Boy Scout Troop 281 plans events

Several members of Boy Scout Troop 281 recently participated in Penn Mountains Council's Polar Bear Camporall at Frances Slocum State Park recently. Seasonal outdoor activities included ice fishing, cross-country skiing, as well as a demonstration on winter survival.

In all, 20 patrols participated in the weekend event, which was highlighted by a series of competitions. The patrol representing Troop 281 competed in a "Log Saw," in fire-building and first aid, as well as in sled, sack, snow-shoe and ice-aw races, and managed to place first overall.

The following weekend, several members of 281 were again outdoors. This time cross-country skiing and tobogganing at Eagles Mere. The group included Gregg Steuben, Daniel Holdredge, Darren Michael, John St. Clair, Mark Chappell, Sean Price, Ed Reabuck, Clarence Michael and Scoutmaster Henry Steuen.

Give Something Special for Easter DOGWOOD JEWELRY

There is a legend that at the time of the Crucifixion, the dogwood was the size of the oak and the other forest trees. So firm and strong it was chosen as the timber of the Cross. And it was said: "Never again shall the dogwood tree grow large enough to be used for such a cruel purpose. Henceforth it shall be slender and bent and twisted; and its blossoms shall be in the form of a cross. In the center of the outer edge of each petal there shall be nail prints, brown with rust and stained with red; and in the center of the flower will be a crown of thorns. And all who see it will remember."
