Stock market studied

Ninth grade students of the Dallas Junior High School are participating and competing in a ten-week "Stock Market Game". The game is sponsored by the national stock brokerage firm of Bucher & Singer. The Center of Economic Education, Widener University, Chester, PA supervises the program. Mrs. Dorothy L. Davis and Mr. John Baur of the Dallas Junior High faculty sponsor seven 3-4 member teams of students who invest and trade in theoretical amounts of $100,000 per team. Pictured above are student participants. From left, first row, Harry Campbell, Mark Fies, Kurt Leipinsky, Laura Lehman, John Ashton, Jared Samuels, John Gregg. Second row, Jennifer Sprear, Walter Fader, Allison Dombek, Allan Landis, Melissa Margis, Phil Navola, Myron Suchodolski, Jim O'Donnell. Third row, Hugh Mundy, Michael Dzanko, Scott Brady, Jim Evans, Scott Adams. Absent at the time of the photo were Paul Moore and James Newell.

Application deadline scheduled

Students interested in participating in Wyoming Seminary's Fifth Trustee Achievement Scholarship competition for the 1986-87 academic year are reminded that the deadline for application is Wednesday, April 2. John R. Eidam, Dean of Admissions, reports that there have been numerous inquiries made regarding the competition and now is the time to file the test application in order to be eligible.

Two scholarships, one full and one half years tuition, will be awarded for one year each, regardless of economic need, to two students who demonstrate high citizenship qualities and perform well on a competitive examination scheduled for Saturday, April 5, at the west side prep school.

Any student entering the ninth or tenth grade and not presently enrolled in Wyoming Seminary Upper School and are interested in competing for the scholarship should contact the Admissions Office at 288-7541.

APRIL YATSKO

IT'S BEGINNING to look like Easter around the school. The first graders have been working on rabbits and Easter baskets for decorations in their homerooms, and the corridors are beginning to blossom with signs of Spring.

THE BOX OF EASTER CANDY doanted by Mrs. Jack Jones and won by Melissa Posolka of 1-212, earned $30.00 for the Missions. The fifth graders who sponsored the raffle wish to thank the donor and those who participated.

TOM FINARELLI of 7-215 won the "Principal's Award" for his display in the "Hall of Fame", and was appointed monitor of the Missions for the season of Lent.

MRS. GRAY'S THIRD GRADERS have been busy lately. Having completed their posters of famous places in Washington, D.C. they are now involved in doing some creative writing about riding in a shoeshine chair.

MRS. DIANE WOJCIE-

CHOWSKI and her instrumental pupils, together with the children in grades 1, 2 and 3 and their teachers, enjoyed the Northeastern Philharmonic's presentation of the Family Pops Concert at the Irem Temple on Friday afternoon. Particularly enjoyable was Maurice Ravel's fantasy, "The Mischievous Child" with Bob Brown's puppets.

BEST EASTER JOY to all our readers.

Program held

The Dallas Jr. High School Home School Association is sponsoring several Career Exploration Days for the ninth grade.

The first was held on March 17. The speaker was Steven C. Friedman, president of S. Friedman Associates, a Management Consulting Firm in Dallas.

He gave the students an overview of various career fields that are expected to be good in the future and encouraged them to start now to think and to explore what they want to do.

Applications now available

Shirley Smith, President of the Dallas Federated Woman's Club, has announced that applications are currently being accepted for the local club's 1986 Book Scholarship. High school seniors who reside in the Dallas Area School District are eligible for the award.

The Scholarship, which will be worth a minimum of $100.00, will be based on scholastic ability, financial need, school activities and community involvement.

Additional information and application forms are available at the Guidance Office of the Dallas Senior High School.

Marks are late

Because of the snow days, the third marking period for the Dallas Secondary Schools will not end until April 9, 1986.

Report cards will be issued Thursday, April 18, 1986.
