Bonning, Esther Murray and Helen Franklin.

A RUMMAGE SALE will be held at the Jackson United Methodist Church, Jackson Church Road and Smith Pond Rd., Jackson Twp. on April 10 and 11 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. There will be a bake table, homemade vegetable beef soup on sale also wimpies, hot dogs with kraut, coffee and tea.

NESBITT MEMORIAL HOSPITAL is accepting registration for FREE Babysitting Classes for teenagers 12 to 16 years old beginning Wednesday, April 9 and continuing April 16, 23, and 30 from 4 p.m. to 5 p.m. in the classroom of the Medical Arts Building, Poplar Street entrance, 534 Wyoming Avenue, Kingston. Those interested must register through the hospital's Education Department by calling 288-1411, extension 4035.

WILKES-BARRE GENERAL HOSPITAL AUXILIARY members recently met to plan for the Annual Card Party, to be held Monday, April 21 at 1 p.m. at St. Stephen's Church, South Franklin Street, Wilkes-Barre.

Raffle tickets, priced at $1 each or six for $5, are available from any Auxiliary member. Door and game prizes will be given away throughout the afternoon. A white elephant sale, plus the sale of fresh baked goods, books, jewelry, plants and refreshments will also be featured during the card party. Donation for admission is $1.50, and persons attending are asked to bring their own cards.

REGISTRATION is currently underway for free Sibling Classes at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital. The classes will be presented for children who will soon have a new baby brother or sister and are specifically designed to promote family bonding.

A class for children two to five years of age will be held on Saturday, April 5, from 9 to 10 a.m. in the first floor conference room of Nesbitt Memorial Hospital, 562 Wyoming Ave., Kingston, and 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. for children six to ten years of age.

For more information or pre-registration for Nesbitt's free Sibling Classes, contact the Obstetrics Department, 288-1411, Ext. 4563.

Subscribe To The Post

BIRTHS

The following Back Mountain couples announce births during the past week: PAUL, JOHN and CHRISTINE, RD 1, Box 350, Harvey's Lake, a daughter, March 8.

SCHULER, DAVID and LINDA, RD 1, box 517, Harvey's Lake, a daughter, March 8. DRURY, JAMES and ANN MARIE, 179 Jackson St., Dallas, a daughter, March 11.

THE DALLAS POST

ADVERTISING DEADLINE
MONDAY 11 a.m.
Call 675-5211

or mail to:
The Dallas Post
P.O. Box 366
309-415 Plaza
Dallas, Pa. 18612