Brownies made float

Search on for Miss Cinderella

The search is on for the 1986 Prince Charming and Cinderella. Young men and women, high school seniors to age 26, are invited to participate in the nation's largest and most prestigious talent search in the country.

This unique concept of selecting finalists for a national competition by video tape gives every outstanding college age man and woman the opportunity to participate. The top five male and top five female finalists selected by video tape will win an all-expense paid week at the Hyatt Regency Hotel in Miami, Florida for competition. Prizes include a new car for the male winner and female winner, a $500 educational savings bond, their photos will appear in press materials, and on the cover of Pageantry Magazine, a trip to the 1987 International Finals, an all expense Caribbean cruise, a two day visit to Disney World-Epcot Center and more.

If you're interested in representing your home town at the National Collegiate Prince Charming and Cinderella Scholarship Pageant write: International Productions and Publications, Inc., P.O. Drawer 3689, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, 70821, (504) 344-7628. Entry deadline is May 15, 1986.

Open House held

Members of the Meadows Nursing Center Auxiliary recently hosted an Open House for all members of the community at the center, in Dallas. Residents, staff and auxiliary members joined to welcome approximately 200 guests who toured the nursing center, viewed exhibits and enjoyed refreshments together. The annual event points up to guests the many facets of the work of the auxiliary and the opportunities for volunteer placements and events. The auxiliary hosts many varied programs and events. Their annual fund raiser, "The Flea Market on the Pond" will be held on Saturday, June 14, and the public is invited to participate in this festive occasion. For more information please call the activities director, Marilyn Gregorski at 675-8600, ext. 115. Shown serving refreshments at the Open House are auxiliary volunteers. From left, Mary Ashbridge, Betty Williamson, Myrle Coolbaugh, Marian Young and guests, left to right, Mrs. Charles Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith, Alice Ryan.

With Joan Kingsbury Around town

BEST WISHES to Mr. and Mrs. John Miller, Shavertown on the birth of their son Jonathon Donald who was born on April 4. Jonathan's three lovely sisters are just thrilled with his arrival.

SINCERE SYMPATHY is extended to the family of John Sidler who passed away this week. Both John and his wife Anna, are well known by alumni from the Lake-Lehman School District where they both taught for a number of years.

EILEEN CONNOLLY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Connolly and Frank M. Ferrari III, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Ferrari, Jr. were recently married in Our Lady of Victory Church, Msgr. Francis A. Kane performed the double ring ceremony.

Mrs. Ferrari is a graduate of Lake-Lehman High School and Bloomsburg State College, where she received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Communications. She is employed as a property manager for F.M. Ferrari Investments, Verona, N.J.

Mr. Ferrari is a graduate of Verona High School and Plymouth State College, N.H. where he received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Marketing. He is the president and general partner of F.M. Ferrari Investments, Verona.

Following a wedding trip to the Italian Alps and the French Riviera, the couple will reside in Verona.

LAST WEEKEND my husband and I spent the weekend near Lewisburg. That is a lovely area and we had a very nice time. One thing that I noted as we passed a local fire house was that this weekend they would be holding a ham and dandelion supper. I found this very intriguing. I have never eaten dandelion greens, but I understand that many people just love this very available delicacy.

REV. AND MRS. JOHN S. PRATER, Jessee Road, Plymouth, have announced the engagement of their daughter Debra to Guy C. Zehner, son of Mrs. Gloria Zehner, RD 1, White Haven and Mr. Charles Zehner, 713 Towanda St., White Haven.

Miss Prater is a graduate of Wilkes College, summa cum laude where she received a Bachelor of Science Degree in Biology and a Master of Science Degree in Biology Education. She is employed at Wilkes College as the Director of the Academic Support Center.

Mr. Zehner is a graduate of Wilkes College with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Biology and is presently attending The Culinary Institute of America, Hyde Park, N.Y. He will graduate in June with an Associate's Degree in Occupational Studies.

The couple will exchange vows November 1 in Prince of Peace Church, Dallas.

THE CHILDREN'S ROOM of the Back Mountain Memorial Library has received several generous contributions.

Due to the generosity of Ralph K. Garrahan in memory of Ruth H. Garrahan and Mary E. (Garry) Stewart and Robert J. Scovell, daughters, Christine and Susan and Mr. and Mrs. Percy Walling in memory of Janet Walling Scovell, the children's room has been redecorated, new shelves, tables and chairs have been added and literature and audio-visual materials have been purchased.

Personally, I can think of no greater memorial than helping children learn to enjoy the library and providing them with fine books to read.

NURSING STUDENTS, faculty and members of the Nursing Honor Society of College Misericordia are planning the second annual Outstanding Nurses Lectureship April 18 at Merrick Hall at 6:30 p.m. Topic of the guest speaker Dr. Lucie Young Kelly, R.N. will be "Mentoring and Networking; Advancing the Profession."
