"The Art of Satire" features caricatures and cartoons drawn by some of the world's greatest artists. These drawings were submitted for use in newspapers and magazines to earn money or make political protests. Some were intended for private eyes only, as the artists sketched them for themselves or their friends. Although these satirical works may not be regarded as the greatest done by the artists, they served to amuse, enlighten, and, often, to increase the social awareness of those who viewed them. Among the 19th and 20th century masters represented in this exhibit are Manet, Gauguin, Monet, Pissarro and Toulouse-Lautrec.

"The Art of Satire" appears in the Sordoni Art Gallery through a grant given in honor of Dr. Roy E. Morgan. The exhibition will be open Mondays through Fridays, noon to 5 p.m. and Thursday evenings until 9 p.m., Saturdays 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. and Sundays 1 to 5 p.m. For further information, contact the Sordoni Gallery at 824-4651, ext. 388, post future
