Back Mountain on the move

GAIL AND JIMMY BACKUS have returned home after spending two weeks vacationing in Florida. They enjoyed many places of interest such as Epcot Center, Church Street Station, Rosie O'Grady's Cheyenne, Sea World and many tourist areas in Orlando. The Backus' also visited some relatives and had a great trip.

PAT AND PAM WHITE of Noxen flew to Florida and spent a week enjoying the sites. Their trip included Epcot, a day at Daytona Beach, and they also rented a car so they could drive around and visit other places of interest. Pat and Pam visited with Pat's grandfather who lives in Florida. All in all they too had a great trip.

DALLAS AREA FEDERATED WOMEN'S CLUB FASHION SHOW is scheduled for Tuesday, April 1, at the Irem Temple Country Club. Miss Pennsylvania, Leah Schiazza, is a guest and will be escorted by our own Bob Richardson. Bob made a remark last year that "no one asked him to escort Miss Pennsylvania," remarks like that "never" go unheard, Bob!

All proceeds benefit the scholarship program and the Back Mountain Memorial Library. There are nearly 100 door prizes, all very nice, a very special evening is planned for your enjoyment. Fashions are by Melba's Fashion Nook, Trucksville. Call any club member for tickets or they are available at Melba's also. Remember April 1 is the date!

JANE GRITMAN was the lucky winner at the D.A.F.W. Club meeting Thursday night. Diane Bryant, owner-operator of Great Beginnings Fitness Center was the guest speaker of the evening and she awarded a month's membership to the lucky someone. Jane (Gritman) Fonda will be in even better shape than she is already. Congratulations, Jane.

HELP!! District Band days are April 2, 3, 4, 5 and just last week Dallas was informed they are the host school this year. This means there are 154, yes one hundred and fifty-four students arriving at Dallas School with no place to sleep. Housing is desperately needed!

These kids are all Senior High school age, they are from all over and they need our help. Please help if you can. Call Alice Niskey today, the reward will be all yours, they are very interesting kids.

MARK LAW, son of Tom and Bev Law of Larksville Mountain has returned to Bloomsburg University where he is in his senior year. Mark has been a patient in Wilkes-Barre General Hospital undergoing several tests and we're happy to report he's feeling better every day and back in college. Way to go Mark!

LITTLE DANNY NICHOL, son of Sharon Nichol, Lehman Avenue, Dallas, has been a patient in Nesbitt Hospital. Danny had surgery on a finger last week and lots of people were hurting for you Danny, heal up fast.

HELEN URBAN of Harveys Lake had a very bad fall in her home last week and fractured her arm. She also needed surgery, is now recuperating at home but will be wearing a cast at least six weeks.

PEG ANDERSON of Harveys Lake is home from the hospital, we wish her a year full of health and happiness. I'm told she recently celebrated her birthday also, so happy birthday and get well wishes, Peg.

SKIP AND HELEN DAVIS of High Point Acres, Dallas, are proud grandparents. Daughter Marsha gave birth to their first grandchild and Grandma Helen hopped a plane and she's there to enjoy it too.

SEEMS LIKE ONLY YESTERDAY all these "first grandchild" people I'm, writing about were working with me, side by side, carrying babies as we worked on community projects for the Dallas Junior Woman's Club. These babies we took along are now having babies of their own and these same mothers are right at their sides helping out.

I just love being a grandma, as I know they all do, but gee, I just don't feel like one, it is a good generation! I wonder if I'll feel the same when I have my first great-grandchild? Chances are we still won't feel any older. Good thought to stop on — always feel young!

Animal Ordinance to be enforced in township

Kingston Township Police Chief Paul M. Sabol reminds area residents of the Kingston Township Animal Ordinance pertaining to dogs. According to the Kingston Township Code, it is unlawful for any person to keep or otherwise maintain a dog which disturbs the peace and quiet of any person residing within 200 feet of the property boundary lines.

Chief Sabol stated that complaints on barking dogs disturbing a residential neighborhood will result in the owner of the animal being served with a copy of the Township Ordinance and a warning to correct the problem. Should the owner fail to take corrective action, a citation will be issued. The fine for violation of this ordinance ranges from $25.00 to $300.00.

The Chief also reminds residents that the ordinance contains similar provisions and penalties for residents who allow their dogs to roam free or unattended in residential districts.

Township sponsors effort

Each year the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation sponsors a "Keep Pennsylvania Beautiful Day" as the focal point of a concerted effort to clean an accumulation of litter from Pennsylvania's roadways.

The Kingston Township Board of Supervisors are co-sponsoring, along with the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation, a "Keep Pennsylvania Beautiful Day" on April 26, 1986.

The PennDOT Maintenance District will provide each participating group with an adequate supply of fluorescent orange vests for safety and as many trash bags as needed for the clean-up. Specially designed patches will be distributed to participants in recognition of their time and effort.

Registration forms for participants from the Trucksville-Shavertown area are available at the Office of the Township Manager, 11

Carverton Road, Trucksville. Further information may be obtained by contacting the Township Office at 696-3809.
