Firemen appoint officers

The Trucksville Volunteer Fire Company monthly meeting was held in the Township Municipal Building recently.

Three other appointments were made. They are as follows: Training Officer, Jerry Kapral; Membership Committee: Gerald Wall, Wayne Williams and Brian Johnson. Alternates: George Tucker and Mike Kolesar. Ballot Chairman, Wayne Williams.

Two new members joined the fire company. They are William Baker and Ralph Schwartz.

The Trustees are Chuck Woolbert, Gene Brobst and Frank Roginski. Frank Roginski also serves as Chief of Fire Police.

Banquet set

"Community Service, the United Way", is the theme of the United Way of Wyoming Valley's Annual Meeting and Awards Event to be held on Thursday, April 17, at 7 p.m. at Genetti Best Western, Wilkes-Barre.

Richard L. Pearsall, Chairman of the Board, explained, "this year's awards dinner is held in honor of service-minded individuals who have contributed not just monetarily, but in terms of time, energy and talent to the well-being of their community."

New owners

Gail Touey and her sister, Donna Pitt, new owners of the Mum Farm Florist, Memorial Highway, Shavertown, begin preparing floral arrangements for the Easter holiday deliveries.

Officers installed

The Back Mountain Firemens Association held its annual Installation Dinner at the Jackson Twp. Fire Hall. Officers for the Association for 1986 are President, Jack Dodson, also Chief Kunkle Fire Co.; Vice President, Roland Evans, also Chief Jackson Twp. Fire Co.; Treasurer, Chris Purcell, Dallas Fire Co.; Secretary, Ed Jones, also Chief Fairmont Twp. Fire Co. Officers were installed by Sen. Charles Lemmond. The Back Mountain Firemen's Association was established back in 1949. The Association is composed of 14 volunteer fire companies, Dallas, Kunkle, Shavertown, Trucksville, Franklin Twp., Mt. Zion, Harveys Lake, Idetown, Noxen, Lake Silkworth, Lehman, Fairmont Twp., Jackson Twp. and Northmoreland Fire Co. Between the 14 volunteer fire companies they operate 27 pumpers and 14 tank trucks. Through the efforts of the volunteer firemen and the equipment they operate they give the Back Mountain Area excellent fire protection. This is the purpose and the main function of the Back Mountain Firemens Association.

Sisters are florists

The name is still the same - Mum Farm Florist - but there are new owners and a new look.

Donna Pitts and Gail Touey, sisters, purchased Mum Farm Florist from former owner, Tom Amos, and opened it as their business, July 1 of last year.

Natives of Dallas, the two young women are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Shaffer of Dallas. Both girls graduated from Dallas Senior High School. Donna attended College Misericordia for one and a half years where she was pursuing a career as a medical technician and Gail became a licensed beautician.

Both sisters always did various types of crafts because their mother did and they used to work along with her. Since they were working on crafts, they decided to open a shop and started looking for a place. At the time, Gail was working at Mum Farm Florist and learned that Amos wanted to sell his business. Gail and Donna discussed purchasing it with their husbands and arrived at the decision to purchase the business and go into partnership.

They had taken courses in floral arrangements at Penn State Wilkes-Barre Campus and thoroughly enjoyed it so they decided to continue the shop as a floral shop and kept the name "Mum Farm Florist". They are happy that they did because now they enjoy doing floral arrangements more than they did doing crafts.

Donna and Gail have made changes in the floral shop. There are a wide variety of silk flower arrangements on display, large handcrafted wreaths decorated with flowers and ribbons on all occasions are on the walls, and large, wide-brimmed hats beautifully arranged with flowers are featured on some of the walls.

The sisters make beautiful original arrangements and also feature "Precious Moments" and stained glass sun catchers, wall hangings and lamps.
