

School

King's plans parents weekend

More than 500 parents of freshman and sophomore students at King's College are expected to participate in Freshman and Sophomore Parents' Weekend activities to be held April 11-12.

The program for the weekend of activities, intended to provide a familiarization of campus life for parents, will begin on Friday evening. Parents will have the opportunity to attend a faculty and staff art exhibit being held in the Sheehy Student Center or a musical review conducted by the student theatrical associations of King's and Wilkes Colleges being held in the college's Auditorium. The musical review will also be performed at 2 p.m. Saturday.

Saturday's events will begin at 8:30 a.m. with tours of the campus and registration for three sets of 45-minute workshops to be held at 10 a.m., 11 a.m. and 1 p.m.

Conducted by members of King's faculty and administration, the workshops are designed to acquaint parents with various services provided to King's students and also to provide general information on a variety of relevant topics. Workshop titles range from "Job Prospects for the 1980's and 1990's," "Choosing a College Major" and "The Financial

Parents' Weekend activities will conclude with a 4 p.m. Mass in the J. Carroll McCormick Campus Ministry Center followed by a dinner dance at Gus Genetti's Best West-

Aid Outlook" to "Computers: Past, Present and Future," "Stress: What It Does to You and What You Can Do About It" and "The Lover and His People: How We Get Along With One Another."

Also featured on Saturday will be 30-minute bus tours of Wilkes-Barre, Penn Motor Inn from 6:30 p.m. to 1 a.m. A similar Parents' Weekend was held for the parents of junior and senior students last November.

More information on Parents' Weekend activities can be obtained by contacting Brother John Zick, C.S.C., director of student activities at King's, at 826-5856.

GATE OF HEAVEN SCHOOL NEWS

MICHAEL FARRIS

APRIL YATSKO

MRS. ALBERT'S FOURTH GRADE SOCIAL STUDIES CLASS has been studying the grassland regions of the world. The students made illustrations of the various animals that live in those regions. By popular vote the following students were chosen winners: the steppes-Mark Finarelli, Shannon Stair, Billy Appel and Kristin Cashore; for the prairies-Mark Finarelli, Lynn Hill and Shannon Stair; for the savannas-Mark Finarelli, Kristin Cashore and Danielle Freeman.

rooms. He was very generous to all the children.

THE WEST SIDE CATHOLIC BASKETBALL LEAGUE chose three Gate of Heaven players for the All-Star team: Mike Farris, Jack Jones and Joe Patton. Tony Finarelli of 7-215 received the Sportsman award. Congratulations to the winners for their excellent effort.

BECAUSE OF THE BEAUTIFUL WEATHER last Wednesday, Sister Elizabeth's second graders had an Easter Egg Hunt out of doors. For the other primary grades, the Easter Bunny came to the class-

STUDENT OF THE WEEK: Colleen McGovern is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James P. McGovern of Dallas. She is a cheerleader who enjoys reading, biking and sports. Following graduation, Colleen plans to attend North Carolina University and work in the field of pediatrics.

Dallas Post/John Hoinski

Candy sale winners

The Parent-Teacher Guild of Gate of Heaven School recently awarded prizes for the recent Easter candy sale. First prize of a 12-speed Murray bicycle was presented to Peter and Kristan Elechko. Second prize of an AM-FM clock radio with cassette recorder went to Erin Kane while a third prize of a Polaroid 600 LMS camera went to Candice Valenta. Fourth and fifth prizes of $25 each went to Patrick O'Neill and Briana Herron. Sixth through 10th prizes of $10 each went to Martha Wallace, Nicole Naugle, Sharon Williams, Susan Shultz and Greg Stahovec. Eleventh through 20th prizes of $5 each went to Francesca Stuppino, Jennifer Harteis, Erica Kleinhans, Frank Bantell, John Kasmark, Robert Costello, Mary Godleski, Lisa Ford, John Pieczynski and Dawn Marie Borisuk. Kevin and Claire McGovern were chairpersons of this year's candy sale which will benefit educational programs at the school. Shown here in the photo are, kneeling, Patrick O'Neill. From left, second row, Kevin McGovern, co-chairman; Brianna Herron, Peter Elechko, Kristen Elechko, Candice Valenta, Erin Kane, and Sister Davida, principal.

Newhart joins King's staff

Paul Newhart of 481 Chase Road, Shavertown, has joined the staff of King's College as administrative assistant to the registrar.

In his new position, Newhart will be responsible for entering and updating student information into the college's computer system and producing computer reports required by college personnel. He will also coordinate commencement activities, administer Veterans' benefits, assist in various aspects of student registration and prepare student transcripts.

Newhart graduated from King's in December 1985 with a Bachelor's degree in health care management and an associate degree in computers and information systems. While attending King's, he was a member of the Health Care Management Club and the Computers and Information Systems Club. He is also a member of the Data Processing Management Association.

SUPPORT THOSE THAT ADVERTISE IN THE DALLAS POST

Dallas Post/John Hoinski

Egg Hunt held

Pictured above are toddlers from the Dallas Playschool, Church Street, prior to their Easter Egg hunt last week. The event was conducted last Thursday behind the school alongside the church grounds.

Wilkes slates events

The Wilkes College Office of Admissions will hold its annual Visitation Day for incoming students on Sunday, April 6, from 10:30 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. on the college campus. The event is designed for students who have been accepted for admission to become acquainted with the Wilkes campus, facilities, services and surrounding community.

This year's Visitation Day will begin at the Wilkes Gymnasium at 10:30 a.m. Following a registration period, students and their families will be given guided tours of the college by Wilkes students. Faculty and administration will be available to the afternoon's activities. From 1:15 to 2:30, students will learn about services and activities offered by the college, while their parents may attend sessions on financial aid and student services. Then, at 2:45, various academic departments on campus will be open, with faculty on hand to provide information on students' fields of interest.

The day will conclude with two different receptions at 4 p.m. Incoming students will meet informally with Wilkes students in the lobby of Stark Learning Center. A President's reception for parents will be held in Weckesser Hall. The receptions will mark the end of an informative day on the many programs and opportunities available at the college.

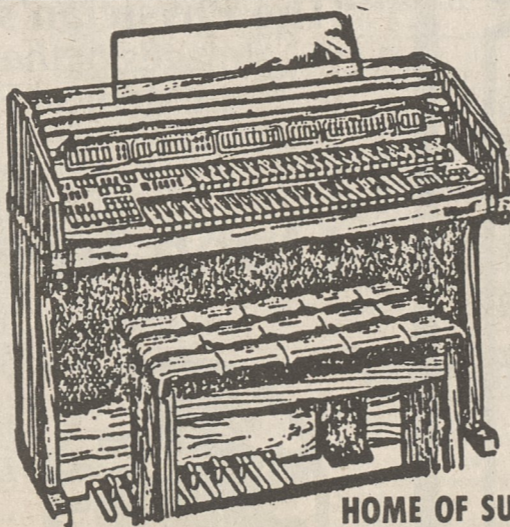

For further information on Visitation Day, contact the Wilkes College Office of Admissions at 824-4651, ext. 400.

Post Classifieds Sell

WANTED

WE WANT THAT ORGAN OR PIANO SITTING IN YOUR HOME THAT NO ONE IS PLAYING! NOW EVERYONE CAN PUT MUSIC IN THEIR LIVES! ALL YOU NEED IS THE NEW . . . EXCITING . . . UNBELIEVABLE . . . REMARKABLE "CX-3 Player Organ" By Viscount

- ★ It's A Player Organ!!
- ★ It Records What You Play And Then Plays Back!!
- ★ Follow The Lights It's A Built-In Teacher!!

- ★ It Has Computer Interface!!
- ★ E-Z Play-1 Finger Chord!!
- ★ 2 Full 44 Note Manuals!!
- ★ Great Traditional Sound!!
- ★ Everyone Will Use This Exciting New Instrument!!

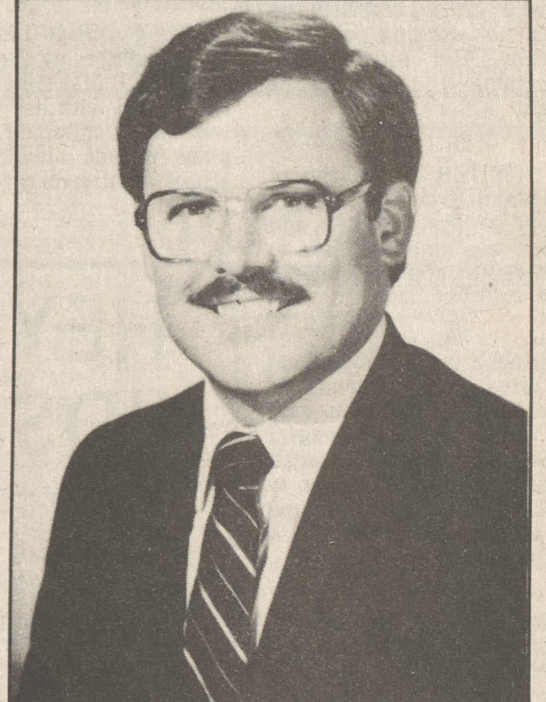

Open 10 - 9 Daily Sunday 1 - 5 829-2644 or 654-7319

HOME OF SUPER SAM NATIONAL MUSIC CENTERS Rt. 315

Plains Twp., Pa. 18702 1/2 Miles North of Pocono Downs

Financing Available Quick & Easy No Money Down

DR. RICHARD A. LANE JOINS PUGLIESE EYE CLINIC

Joseph Pugliese Eye Clinic is pleased to announce the appointment of Richard A. Lane, M.D. to its ophthalmology practice. Dr. Lane will be practicing general ophthalmology at the Eye Clinic.

Dr. Lane graduated Magna Cum Laude from Duke University, North Carolina, and received his medical degree from Albany Medical College, Albany, New York. He served his internship in internal medicine at Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center, New Hampshire. He completed his residency in ophthalmology at the Medical University of South Carolina where he was chief resident.

Dr. Lane was certified by the American Board of Ophthalmology and is a member of the American Academy of Ophthalmology. He was honored with the HELM Vision Research Award by the Medical University of South Carolina. Dr. Lane had a private ophthalmology practice in Newport, Rhode Island from 1984 until the time he joined the Eye Clinic. He is presently residing with his wife Deborah in Dallas, PA.

Dr. Lane will be taking appointments Monday through Saturday in addition to Wednesday evenings at the Eye Clinic in Kingston, 288-7405. Also, he will be taking new patient appointments daily Monday through Friday at the Eye Clinic's two new satellite locations in Bloomsburg, 784-4777 and Berwick, 752-1000.

Since the addition of Dr. Lane, the Eye Clinic staff now consists of seven ophthalmologists and three optometrists covering the following subspecialists: Joseph F. Pugliese, M.D. - Cataract and Lens Implant Surgery; Thomas G. Sharkey, M.D. - Pediatric and Glaucoma Surgery; Donald J. Savage, M.D. - Retina - Vitreous Surgery; Anthony J. Kameen, M.D. - Medical Ophthalmology; Larry A. Litscher, M.D. - Cornea and Refractive Surgery; Harry G. Glen, M.D. - General Ophthalmology; Jay L. Endrusick, O.D.; Kurt J. Moody, O.D.; and Gail A. Evans, O.D. - Specialty in Contact Lens Fittings, Refractions, and Low Vision.